(This Note is not part of the Order, but is intended to indicate its general purport.)

Regulations 1 and 3 of the Order provide that where the Special Constables (Pensions) Order, 1950, applies the Police Pensions Regulations, 1949, to special constables and the Special Constables (Pensions) Order, 1949, applies the Police Pensions Regulations, 1948, those Regulations shall apply as amended. The principal amendments so applied relate to increases, in certain cases, to widows' pensions and children's allowances. Regulation 2 provides for an increase in the notional average pensionable pay of a special constable who ceases or ceased to hold that office after the second day of August, 1951, where an award calculated on that pay becomes payable after the coming into operation of this Order.
