EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Regulations)

These Regulations amend the Scotland Act 1998 to provide that a person who is a member of the House of Lords ("a HoL member") is disqualified from membership of the Scottish Parliament, subject to the exceptions provided. These Regulations come into force on the day after they are made, but do not disqualify any member of the Scottish Parliament (an "MSP") until the day of the poll at the next general election for members of the Scottish Parliament.

Regulation 3 disqualifies a person from membership of the Scottish Parliament if they are a HoL member.

Regulation 4 repeals section 16(1) of the 1998 Act which specifically states that HoL members are not disqualified and provides for periods of exception in which disqualification does not apply. A HoL member who is subsequently returned as an MSP is not disqualified from being an MSP in the period of 14 days beginning on the day on which they are returned as an MSP. An MSP who becomes a HoL member during their term as an MSP is not disqualified from being an MSP in the period of 14 days beginning with the day on which the person takes the oath of office (or makes the affirmation of office) applicable to HoL members under the Parliamentary Oaths Act 1866.
