The Shops (Extension of Period of Emergency) Order, 1951

1951 No. 1391

Made - - - - 1*st August*, 1951

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 1st day of August, 1951

Present,

The King's Most Excellent Majesty in Council

Whereas it is provided by section seven of the Shops Act, 1950(a), that certain provisions of that Act relating to general closing hours which have effect only as respects the winter months shall expire on the tenth day of December, nineteen hundred and fifty, unless continued in force by an Order in Council made under that section in pursuance of an Address of each House of Parliament:

And Whereas the said provisions were continued in force by the Shops (Extension of Period of Emergency) Order, 1950(b) until the tenth day of December, nineteen hundred and fifty-one:

And Whereas an Address has been presented to His Majesty by each House of Parliament praying that the said provisions should be continued in force for a further period of one year until the tenth day of December, nineteen hundred and fifty-two:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, in pursuance of the said section seven and of all other powers enabling Him in that behalf, is pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:—

1. The provisions of the Shops Act, 1950, relating to general closing hours which have effect only as respects the winter months, being provisions which would otherwise expire on the tenth day of December, nineteen hundred and fifty-one, shall continue in force for a further period of one year until the tenth day of December, nineteen hundred and fifty-two.

2. This Order may be cited as the Shops (Extension of Period of Emergency) Order, 1951.
