EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Order, but is intended to indicate its general purport.)

This Order amends the Singapore Colony Order in Council, 1955, by increasing the number of appointed Ministers from six to seven, by enabling the Governor to appoint an appointed Minister instead of an ex officio Minister to preside over the Council of Ministers in his absence, and by revoking section 55 which provides that the official language of the Assembly shall be English. In addition, the opportunity is taken to amend three minor typographical errors in the Singapore Colony Order in Council, 1955.

SOLICITOR, ENGLAND

1956 No. 1898

The Solicitors' Remuneration (Disallowance) Order, 1956

Made - - - - 29th November, 1956

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 29th day of November, 1956

Present,

The Queen's Most Excellent Majesty in Council

Whereas in exercise of the powers contained in section 56 of the Solicitors Act, 1932(a), the committee mentioned in that section made the Solicitors' Remuneration Order, 1956, which was laid before Parliament on the 26th day of October, 1956:

And whereas pursuant to a resolution of the Commons House of Parliament passed on the 26th day of November, 1956, an Address was presented to Her Majesty praying that the said Order be disallowed:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, in pursuance of subsection (4) of the said section 56 and of all other powers enabling Her in that behalf, is pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:—

1. The Solicitors' Remuneration Order, 1956, is hereby disallowed.

2. This Order may be cited as the Solicitors' Remuneration (Disallowance) Order, 1956.
