SEA FISHERIES

BOATS AND METHODS OF FISHING

1954 No. 78

The Sea-Fishing Industry (Fishing Nets) Order, 1954

Made - - - -	22nd January, 1954
Laid before Parliament	25th January, 1954
Coming into Operation	5th April, 1954

The Minister of Agriculture and Fisheries and the Secretaries of State for Scotland and the Home Department (being the Secretaries of State concerned with the sea-fishing industry in Scotland and Northern Ireland respectively), in exercise of the powers conferred upon them by section three of the Sea-Fishing Industry Act, 1933(a), as amended by section thirty-eight of the Sea Fish Industry Act, 1938(b), and section one of the White Fish and Herring Industries Act, 1948(c), and of all other powers enabling them in that behalf, hereby make the following order:—

1.—(1) This order may be cited as the Sea-Fishing Industry (Fishing Nets) Order, 1954, and shall come into operation on the 5th day of April, 1954.

(2) The Sea-Fishing Industry (Fishing Nets) Order, 1938(d), is hereby revoked with effect from the aforesaid date.

2.—(1) In this order, the following expressions have the meanings hereby respectively assigned to them, that is to say:—

"British Sea-Fishery Officer" means any person who is for the time being a British Sea-Fishery Officer by virtue of sub-section (2) of section eleven of the Sea Fisheries Act, 1883(e), as amended or extended by or under any subsequent enactment;

"fishing boat" means a vessel of whatever size and in whatever way propelled which is for the time being employed in sea-fishing or in the sea-fishing service;

"net" means any net which is towed or hauled;

"specified size" has the appropriate meaning assigned to it by paragraph (2) of Article 3 or paragraph (2) of Article 4 hereof, as the case may require.

(2) The Interpretation Act, 1889(f), shall apply to the interpretation of this order as it applies to the interpretation of an Act of Parliament.

3.—(1) Subject to the provisions of this order, no British fishing boat registered in the United Kingdom shall carry on board for the purpose of catching sea-fish in any waters situated north of the parallel of 48 degrees north latitude and east of the meridian of 42 degrees west longitude, any net unless it has in all its parts a mesh of such dimension that when the mesh is stretched diagonally lengthwise of the net a flat gauge of the specified size shall pass through it easily when the net is wet:

Provided that the provisions of this Article shall not apply to any waters—

(a) which are situated in the Baltic Sea and Belts lying to the south and east of lines drawn from Hasenore Head (Denmark) to Gniben Point (Denmark), from Korshage (Denmark) to Spodsbierg (Denmark), and from Gilbierg Head (Denmark) to the Kullen (Sweden); or

(b) to which the provisions of the next following Article of this order apply.

(2) For the purposes of the preceding paragraph of this Article, "specified size" means (1) in relation to any net other than a seine net (a) during the period from the coming into operation of this order up to and including the 4th day of April, 1956, seventy-five millimetres broad and two millimetres thick, and (b) on and after the 5th day of April, 1956, eighty millimetres broad and two millimetres thick; and (2) in relation to a seine net, seventy millimetres broad and two millimetres thick.

4.—(1) Subject to the provisions of this order, no British fishing boat registered in the United Kingdom shall carry on board for the purpose of catching sea-fish in any waters situated north of the parallel of 66 degrees north latitude and east of the meridian of Greenwich, or in waters between the parallels of 68 degrees and 62 degrees north latitude, and between the meridians of 28 degrees and 10 degrees west longitude, any net unless it has in all its parts a mesh of such dimension that when the mesh is stretched diagonally lengthwise of the net a flat gauge of the specified size shall pass through it easily when the net is wet.

(2) For the purposes of the preceding paragraph of this Article, "specified size" means (1) in relation to any net other than a seine net, one hundred and ten millimetres broad and two millimetres thick; and (2) in relation to a seine net, one hundred millimetres broad and two millimetres thick.

5. No person shall use any net to which this order applies in such manner as to obstruct or in effect to diminish the mesh in any part of the net, or cover the net with canvas or any other material, or use any other artifice for the purpose of evading the restrictions imposed by this order:

Provided that nothing in this Article shall be deemed to prohibit any person from attaching to the underside of the cod-end of a net any canvas, netting or other material, for the purpose of preventing or reducing wear and tear.

6. In any proceedings in respect of a contravention of the provisions of this order regulating the dimensions of the mesh in any net, it shall be a defence to prove that the net to which the proceedings relate was carried on board solely for the purpose of fishing for mackerel, clupeoid fishes, smelts, eels, great weevers (trachinus draco), shrimps, prawns, nephrops, or molluscs.

7. For the purpose of enforcing the provisions of this order a British Sea-Fishery Officer may, with respect to any British fishing boat registered in the United Kingdom, exercise the following powers:—

(1) He may go on board the boat;

(2) He may examine all fishing implements belonging to the boat;

(3) He may make any examination or inquiry which he deems necessary to ascertain whether any contravention of the provisions of this order has been committed.

In Witness whereof the Official Seal of the Minister of Agriculture and Fisheries is hereunto affixed this twentieth day of January nineteen hundred and fifty-four.

Tom Dugdale,
Minister of Agriculture and Fisheries.

Given under the Seal of the Secretary of State for Scotland this twenty-first day of January nineteen hundred and fifty-four.

James Stuart,
Secretary of State for Scotland.

Given under the Hand of the Secretary of State for the Home Department this twenty-second day of January nineteen hundred and fifty-four.

David Maxwell Fyfe,
Secretary of State for the Home Department.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Order, but is intended to indicate its general purport.)

This order gives effect to the decisions of the Permanent Commission set up under the International Fisheries Convention of 1946 as regards the regulation of the meshes of fishing nets which are towed or hauled. It fixes minimum dimensions of mesh which may be used in certain specified waters including territorial waters, by British fishing boats registered in the United Kingdom, and confers powers of enforcement on British Sea-Fishery Officers.
