3. For the purpose of bringing the prices fixed by this Order to the notice of customers any person carrying on the business of a second-hand goods dealer in the course of which second-hand goods of the descriptions specified in the First Schedule hereto are offered for sale shall, before selling, agreeing to sell or offering or exposing for sale any such goods, attach to each article or to each set of articles of such goods in a position in which it can be easily read by any customer a ticket setting out in legible characters the maximum price of that article or set of articles.

(b) if that price is not established or in any case in which the person carrying on the business of a second-hand goods dealer having taken all reasonably practicable steps to ascertain the price referred to in (a) has been unable to do so, the price inclusive of any purchase tax at which it would have been reasonable for comparable goods when new to have been offered for sale in the ordinary course of a retail business during the most recent period when such goods were available for sale ;
