ARABIA

The South Arabia (Revocation) Order 1967

Made - - - -	28th November 1967
Laid before Parliament	28th November 1967
Coming into Operation	Immediately before 30th November 1967

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 28th day of November 1967

Present,

The Queen's Most Excellent Majesty in Council

Her Majesty, by virtue and in exercise of the powers in that behalf by the British Settlements Acts 1887 and 1945(a), the Foreign Jurisdiction Act 1890(b) or otherwise in Her Majesty vested, is pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows :—

Citation, commencement and interpretation.

1.—(1) This Order may be cited as the South Arabia (Revocation) Order 1967.

(2) This Order shall come into operation immediately before 30th November 1967 (in this Order referred to as " the appointed day ").

(3) The Interpretation Act 1889(c) shall apply, with the necessary adaptations, for the purpose of interpreting this Order and otherwise in relation thereto as it applies for the purpose of interpreting and in relation to Acts of the Parliament of the United Kingdom.

Revocation of certain Orders.

2. The Orders in Council specified in the Schedule to this Order are revoked, without prejudice to—

(a) the continued operation on and after the appointed day of any provision of law (whether contained in any such Orders or otherwise) having effect as part of the law of Aden, Perim, the Kuria Muria Islands, the Protectorate of South Arabia or Kamaran in so far as that provision of law is not inconsistent with the termination of Her Majesty's sovereignty over Aden, Perim and the Kuria Muria Islands and of the responsibility of Her Majesty's Government in the United Kingdom for the government thereof or with the termination of Her Majesty's protection over the Protectorate of South Arabia and of Her power and jurisdiction in respect thereof and in respect of Kamaran or with anything done or provided for on or after the appointed day in or in relation to any of those territories by any authority competent so to do or provide in relation to that territory ;

(b) the validity of anything done in or in relation to any of those territories before the appointed day in pursuance of any lawful authority, including (without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing) the establishment of any office whether in the public service or otherwise or any court or other authority or the making of any appointment;

(c) the continuance on and after the appointed day of any such office, court or authority or any such appointment in so far as such continuance is not inconsistent as aforesaid:

Provided that references to any office, court or authority in any provision of law having effect as part of the law of any of those territories before the appointed day may, to the extent that that provision of law continues in operation as part of the law of that territory on and after that day, be construed on and after that day as including references to any corresponding or similar office, court or authority established on or after that day in respect of that territory.
