Cap. xlv.

An Act for removing the Market between King Street and Castle Street in the Town of Sheffield, and for providing a new Market Place in lieu thereof, and for regulating and maintaining the Markets and Fairs of the said Town.

[21st June 1847.]

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the Session of Parliament held in the Seventh and Eighth Years of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled An 7 & 8 G. 4.
Act for removing the Corn, Hay, and Cattle Markets of the Town of c. 46.
Sheffield in the West Riding of the County of York, for erecting a Corn Exchange, and improving the Market Places, and regulating the Fairs and Markets of the said Town, and erecting a Bridge there over the River Dun, after reciting therein (amongst other things) an Act passed in the Twenty-fourth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled An Act for enlarging the 24 G. 3.
Market Place and regulating the Markets within the Town of Sheffield Sess. 2. c. 5.
in the West Riding of the County of York, and for widening and rendering more safe and commodious several Streets adjoining or leading into the said Market Place, and for taking down the present

Slaughter-houses within the said Town, and erecting others in a more proper Situation, to the Effect therein recited, and that under the Powers of the said therein-recited Act the former Market had been considerably increased, and the Markets and Fairs for Horses and other Beasts and Live Cattle had been removed to a Place called the Wicker, and certain Buildings and Conveniences thereto had been erected and made upon a convenient Site for therein slaughtering Cattle, and after also reciting that the Most Noble Bernard Edward late Duke of Norfolk was then the Owner of the Castle and Manor of Sheffield, and of the said Market and Market Place and the Buildings and Sites thereof, and of the Rates, Tolls, Pickage, Stallage, Free Customs, Issues, Rents, Duties, and Profits of the said Markets and Fairs, the same being Part of or incident to the Manor or Lordship of Sheffield, and that in or about the Year One thousand eight hundred and eighteen the said Bernard Edward Duke of Norfolk purchased certain Hereditaments lying between King Street and Castle Street in Sheffield aforesaid, and erected Buildings thereupon, and upon the Site of the late Gaol for the District of Hallamshire, all which had been added to and appropriated and since used for the Purposes of the said Market, and other Additions and Improvements had also been made to the said Markets and Market Places, and that the said Bernard Edward Duke of Norfolk was willing to make the Improvements and Regulations therein mentioned under the Direction of Commissioners as therein-after expressed, it was (amongst other things) enacted, that from and after the passing of the said Act now in recital the said therein-recited Act of the Twenty-fourth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third should be repealed, and that certain Persons therein named should be Commissioners for carrying the Purposes of the said Act into execution, and that the several Pieces or Parcels of Land particularly mentioned and described in the First Schedule to the said Act annexed marked A. should from and immediately after the passing of the said Act be appropriated and set apart as and for the Sites of a Corn Market or Hay Market, and a Market and Fairs for Beasts, Horses, Swine, and other Cattle, and also, in case the said Bernard Edward Duke of Norfolk, or the future Owner or Owners of the said Market, and the said Commissioners should at any Time think fit, as and for a Market for vending Meal, Flour, Butchers Meat, Fish, Poultry, Potatoes, and other Vegetables, Cheese, Butter, and Eggs, and all other Matters and Things which before the passing of the said Act had been usually exposed to Sale in the Market Places provided by the said therein in part recited Act of Parliament; and (amongst other Powers and Authorities therein contained) the said Bernard Edward Duke of Norfolk, or the future Owner or Owners of the said Market, was and were thereby empowered to appropriate, set apart, and use as a Market Place and Market for the Sale of the several Matters and Things therein and herein-before mentioned, or any of them, the Plot or Space of Ground lying between King Street and Castle Street aforesaid, and then used as a Fish Market, and also to enlarge and improve the same by the Purchase and Appropriation of the several Messuages, Buildings, Lands, Grounds, and Hereditaments described in the Second Schedule to the said Act annexed marked marked B., and to purchase and take in manner therein mentioned, within the Space of Five Years from the passing of the said Act, the several Messuages, Buildings, Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments in the said Parish of Sheffield in the said First and Second Schedules to the said Act marked A. and B. respectively, and to make, erect, and build upon the Lands and Hereditaments comprised in the said First Schedule marked A. such a Market House as a Corn Exchange, with Offices and Shops thereto, and such other Houses, Buildings, Stalls, Standings, Shambles, and other Conveniences, and such Roads, Ways, Passages, and Avenues leading to the said Market as therein mentioned, and also to erect One or more Engine or Engines for weighing Corn, Hay, Straw, or other Articles to be bought or sold by Weight in the said Markets; and the said Bernard Edward Duke of Norfolk, or the future Owner or Owners of the said Market, and the said Commissioners were thereby authorized to appropriate and set apart such Portions as they should think proper of the Lands mentioned in the First Schedule to the said Act annexed marked A. as and for a public Market Place for exposing to Sale Corn, Grain, and other agricultural Produce in Bulk, and also to set apart and appropriate such other Portion as they should think proper of the said last-mentioned Lands as and for a public Market Place for exposing to Sale and selling therein Hay and Straw, and also to set apart and appropriate such other Portion as they should think fit of such last-mentioned Lands, or some Part or Parts thereof, as and for a public Market Place for exposing to Sale and selling therein Live Cattle, Horses, Beasts, Sheep, and Swine; and by the said Act various Powers and Authorities were given to the said Bernard Edward Duke of Norfolk, or the future Owner or Owners of the said Market, and the said Commissioners, as to the holding of the said Markets and Fairs, and as to the regulating, cleansing, letting, occupying, holding, and using all and every or any of the said Markets and Market Places and Corn Exchange, and otherwise in relation to the said Markets, and for carrying out the Purposes and Objects of the said Act; and amongst other Powers and Authorities Power was given to the said Bernard Edward Duke of Norfolk, or the future Owner or Owners of the said Market, and the said Commissioners to appoint the Buildings therein mentioned to be then already erected on the then present Market Place to be a public Weighing House or Place, and also to erect and appoint One or more other public Weighing House or Place or public Weighing Houses or Places in or near the said Market Places or any of them, and the said Bernard Edward Duke of Norfolk, or other the Owner or Owners of the said Market, were thereby empowered to borrow and take up at Interest such Sum and Sums of Money as and in the Manner therein mentioned; and it was thereby enacted, that when all such Monies should be paid off and discharged the said Market Places, and all the Buildings, Stalls, Standings, Shambles, and other Conveniences to be erected for the Purposes of the said Act, and any Lands and Hereditaments to be purchased in pursuance of the said Act, should from thenceforth and for ever thereafter remain and be vested in the said Bernard Edward Duke of Norfolk, and the future Owner or Owners of the said Market, and then also all and every Sum and Sums of Money which should

accrue or arise from the Rents, Tolls, Duties, and Stallages authorized to be levied by the said Act, or from the Letting thereof, should from Time to Time from thenceforth for ever thereafter be collected, received, or taken by the said Bernard Edward Duke of Norfolk, and the future Owner or Owners of the said Market, or by such Person or Persons as he or they should nominate or appoint for that Purpose, and the said Bernard Edward Duke of Norfolk, and the future Owner or Owners of the said Market, was and were thereby empowered, if he or they should think proper, by and with the Approbation of the said Commissioners, to erect and build a Bridge across the said River Dun as therein mentioned: And whereas under the Powers of the said recited Act the said Corn Market and Hay Market, and the Market and Fairs for Beasts, Horses, Swine, and other Cattle, were removed from the Places where the same were respectively held before the passing of the said Act to more suitable and convenient Situations in or upon Portions of the said Lands mentioned in the said First Schedule to the said Act annexed marked A., and are now held upon the same respectively, and a Corn Exchange with Houses, Offices, and Shops attached, and also a Weighing House or Place near the said Corn and Hay Markets (which are contiguous to and adjoin each other), have been erected and built, and are now standing and being upon other Portions of the said last-mentioned Lands, and a Bridge has also been erected and built across the said River Dun: And whereas under the Powers of the said Act the Plot or Space of Ground therein mentioned lying between King Street and Castle Street, and formerly used as a Fish Market, was appropriated and set apart and the same is now used as and for a Market Place and Market for the Sale of the several Matters and Things in the said Act in that Behalf mentioned, but the same Market Place and Market have not been enlarged or improved by the Purchase or Appropriation of the several Messuages, Buildings, Lands, Grounds, and Hereditaments described in the Second Schedule to the said Act annexed marked B., or any of them, and the Powers in the said Act contained enabling the said Bernard Edward Duke of Norfolk, and the future Owner or Owners of the said Market, to take and purchase the same Messuages, Buildings, Lands, Grounds, and Hereditaments, have expired, and cannot now be acted upon: And whereas all Monies borrowed under the Powers of the said recited Act have been paid off and discharged: And whereas the Most Noble Henry Charles Duke of Norfolk is or claims to be the Owner of the Castle and Manor of Sheffield, and of the said Markets and Market Places, and the Buildings and Sites thereof, with the Appurtenances, and of the Rates, Tolls, Pickage, Stallage, Free Customs, Issues, Rents, Duties, and Profits of the said Markets and Fairs, the same being Part of and incident to the said Castle and Manor or Lordship of Sheffield: And whereas there has been held annually from Time immemorial on the Wednesday in Easter Week within the Manor of Sheffield aforesaid a Court Leet and View of Frankpledge before the Steward of that Manor, at which proper Persons are appointed Inspectors of Meat, Flesh, Fish, and other Victuals, Examiners of Weights and Measures, and to other public Offices and Duties within the said Manor and Town of Sheffield: And whereas the Trade, Manufactures, and Population of the said Town of Sheffield and its Neighbourhood have greatly increased since the passing of the said recited Act, and the said Market and Market Place now held and being upon the said Plot or Space of Ground lying between King Street and Castle Street aforesaid, and used for the Sale of the several Matters and Things in the said Act in that Behalf mentioned, are inadequate for the Demands and Exigencies of the said Town and Neighbourhood: And whereas it would be of advantage to the said Town if the said last-mentioned Market were removed to a Piece or Parcel of Land very convenient for the Purposes thereof, situate in the said Town of Sheffield, between a Street or Place called Castle Folds and a Street or Place called Dixon Lane, and if a new Market Place with suitable Buildings and Accommodation were erected thereon, and if another Piece or Parcel of Land, also situate in the said Town of Sheffield, and separated or divided from the said last-mentioned Piece or Parcel of Land by Part of the said Street or Place called Castle Folds, and lying between Exchange Street and Broad Street in the said Town, were cleared and thrown open as additional Ground for the Purposes of the said Markets: And whereas it would also be of advantage to the said Town if other and further Provisions were made for the Government and Management of the said Fairs and Markets thereof, and of the subsisting Market Places for the Time being, and if all the Provisions relating to the said Fairs, Markets, and Market Places were consolidated into this present Act: May it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the passing of this Act the said herein-before recited Act of the Session held in the Seventh and Eighth Years of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth (except such Part thereof whereby the said therein-recited Act of the Twenty-fourth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third was repealed,) shall be and the same is hereby declared to be repealed.

Recited Act 7 & 8 G. 4. c. 46. repealed.

II. Provided always, and be it enacted, That each and every Treasurer, Collector, Surety, or other Person in whose Hands, Custody, or Control any Money shall have been received or collected under or by virtue of the said recited Act, or who shall be indebted in any Sum or Sums of Money to the said Henry Charles Duke of Norfolk, or the Commissioners thereby appointed, shall be and remain liable to pay, deliver up, and account for the same to the said Henry Charles Duke of Norfolk, and the future Owner or Owners of the Markets within the Limits of this Act, as if such Money had come to their Hands by virtue of this Act; and that all Conveyances, Enfranchisements, Leases and Counterparts of Leases, and the Covenants therein contained, and all Contracts, Stipulations, or Agreements, Orders, Matters, and Things, entered into, directed, made or done before the passing of this Act by the said Bernard Edward Duke of Norfolk, deceased, and by the said Henry Charles Duke of Norfolk, and the Commissioners acting by or under the said recited Act, or by any Person or Persons acting under their or any of their Direction or Control, with any Person or Persons whomsoever, shall, notwithstanding the Repeal of the said recited Act, subsist and continue in force in such Manner as according to the Tenor thereof respectively the same would have subsisted and continued in force in case the same Act had not been repealed; and it shall be lawful for the said Henry Charles Duke of Norfolk, and the future Owner or Owners of the said Markets, to sue and be sued upon the same respectively in such Manner and under the same Regulations as they respectively, or the Commissioners thereby appointed, might have been had not the said Act been repealed.

Treasurer and Officers under former Act to account.

Books, &c. to be Evidence.

III. And be it enacted, That all and every Book and Books which under the said Act hereby repealed could be given in Evidence shall and may be given in Evidence in all Cases of Appeal, and in all Prosecutions, Suits, Actions, and Proceedings whatsoever, in such and the same Manner as if the said recited Act had not been repealed.

8 & 9 Vict. c. 18. and 10 & 11 Vict. c. 14. incorporated with this Act.

IV. And be it enacted, That the several Acts of Parliament following, that is to say, "The Lands Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845," and "The Markets and Fairs Clauses Act, 1847," with the Exception of the Clauses in the said last-mentioned Act contained with respect to the following Matters, (that is to say,)

With respect to the Bye Laws to be made by the Undertakers;

With respect to the Receipts and Expenditure of the Undertakers; and

With respect to Access to the special Act, shall be incorporated with and form Part of this Act.

"Quarter Sessions."

V. And be it enacted, That the Expression "Quarter Sessions" in this and the Acts incorporated herewith shall be construed to mean the Quarter Sessions for the West Riding of the County of York.

Short Title of the Act.

VI. And be it enacted, That in citing this Act in other Acts of Parliament and in legal Instruments it shall be sufficient to use the Expression "The Sheffield Market Act, 1847."

Limits of the Act.

VII. And be it enacted, That the Limits within which this and the Acts incorporated herewith shall be put in force shall be as follows; that is to say, the Town of Sheffield and the Parish of Sheffield, except the Manor of Ecclesall which is comprised within the said Parish.

Power to purchase Houses and Lands mentioned in the First Schedule to the Act.

VIII. And be it enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the said Henry Charles Duke of Norfolk, or other the Owner and Owners for the Time being of the Markets within the Limits of this Act, and he and they is and are hereby authorized and empowered, to purchase and take and use the several Messuages, Buildings, Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments in the said Parish of Sheffield mentioned and specified in the First Schedule to this Act annexed marked A., or so much and such Part or Parts thereof as the said Henry Charles Duke of Norfolk, or other the Owner or Owners aforesaid, aforesaid, shall think necessary and proper to be taken and used for all or any of the Purposes of this Act.

Land to be taken for extraordinary Purposes limited.

IX. And be it enacted, That the Lands to be taken or appropriated for extraordinary Purposes by the said Henry Charles Duke of Norfolk, or other the Owner or Owners for the Time being of the Markets within the Limits of this Act, shall not exceed Ten Acres.

Power to clear Ground and to sell old Materials.

X. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the said Henry Charles Duke of Norfolk, or other the Owner or Owners for the Time being of the Markets within the Limits of this Act, and he and they is and are hereby authorized, to take down or cause to be taken down all Houses and other Erections and Buildings whatsoever which shall be purchased or taken by virtue of this Act, or such of them or such Part thereof as he or they shall think proper to be taken down, and to level and clear the Ground whereon the same shall stand, and all other the Ground to be purchased or taken by virtue of this Act, in such a Manner as he or they shall think proper, and to sell or cause to be sold the Materials of the Houses and other Erections and Buildings to be so taken down; and the Monies to be produced by the Sale thereof, after deducting the Expences of taking down the same and of such Sale, and also the Rents and Profits of the said Houses, Erections, Buildings, Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments to be purchased or taken as aforesaid, until the same shall be taken down or cleared, shall be applied and disposed of for and towards the Purposes of this Act.

New Market to be established.

XI. And be it enacted, That it shall and may be lawful for the said Henry Charles Duke of Norfolk, or other the Owner or Owners for the Time being of the Markets within the Limits of this Act, and he and they is and are hereby authorized and empowered, to alter all or any of the said Messuages, Buildings, Tenements, or Hereditaments so to be purchased as aforesaid, or any Part thereof respectively, and to appropriate and set apart the same or any of them, or any Part thereof, and all or any of the Ground or Sites thereof respectively, and also all or any of the Land or Ground so to be purchased or taken as aforesaid, for the several Purposes of this Act, and to make and form a spacious Opening or Square between the said Streets or Places called respectively Castle Folds and Dixon Lane, and to appropriate and set apart the same, and to make, erect, and build thereupon, or upon any Part thereof, a Market Place, with all proper and sufficient Offices, Buildings, Weighing House and Machine, Stalls, Standings, and other Conveniences for the Sale of Meal, Flour, Butchers Meat, Fish, Poultry, Potatoes and other Vegetables, Cheese, Butter, Eggs, and other Provisions, Goods, Wares, Merchandize, and all other Articles, Matters, and Things of whatsoever Nature or Description which the said Henry Charles Duke of Norfolk, or the Owner or Owners for the Time being of the said Markets, shall direct; and also to make and clear another Opening or Space of Ground between the said Streets called respectively Exchange Street and Broad Street, and set apart and appro-appropriate the same for all or any of the Purposes of the said Markets; and also to divert, widen, or otherwise alter any of the Streets or Places called Castle Folds, Dixon Lane, Exchange Street, and Broad Street, where the same respectively adjoin the said Spaces of Ground to be set apart as aforesaid, or either of them, and to make all convenient Roads, Ways, Avenues, and Approaches to, and all necessary Sewers and Drains from, the same respectively, and to make and erect all such Arches and other Works, and generally to do and perform all such other Acts, Matters, and Things, as the said Henry Charles Duke of Norfolk, or such Owner or Owners as aforesaid, shall think necessary or proper for making and completing the said new Market Place, Buildings, Erections, Avenues, and Conveniences, and for executing the several other Works hereby authorized, according to the true Intent and Meaning of this Act.

Streets when diverted to be deemed public Streets.

XII. And be it enacted, That every Street so to be diverted, widened, or otherwise altered as aforesaid shall, from and after the Diversion, widening, or Alteration thereof, be and be deemed a public Street and Highway, and shall be paved, cleansed, lighted, watched, kept in repair, and otherwise ordered and regulated as the other public Streets and Highways in the said Town of Sheffield.

Removal of the present Market between King Street and Castle Street.

XIII. And be it enacted, That after the said new Market Place shall be opened for public Use the said Market now held in the Space between King Street and Castle Street aforesaid shall be removed to and held in and upon the said new Market Place.

Present Market Place to be used until the new Market Place is completed.

XIV. And be it enacted, That until the said new Market Place shall be opened for public Use as aforesaid the said Market Place between King Street and Castle Street aforesaid shall continue to be used as and for the Purposes of a Market under the Provisions of this Act.

Power to sell or lease the Site and Buildings, &c. of the Market Place to be abandoned.

XV. And be it enacted, That when and so soon as the Market now held in the Space between King Street and Castle Street aforesaid shall have been removed to the said new Market Place, it shall be lawful for the said Henry Charles Duke of Norfolk, or other the Owner or Owners for the Time being of the Markets within the Limits of this Act, at any Time or Times thereafter, and he and they is and are hereby authorized and empowered, to sell and dispose of and convey the Site or Ground of the said Market Place between King Street and Castle Street aforesaid, and of all such Additions and Improvements made thereto as in the herein-before recited Act recited or mentioned, or any Part or Parts thereof respectively, and all Houses and other Erections and Buildings whatsoever thereon, and the Materials of such Houses, Erections, and Buildings, to any Person or Persons, for such Price or Prices, and in such Manner in all respects as the said Henry Charles Duke of Norfolk, or such other Owner or Owners as aforesaid, shall think fit, and in the meantime, and until such Sale or Sales shall take place, to grant a Lease of or let the said Site and Buildings thereon, or any Part of the same respectively, to any Person or Persons whomsoever for a Term of Years or any shorter shorter Period, and for such Considerations in gross annual Rents, or other Considerations or Compensations, and on such Conditions, as to the said Henry Charles Duke of Norfolk, or such other Owner or Owners as aforesaid, shall seem meet; and the Money arising from such Sale or Sales, and the Amount of such annual Rents or other Considerations or Compensations, shall be paid, applied, and disposed of for the Purposes of this Act.

Power to borrow Money on Mortgage.

XVI. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the said Henry Charles Duke of Norfolk, or other the Owner or Owners for the Time being of the Markets within the Limits of this Act, to borrow on Mortgage under the Provisions of this Act any Sum or Sums of Money not exceeding in the whole the Sum of Thirty thousand Pounds.

Certain Provisions of 10 & 11 Vict. c. 16. incorporated with this Act.

XVII. And be it enacted, That the Clauses and Provisions of "the Commissioners Clauses Act, 1847," with respect to the Mortgages to be executed by the Commissioners, shall, so far as the same are not varied by the Provisions of this Act, be incorporated with this Act, and such Clauses shall apply to the Markets within the Limits of this Act, and to the said Henry Charles Duke of Norfolk, and other the Owner or Owners for the Time being of the said Markets, and shall be construed as if the Expression "Henry Charles Duke of Norfolk, or other the Owner or Owners for the Time being of the Markets within the Limits of this Act," had been inserted therein instead of the Expressions the "Commissioners" and the "Commissioners or any Five of them."

Sum to be set apart as a sinking Fund for the Payment of Mortgages.

XVIII. And be it enacted, That the Sum to be set apart and appropriated out of the Rates, Rents, or Profits arising or accruing by virtue of this Act as a sinking Fund, to be applied in paying off the Principal Monies borrowed or secured on Mortgage under the Provisions of this Act, shall be each Year such Part of the Monies from Time to Time so borrowed or secured as aforesaid as the said Henry Charles Duke of Norfolk, or other the Owner or Owners for the Time being of the Markets within the Limits of this Act, shall from Time to Time prescribe.

Mortgagees may appoint Receiver.

XIX. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Mortgagees and Assignees in Security of the said Henry Charles Duke of Norfolk, or the Owner or Owners for the Time being of the Markets within the Limits of this Act to the Amount of Ten thousand Pounds, to enforce the Payments of the Arrears of Interest, or of the Arrears of Principal and Interest, due to them, by the Appointment of a Receiver.

Application of Monies.

XX. And be it enacted, That all Monies which shall be raised by virtue of this Act, whether by Sale or Mortgage, and all Monies which shall arise from or in respect of the Rents, Tolls, Duties, and Stallage authorized to be levied by this Act or from the letting thereof, shall from Time to Time be paid to the Treasurer, Collector, or such other Person as the said Henry Charles Duke of Norfolk, or other the Owner or Owners for the Time being of the Markets within within the Limits of this Act, shall from Time to Time authorize to receive the same, and shall be applied in the Order and Manner herein-after mentioned; (that is to say), in the first place, in paying all the Costs, Charges, and Expences incident to and attending the obtaining and passing of this Act; and, in the next place, executing the several Works authorized by this Act, or in carrying the same into execution, and all Allowances to the several Officers acting in the Execution of this Act, and the Costs, Charges, and Expences of regulating, maintaining, and keeping in repair the said Markets; and, of altering and improving the same from Time to Time, and all other necessary Expenditure relating to the said Markets; and, in the next place, from Time to Time in paying and discharging the Interest of all the Monies authorized to be borrowed by this Act; and in the meantime, and subject to the several Payments aforesaid, and to the Principal Money for the Time being due and owing upon the Mortgage Securities to be made in pursuance of this Act, and to the Provisions herein contained for discharging the same, the said Monies and every Part thereof shall be paid and applied to the said Henry Charles Duke of Norfolk, or other the Owner or Owners for the Time being of the said Markets, or as he or they shall direct.

Purchasers and others paying Money not bound to see to its Application.

XXI. And be it enacted, That no Person or Persons paying or advancing any Money under or by virtue of this Act shall be bound to inquire whether the same is hereby authorized to be so paid or raised, or to see to the Application thereof, or be in anywise answerable for the Misapplication or Nonapplication thereof or of any Part thereof.

Power to appoint Officers.

XXII. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the said Henry Charles Duke of Norfolk, and other the Owner or Owners for the Time being of the Markets within the Limits of this Act, from Time to Time to appoint a Treasurer, and such Clerk, Collector, and other Officers, for the Purpose of effecting all or any of the Objects of this Act, as the said Duke, or such Owner or Owners as aforesaid, should think fit, and from Time to Time to remove any of such Officers, and appoint others in the Room of such as shall be so removed, or as may die, resign, or discontinue their Offices, and to make such Allowances to such Officers respectively as the said Duke, or such Owner or Owners as aforesaid, should think proper.

Treasurer, &c. to give Security.

XXIII. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the said Henry Charles Duke of Norfolk, and other the Owner or Owners for the Time being of the Markets within the Limits of this Act, and he and they is and are hereby required, to take sufficient Security from the Treasurer, and also from all and every other Officer to be appointed by virtue of this Act who may have the Custody or Collection of any Money to be raised by the Authority of this Act, for the due Execution of their respective Offices.

Book of Accounts to be kept and to be open to Inspection.

XXIV. And be it enacted, That a Book shall be kept by the Treasurer in which he shall enter or cause to be entered true and regular Accounts of all Sums of Money received and expended for the the Purposes of this Act, and of the several Matters for which such Sums of Money shall have been received or expended; and such Books shall at all seasonable Times be open to the Inspection of any Creditor on the Tolls, Rents, or Stallages by this Act authorized to be levied or collected, without any Fee or Reward being demanded for such Inspection; and it shall be lawful for such Creditor at seasonable Times to take Copies of or Extracts from the said Book upon paying for such Copies or Extracts after the Rate of Sixpence for every One hundred Words.

Accounts to be transmitted to the Clerk of the Peace.

XXV. And be it enacted, That the Treasurer for the Time being appointed under this Act shall every Year cause an annual Account in abstract to be prepared showing the total Receipts and Expenditures of all Funds raised and levied by virtue of this Act for the Year ending on the Thirty-first Day of December or some other convenient Day in each Year, under the several distinct Heads of Receipt and Expenditure, with a Statement of the Balance of such Account, and shall transmit a Copy of the said Account, free of Charge, to the Clerk of the Peace for the West Riding of the County of York on or before the Thirty-first Day of January then next, which Account shall be open to the Inspection of the Public at all seasonable Hours on the Payment of the Sum of One Shilling for every such Inspection.

General Provision for the Maintenance of the subsisting Markets for the Time being.

XXVI. And be it enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act it shall be lawful for the said Henry Charles Duke of Norfolk, and other the Owner or Owners for the Time being of the Markets within the Limits of this Act, from Time to Time to make such Alterations in the Division, Arrangement, and Appropriation thereof, and such Repairs, Alterations, and Amendments of or in the Shops, Erections, and Buildings thereon, or the convenient Approaches and other Accommodation thereof, and generally from Time to Time to do all such Acts, Deeds, Matters, and Things, as to the said Duke, or such Owner or Owners as aforesaid, shall appear to be necessary or proper for the Preservation, Maintenance, Regulation, and Support of the said Markets and Market Places, or any Part thereof, and also to provide such Slaughter-houses, and for ever hereafter to maintain the said Markets, with all proper and necessary Stalls, Standings, Shops, Buildings, Approaches, Conveniences, and other Accommodations, as the said Henry Charles Duke of Norfolk, or such Owner or Owners as aforesaid, shall from Time to Time direct.

Power to hold Markets and take Tolls.

XXVII. And be it enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act all Markets and Fairs to be held within the Limits of this Act for the Sale of Cattle, Animals, and Provisions, Corn, Hay, and Straw, and such other Articles and Things as shall for the Time being be saleable by virtue of this Act in the Market Places for the Time being subsisting under this Act, shall be held within the Limits of such subsisting Market Places only and not elsewhere (except as herein-after mentioned), and the said Henry Charles Duke of Norfolk, and other the Owner or Owners for the Time being of the Markets within the Limits of this Act, shall and may, by himself, or his or their Collectors, Farmers, Officers, or Servants, ask, demand, recover, recover, receive, and take the several Rents, Tolls, Duties, Pickage, Stallage, or Sum or Sums of Money mentioned and specified in the Second Schedule to this Act annexed marked (B.)

Power to lease the Markets, &c. for Seven Years, &c.

XXVIII. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the said Henry Charles Duke of Norfolk, and other the Owner or Owners for the Time being of the Markets within the Limits of this Act, from Time to Time to demise and let the said Markets and Market Places, or any of them, or any Part of them, and the said Slaughter-houses, Weighing Houses or Places and Machines, or any of them, or the said Stallages, Rents, or Tolls, or any of them, for any Period not exceeding Seven Years, upon such Terms as shall be agreed upon between the said Duke, or other the Owner or Owners aforesaid, and the Person to whom such Lease shall be made.

Power to lease Standings in the Markets.

XXIX. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the said Henry Charles Duke of Norfolk, and other the Owner or Owners for the Time being of the Markets within the Limits of this Act, to let any of the Slaughter-houses, Shops, Stalls, Standing Places, Benches, or other Conveniences in the said Market Places to any Person for any Term not exceeding Seven Years.

Power to assign Lease of Standings.

XXX. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Lessee of any such Slaughter-house, Shop, Stall, Standing Place, or other Convenience, his Executors, Administrators, and Assigns, with Consent of the said Henry Charles Duke of Norfolk, or other the Owner or Owners of the Markets within the Limits of this Act, to assign the same for the Residue of his Term.

Power to make Bye Laws.

XXXI. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the said Henry Charles Duke of Norfolk, and other the Owner or Owners for the Time being of the Markets within the Limits of this Act, from Time to Time to make such Bye Laws as he or they shall think fit for all or any of the following Purposes; (that is to say,)

For regulating the Use of the said Markets, and the Buildings, Stalls, Pens, and Standings therein, and for preventing Nuisances or Obstructions therein or in the immediate Approaches thereto:

For fixing the Days and the Hours during each Day on which the Markets or Fairs shall be held:

For Inspection of the Slaughter-houses, and for keeping the same in a cleanly and proper State, and for removing Filth and Refuse at least once in every Twenty-four Hours, and for requiring that they be provided with a sufficient Supply of Water, and preventing the Exercise of Cruelty therein:

For regulating the Carriers resorting to the said Markets, and fixing the Rates for carrying Articles carried therefrom:

For regulating the Use of the Weighing Machine provided by the said Henry Charles Duke of Norfolk, and other the Owner or Owners for the Time being of the Markets within the Limits of this Act, and for preventing the Use of false or defective Weights, Scales, or Measures:

For preventing the Sale or Exposure for Sale of unwholesome Provisions:

For regulating the Conduct of the Officers and Servants of the said Duke, or the Owner or Owners for the Time being of the said Markets:

And it shall be lawful for the said Henry Charles Duke of Norfolk, and such Owner or Owners as aforesaid, from Time to Time as he or they shall think fit, to repeal, alter, or amend any such Bye Laws, provided any such Bye Laws be not repugnant to the Laws of England, and be reduced to Writing, and have affixed thereto the Signature of the said Duke, or such Owner or Owners as aforesaid, and, if affecting other Persons than the Officers and Servants of the said Duke, or such Owner or Owners as aforesaid, be printed and published as herein provided.

Bye Laws may be enforced by Imposition of Penalties.

XXXII. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the said Henry Charles Duke of Norfolk, and other the Owner or Owners for the Time being of the Markets within the Limits of this Act, by the Bye Laws so to be made by him, to impose such reasonable Penalties for enforcing the better Observance thereof as he or they shall think fit, not exceeding Five Pounds for any One Offence: Provided always, that such Bye Laws be so framed as to allow the Justices before whom any Penalty imposed thereby may be sought to be recovered to order the whole or Part only of such Penalty to be paid.

Bye Laws to be confirmed.

XXXIII. And be it enacted, That no Bye Law which shall be made by the said Henry Charles Duke of Norfolk, or other the Owner or Owners for the Time being of the Markets within the Limits of this Act, under the Authority of this Act, (except such as may relate solely to the Officers or Servants of the said Duke, or such Owner or Owners as aforesaid,) shall be valid or binding unless the same shall be allowed by some Judge of One of the Superior Courts, or by the Justices assembled at some General or Quarter Sessions of the Peace of the West Riding of the County of York; and it shall be incumbent on such Justices, on the Request of the said Duke, or such Owner or Owners as aforesaid, to examine into the Bye Laws which may be tendered to them for that Purpose, and to allow of or disallow, or to modify, alter, and vary, the same as to them may seem meet: Provided always, that no such Bye Laws shall be confirmed unless Notice of the Intention to apply for a Confirmation of the same shall have been given in One or more Newspapers of the said West Riding of the said County of York One Month at least before the Hearing of such Application; and any Party aggrieved by any such Bye Law, on giving Notice of the Nature of his Objection to the said Duke, or such Owner or Owners as aforesaid, Ten Days before the Hearing of such Application, may, by himself, his Attorney or Agent, be heard thereon, but not so as to allow more than One Party to be heard upon the same Matter of Objection.

A Copy of proposed Bye Laws to

XXXIV. Provided always, and be it enacted, That for One Month at least prior to any such Application for Confirmation of such

such Bye Laws a Copy of such proposed Bye Laws shall be kept at the Office of the Town Clerk of the Borough of Sheffield, and of the Clerk of the Peace for the West Riding of the County of York; and it shall be lawful for all Persons at all reasonable Times to inspect such Copy without Fee or Reward, and to be furnished by the said Town Clerk or Clerk of the Peace with a Copy thereof, or of any Part thereof, on Payment of Sixpence for every One hundred Words so to be copied.

Evidence to be adduced of Notice for Confirmation of Bye Laws being given.

XXXV. And be it enacted, That at the Time of or prior to the Allowance or Confirmation of such Bye Laws Evidence shall be adduced before such Judge or Chairman of the Justices, as the Case may be, that Notice of such Intention as aforesaid was duly given, and that a Copy of such proposed Bye Laws had been kept for One Month at least at the Office of the Clerk of the Peace as before directed, and the said Judge or Chairman of the Justices, as the Case may be, shall thereupon certify the same accordingly.

Publication of Bye Laws.

XXXVI. And be it enacted, That such Bye Laws, when confirmed, shall be painted on a Board, or printed upon Paper and pasted thereon, and such Board shall be hung up, affixed, and continued on some conspicuous Part of the Markets within the Limits of this Act, and such Board shall be from Time to Time renewed as often as the same or any Part thereof may be obliterated or destroyed.

Authenticated Bye Laws to be Evidence.

XXXVII. Provided always, and be it enacted, That in every Case of a Prosecution for an Offence against any Rule, Order, or Bye Law which may be made in pursuance of this Act, the Production of the last herein-before mentioned Certificate, having the Signature thereto of the Judge or the Chairman of the Justices who shall have approved of the same, shall be Evidence of the Existence of such Rule, Order, or Bye Law, without adducing Proof of such Signature; and it shall be sufficient to prove that a Copy of such Rules, Orders, and Bye Laws hath been painted on a Board, or printed upon Paper and pasted thereon, and that such Board hath been hung up or affixed in manner aforesaid, and in case of its being afterwards displaced or damaged hath been replaced by another such Board as soon as conveniently might be, according to the Provisions of this Act, unless satisfactory Evidence shall be adduced to the contrary by the Defendant in any such Prosecution.

Penalty for selling by Auction, &c.

XXXVIII. And be it enacted, That if any Person or Persons shall sell or offer or expose for Sale, or cause to be sold or offered or exposed for Sale, by Auction or Outcry, any Cattle, Provisions, Goods, Wares, Merchandize, Chattels, Articles, or Things whatsoever in the public Streets of the said Town of Sheffield, any Person so offending shall for every such Offence forfeit and pay any Sum not exceeding Forty Shillings.

Penalty for selling except in Markets.

XXXIX. And be it enacted, That if any Person or Persons shall on any Market Day or on any other Day sell or expose to Sale at any Time within the Limits of this Act (except in the Markets and as herein-after mentioned) any Corn, Grain, Meal, Flour, Meat, Fish, Poultry, Poultry, Butter, Eggs, Cheese, Vegetables, Fruit, or any other marketable Commodities, Matters, or Things whatsoever which shall for the Time being be saleable by virtue of this Act in the said Markets, every Person so offending shall for every such Offence forfeit or pay any Sum not exceeding Forty Shillings.

Nothing to prevent Persons selling Goods, &c. in their Dwelling Houses, &c.

XL. And be it enacted, That nothing in the said Markets Clauses Act or this Act contained shall extend or be construed to extend to prevent or hinder any Person from selling or exposing to Sale any Goods, Wares, Merchandize, or any marketable Commodities, Matters, or Things whatsoever in his Dwelling House, or in any Shop within the Limits of this Act, nor to subject, charge, or make liable any Person whomsoever selling or exposing to Sale in the said Markets any Butter, Eggs, or Poultry in any Hand Basket or Baskets to any Exaction of Toll for or in respect of or under the Idea of Pickage or Stallage.

Power to search for unwholesome Provisions.

XLI. And be it enacted, That it shall and may be lawful to and for any Justice or Justices, and he and they is and are hereby authorized and required, upon Information exhibited to him or them upon Oath that any Flesh, Meat, Fish, or other Provisions of an unwholesome Nature, or in a State improper for human Food, is or are concealed or suspected to be concealed for Sale in the Markets within the Limits of this Act, to issue his or their Warrant or Warrants to search all such Markets, and any Flesh, Meat, Fish, or other Provisions of an unwholesome Nature, or in a State improper for human Food, then and there found to convey before such Justice or Justices, who, upon Proof of the unwholesome Nature thereof, or of the same being improper for human Food, either by One credible Witness or upon his or their own Inspection, may order the same to be destroyed; and it shall be lawful for the said Justice or Justices to summon the Person or Persons in whose Custody the said unwholesome Flesh, Meat, Fish, or other Provisions shall have been found to appear before him or them, and upon the Appearance of such Person or Persons, or in case he or they shall not appear, then upon due Proof of the Service of the Summons, either personally or by leaving the same at his, her, or their last or usual Place or Places of Abode, to adjudge the said Person or Persons to have forfeited for every such Offence any Sum not exceeding Five Pounds.

Penalty for slaughtering Cattle, &c.

XLII. And be it enacted, That if any Person or Persons shall kill, slaughter, singe, scald, or dress, or cause to be killed, slaughtered, singed, or dressed, any Beasts, Swine, Calf, Sheep, or other Cattle in any Stall, Standing, or other Place in the Markets within the Limits of this Act, except in the Slaughter-houses, every Person so offending shall forfeit and pay any Sum not exceeding Five Pounds.

Publication of Penalties.

XLIII. And for the Purpose of providing for the due Publication of all Penalties and Forfeitures exigible under this Act, or any Bye Law to be made in pursuance of this Act, be it enacted, That from Time to Time the said Henry Charles Duke of Norfolk, or other the Owner or Owners for the Time being of the Markets within the Limits Limits of this Act, shall publish the short Particulars of the several Offences for which any such Penalty is imposed by this Act, and of the Amount of every such Penalty, and shall cause such Particulars to be painted on a Board, or printed upon Paper and pasted thereon, and shall cause such Board to be hung up or affixed on some conspicuous Part of the said Markets, and such Particulars shall be renewed as often as the same or any Part thereof is obliterated or destroyed, and no such Penalty shall be recoverable unless it shall have been published in the Manner herein-before required.

Not to prejudice the Rights of the Lord of the Manor.

XLIV. Provided always, and be it enacted, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend or be construed to extend in any way to lessen, impeach, annul, prejudice, or destroy any Rights, Privileges, Jurisdictions, Immunities, Rents, Tolls, Pickage, Stallage, Free Customs, Duties, Profits, or Advantages belonging due or in anywise appertaining to the Lord of the Manor of Sheffield aforesaid, or of any other Manor within the Limits of this Act, but all and every such Rights, Privileges, Jurisdictions, Immunities, Rents, Tolls, Pickage, Stallage, Free Customs, Duties, Profits, and Advantages may be exercised, demanded, exacted, received, and enjoyed in as full and ample a Manner to all Intents and Purposes as if this Act had not been passed.

Interpretation of Act.

XLV. And be it enacted, That in this Act the following Words and Expressions shall have the several Meanings hereby assigned to them, unless there be something in the Subject or Context repugnant to such Construction; that is to say,

The Expression "the Markets within the Limits of this Act" shall mean the Markets and Fairs, and the Works connected therewith, by this Act authorized to be constructed or regulated:

The Word "Clerk" shall mean the Clerk appointed for the Purposes of this Act:

The Word "Treasurer" shall mean the Treasurer appointed for the Purposes of this Act:

The Word "Office" shall mean the Office at Sheffield of the Steward, Agent, or Receiver of the said Henry Charles Duke of Norfolk, or the Owner or Owners for the Time being of the Markets within the Limits of this Act.
