1953 No. 579

The Ships' Stores (Charges) (Amendment No. 2) Order, 1953

Made - - - -	31*st March*, 1953
Laid before the House of Commons	4*th April*, 1953
Coming into Operation	5*th April*, 1953

The Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, in exercise of the powers conferred on Them by subsection (1) of section 2 of the Emergency Powers (Defence) Act, 1939(a), and section 5 of the Supplies and Services (Transitional Powers) Act, 1945(b), as continued in force by the Supplies and Services (Continuance) Order, 1952(c), and of all other powers enabling Them in that behalf, hereby make the following Order:—

1. The Ships' Stores (Charges) Order, 1952, as amended(d), shall be further amended as follows:—

(a) by deleting in Article 1 thereof the following words:—

> "" flour" has the meaning assigned to it in the Flour Order, 1951, as varied or re-enacted (with or without modifications) by any subsequent order made by the Minister, except that it does not include semolina"; and

(b) by deleting in the Schedule thereto the following words and figures:—

"7 Flour 7s. per 70 lbs.".

2. This Order shall come into operation on the fifth day of April, nineteen hundred and fifty-three, and may be cited as the Ships' Stores (Charges) (Amendment No. 2) Order, 1953.

Dated this thirty-first day of March, nineteen hundred and fifty-three.

Edward Heath,
Hendrie D. Oakshott,
Two of the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Order, but is intended to indicate its general purport.)

The Ships' Stores (Charges) Order, 1952 (as amended) imposed charges on persons supplying flour and certain other foods to foreign-going ships for consumption outside United Kingdom ports, thereby enabling subsidies to be recovered. On and after 5th April, 1953, there will be no subsidy on flour. This amending Order accordingly removes the charge imposed by that Order in respect of flour.
