1957 No. 743 (S. 38)

The Special Constables (Pensions) (Scotland) Regulations, 1957

Made - - - - 26th April, 1957
Laid before Parliament 3rd May, 1957
Coming into operation in accordance with Regulation 5

In exercise of the powers conferred on me by section eleven of the Police (Scotland) Act, 1956(a), and by section seven of the Pensions (Increase) Act, 1956(b), and of all other powers enabling me in that behalf, I hereby make the following regulations:—

Amendments of the Special Constables (Pensions) (Scotland) Order, 1955, relating to widows' pensions and children's allowances

1.—(1) In the application of the Police Pensions (Scotland) Regulations, 1955(c), to the pension of a widow or the allowance of a child of a special constable under the Special Constables (Pensions) (Scotland) Order, 1955(d), those Regulations shall apply as amended by—

(a) the Police Pensions (Scotland) Regulations, 1956(e) (which amendment relates to the limitation on any award to a widow living apart from her husband at the time of his death);

(b) the Police Pensions (Scotland) (No. 2) Regulations, 1956(f) (which amendments relate to increases in widows' pensions and children's allowances); and

(c) the Police Pensions (Scotland) (No. 3) Regulations, 1956(g) (which amendments extend the periods during which a discretionary increase in a widow's pension is payable, adjust the extent of the abatement of a widow's pension by a national insurance widowed mother's allowance, extend the period for which a child's allowance is payable where he is receiving full-time education or is an apprentice, provide for increases in certain children's allowances and relax certain conditions relating to the amounts of widows' pensions and children's allowances).

(2) In accordance with paragraph (1) of this Regulation—

(a) in Article 1 of the said Order of 1955 (in which the expression "principal Regulations" is defined), after the words "the Police Pensions (Scotland) Regulations, 1955" there shall be inserted the words "as amended by the Police Pensions (Scotland) Regulations, 1956, the Police Pensions (Scotland) (No. 2) Regulations, 1956, and the Police Pensions (Scotland) (No. 3) Regulations, 1956";

(b) in Article 2 of the said Order of 1955 (which relates to a widow's special pension) for the words "and paragraph (1) of Regulation 66" there shall be substituted the words "paragraph (1) of Regulation 66 and Regulation 66A"; and

(c) in Article 3 of the said Order of 1955 (which relates to a child's special allowance) for the words "and paragraph (1) of Regulation 66" there shall be substituted the words "paragraph (1) of Regulation 66 and Regulation 66A".

Amendments of the Special Constables (Pensions) (Scotland) Order, 1955, relating to notional average pensionable pay

2.—(1) For paragraphs 1 and 2 of the Schedule to the said Order of 1955 (which relates to the calculation of awards) there shall be substituted the following paragraph:—

"1. For the purpose of calculating an award under this Order to a special constable who ceases to serve as such on or after the sixth day of May, nineteen hundred and fifty-seven, or to a widow or child of any special constable who dies on or after that day, the special constable's average pensionable pay or average pensionable pay for a period of a week shall be deemed to be the sum set out, opposite the period during which he ceased to hold office, in the second column of the appropriate Table to this Schedule, with an addition of the sum so set out in the third column of the said Table for each completed year of service as a special constable from the date of his appointment as such, subject to the maximum, if any, so set out in the fourth column of the said Table:

Provided that in the case of a special constable who ceased to serve as such on or after the twentieth day of December, nineteen hundred and forty-five, but before the eighth day of September, nineteen hundred and fifty-five, no account shall be taken of the first two completed years of service as a special constable.

In this paragraph the expression "appropriate Table" means, in the case of a special constable who is a man, the first Table to this Schedule and, in the case of a special constable who is a woman, the second Table to this Schedule."

(2) In paragraph 3 of the said Schedule for the words "paragraphs 1 and 2" there shall be substituted the words "paragraph 1".

(3) For the Tables to the said Schedule there shall be substituted the following Tables:—

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Regulations, but is intended to indicate their general purport.)

These Regulations, which are made under section 11 of the Police (Scotland) Act, 1956, and section 7 of the Pensions (Increase) Act, 1956, amend the Special Constables (Pensions) (Scotland) Order, 1955, the Special Constables (Pensions) (Scotland) Order, 1950, and the Special Constables (Pensions) (Scotland) Order, 1949, which gave to special constables and their dependants certain pension benefits for which members of police forces and their dependants were eligible. Regulations 1 and 2 amend the Order of 1955, which relates to awards made on and after 9th May, 1955; Regulation 3 amends the Order of 1950, which relates to awards made between 16th May, 1950, and 9th May, 1955, and Regulation 4 amends the Order of 1949, which relates (as regards dependants) to awards made before 16th May, 1950.

The main changes made by the amendments are described below.

The Police Pensions (Scotland) Regulations, 1956, provided (in Regulation 8) for the simplification of the conditions on which a pension is payable to a widow of a member of a police force who is living apart from her husband at the time of his death. Regulation 1 (1) (a) of the present Regulations makes similar provision in relation to the widow of a special constable with effect (as provided in Regulation 5 (2)) from 6th May, 1957.

The Police Pensions (Scotland) (No. 2) Regulations, 1956, provided that the above-mentioned benefits payable to the dependants of members of police forces should be increased as from 1st April, 1956 (the appointed day for the purposes of the Pensions (Increase) Act, 1956) by amounts calculated by reference to that Act. Regulations 1 (1) (b), 3 (1) (a) and 4 (1) (a) of the present Regulations make similar provision in relation to the dependants of special constables with effect (as provided in Regulation 5 (1)) from the same date.

The Police Pensions (Scotland) (No. 3) Regulations, 1956, made certain provisions in relation to the dependants of members of police forces; they extended the periods during which a discretionary increase in a widow's pension is payable, adjusted the extent of the abatement of a widow's pension by a national insurance widow's allowance, extended the period for which a child's allowance is payable where he is receiving full-time education or is an apprentice, provided for increases in certain children's allowances and relaxed certain conditions relating to the amounts of widows' pensions and children's allowances. Regulations 1 (1) (c), 3 (1) (b) and 4 (1) (b) of the present Regulations make similar provision in relation to the dependants of special constables with effect (as provided in Regulation 5 (2)) from 6th May, 1957.

Regulations 1 (2), 3 (2) and 4 (2) of the present Regulations are consequential on the above provisions.

Regulation 2 of the present Regulations provides for increases in the notional average pensionable pay of a special constable ceasing to hold that office (i) on or after 8th September, 1955, and (ii) on or after 1st February, 1957, where an award calculated on that pay first becomes payable on or after 6th May, 1957.
