EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Regulations, but is intended to indicate their general purport.)

These Regulations amend the Seed Potatoes (Scotland) Regulations 1963 by withdrawing from a seller of seed potatoes the option to give certain particulars on a label inserted in the bag or sack instead of giving them on a label attached to the bag or sack or marking them on the bag or sack itself. The amendment does not apply in a case where less than 1 cwt. of potatoes is sold by retail.

Where delivery of seed potatoes is effected before 1st August 1965 the Regulations also permit certain other particulars to be given on a label attached to the bag or sack instead of being marked on the bag or sack itself. This too does not apply where less than 1 cwt. of potatoes is sold by retail.
