The Selective Employment Payments Variation Order 1969

Laid before Parliament in draft

Made - - -	25th June 1969
Coming into Operation	7th July 1969

The Secretary of State with the consent of the Treasury in exercise of her powers under section 9(1) of the Selective Employment Payments Act 1966(a) (hereinafter referred to as "the principal Act") and of all other powers enabling her in that behalf hereby makes the following Order, a draft of which has been approved by resolution of each House of Parliament.

Citation, commencement and interpretation

1.—(1) This Order may be cited as the Selective Employment Payments Variation Order 1969 and shall come into operation on 7th July 1969.

(2) The Interpretation Act 1889(b) shall apply to the interpretation of this Order as it applies to the interpretation of an Act of Parliament.

(3) The references in this Order to sections are references to sections of the principal Act.

Additions to employments to which section 1 applies

2.—(1) Section 1 (which, subject to the provisions of the Revenue Act 1968(c) specifies employments as respects which an employer is entitled to selective employment premium) shall have effect as if to subsection (2) (a) thereof there were added the following:—

"(vii) the conversion, by using machinery to remove deleterious material or by using machinery to alter the size or shape, of scrap metal to a recognised trade specification for making new metal or for use in the manufacture of chemicals; or

(viii) the production of waste paper or waste paper board in bales to a recognised trade specification for making pulp, by the use of machinery, both to remove deleterious material and to produce the said bales; or

(ix) the production of cinematograph films for public exhibition including television presentation; or

(x) industrial photoprinting, that is to say, so much of the activities falling under sub-head 2 of minimum list heading 899 (which relates to photography) as consists of the photographic reproduction of technical drawings and the production for exhibition, display or publicity, in each case for the purpose of another's business (including the purposes of a Government Department, a local authority or a public body), of prints of photographic enlargements."

(a) 1966 c. 32. (b) 1889 c. 63. (c) 1968 c. 11.

(2) The Selective Employment Payments Variation Order 1968(a) (Article 2 of which specifies additional employments to which section 1 applies) shall have effect subject to the following amendments (being amendments designed to include in the said section 1 certain further additional employments):—

(a) in sub-paragraph (a) and in sub-paragraph (b) of Article 1(5) there shall be added at the end of each sub-paragraph the words "or a slaughterhouse provided by a local authority"

(b) in Article 2 there shall be substituted for the words "slaughtering animals in a knacker's yard or slaughterhouse" the words "slaughtering animals in or from a knacker's yard or in a slaughterhouse".

Additions to employments to which section 2 applies

3. Section 2 (which specifies employments as respects which an employer is entitled to selective employment refund) shall have effect as if to subsection (3) (a) thereof there were added the following:—

"(v) heading 601 (which relates to gas);".

Signed by order of the Secretary of State.

Roy Hattersley,
Joint Parliamentary Under Secretary of State,
Department of Employment and Productivity.

25th June 1969.

We consent.

Walter Harrison,
B. K. O'Malley,
Two of the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury.

25th June 1969.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Order.)

This Order adds to the employments which may be eligible for payments under section 1 of the Selective Employment Payments Act 1966, employments in establishments engaged in certain activities relating to processing of scrap metal and waste paper, the production of cinematograph films and industrial photo-printing, establishments engaged in slaughtering animals in a local authority slaughterhouse, and establishments which include a knacker's yard where most of the slaughtering of animals takes place otherwise than at the yard, and also to employments which may be eligible for refund under section 2, employments in establishments engaged in processing natural gas.
