CHAPTER xiii

An Act to authorise the sale of the churchyard appurtenant to the former church of Saint Peter Upper Thames Street otherwise Paul's Wharf in the city of London to authorise the erection of buildings thereon and for other purposes. [2nd June 1960.]

WHEREAS the ancient church of Saint Peter Upper Thames Street otherwise Paul's Wharf in the city of London (hereinafter called " the church ") was destroyed in the Great Fire of London in the year sixteen hundred and sixty-six and was not rebuilt:

And whereas by virtue of a reorganisation scheme for the city of London made under the Reorganisation Areas Measure 1944 and coming into force on the second day of February nineteen hundred and fifty-four the former parish of Saint Peter Upper Thames Street otherwise Paul's Wharf now forms part of the parish of Saint Andrew-by-the-Wardrobe with Saint Ann Blackfriars and the freehold of the churchyard appurtenant to the church is now vested in the incumbent of the benefice of Saint Andrew-by-the-Wardrobe with Saint Ann Blackfriars and the present incumbent thereof is the Reverend Victor Chalmers Morton:

And whereas burials in the said churchyard were discontinued by an Order in Council of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria dated the eighth day of August eighteen hundred and fifty-three:

And whereas it is expedient that the said churchyard should be sold and that the purchaser thereof should be enabled to develop the same:

And whereas it is expedient that such provisions as are contained in this Act with respect to the sale and development of the said churchyard and the removal therefrom of any human remains interred therein should be enacted:

And whereas it is expedient that the other provisions contained in this Act should be enacted:

And whereas the objects of this Act cannot be effected without the authority of Parliament:

May it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted and be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal and Commons in this present Parliament assembled and by the authority of the same as follows:—

Power to sell churchyard and application of proceeds.

3.—(1) The incumbent may sell the churchyard or any part thereof for such price or consideration in such manner and upon and subject to such terms as the incumbent may think fit.

(2) The incumbent after deducting the amount of any costs charges and expenses incurred by the incumbent under section 9 (Costs of Act) of this Act or in connection with any sale shall pay the net proceeds of any sale effected under the powers conferred by this section to the fund.

(3) All moneys received by the fund under this section shall be applied by the fund in defraying the cost of restoring such church or churches in the city of London as may be agreed upon between the parochial church council and the fund subject to any necessary licence or faculty of the consistory court of the diocese of London.

Discharge of trusts and restrictions affecting churchyard and saving for private rights.

4. As from the passing of this Act the churchyard shall be freed and discharged from all trusts uses obligations disabilities and restrictions whatsoever which immediately before the passing thereof attached thereto and from all rights and interests of any person who is an executor administrator or relative of any deceased person whose remains are interred in the churchyard and from all other trusts uses obligations disabilities and restrictions whatsoever which attached thereto immediately before the passing of this Act by reason of the churchyard or any part thereof being a disused burial ground or forming the churchyard or enclosure of a church or otherwise:

Provided that nothing in this Act shall operate to affect prejudicially any private right or easement (not being a right in respect of a grave) over the churchyard or any part thereof which attached thereto immediately before the passing of this Act.

Power to use churchyard for building or other purposes.

5. Notwithstanding anything contained in any enactment but subject to the provisions of this Act it shall be lawful at any time after the passing of this Act to use deal with or dispose of the churchyard or any part thereof for building or for any other purpose in like manner as if no part thereof had ever been used or set apart for the purpose of burial of human remains or had ever been or formed the churchyard or enclosure of a church.

Removal of human remains from churchyard.

6.—(1) Before the owner erects or causes to be erected any building on the churchyard or uses the churchyard or causes the same to be used for any purpose other than as a burial ground the owner shall remove or cause to be removed therefrom the remains of all deceased persons interred therein.

(2) Before proceeding to remove any such remains the owner shall give notice of his intention so to do by publishing a notice once in each of two successive weeks in a newspaper circulating in the city of London with an interval between publications of not less than six days and shall display a like notice in a conspicuous place in the churchyard and such notice shall have embodied in it the substance of subsections (3) (4) (5) (6) (7) and (8) of this section.

(3) At any time within two months after the first publication of such notice any person who is an executor administrator or relative of any deceased person whose remains are interred in the churchyard or any part thereof may give notice in writing to the owner of his intention to undertake the removal of such remains and thereupon he shall be at liberty without any faculty for the purpose but subject as hereinafter mentioned to any regulations made by the bishop to cause such remains to be removed to and reinterred in any consecrated burial ground or cemetery in which burials may legally take place but in the case of a churchyard only with the consent of the incumbent of the benefice concerned.

(4) If any person giving such notice as aforesaid fails to satisfy the owner that he is such executor administrator or relative as he claims to be the question shall be determined on the application of either party in a summary manner by the registrar of the consistory court of the diocese of London who shall have power to make an order specifying who shall remove the remains and as to the payment of the costs of the application.

(5) The expenses of a removal and reinterment (not exceeding in respect of remains removed from any one grave the sum of twenty-five pounds) shall be defrayed by the owner such sum to be apportioned if necessary equally according to the number of remains in the grave.

(6) If within the aforesaid period of two months no such notice as aforesaid shall have been given to the owner in respect of the remains in any grave or if after such a notice has been given the person giving it fails to comply with either a provision of this section or a regulation of the bishop the owner may without any faculty for that purpose remove the remains of the deceased person and cause them to be interred in such other consecrated burial ground or cemetery in which burials may legally take place as subject to the consent of the bishop the owner thinks suitable for the purpose but in the case of interment in a churchyard the previous consent of the incumbent of the benefice concerned shall also be required.

(7) All monuments and tombstones relating to the remains of any deceased person removed under this section shall at the expense of the owner be removed and re-erected at the place of reinterment of such remains or at such place as the bishop may direct on the application (if any) of such executor administrator or relative as aforesaid or failing such application on the application of the owner and the owner shall cause a record to be made of each monument and tombstone taken from the churchyard under this section containing—

(a) a copy of the inscription on it; and

(b) if it is intended to preserve the monument or tombstone a statement showing where it has been taken to;

and shall deposit a copy of the record with the Registrar-General.

(8) The removal of the remains of any deceased person under this section shall be carried out under the supervision and to the satisfaction of the medical officer of health of the city of London.

Deposit of objects of interest.

7. All objects of geological or antiquarian interest discovered on or under the churchyard during the execution of any works therein by the owner shall subject to the rights of the Crown and except so far as they may be the property of any other person be carefully preserved and removed and shall be deposited in the Guildhall Museum as the property of the corporation and the corporation acting by the council shall during the execution of those works have power to enter and inspect the works for the purposes of this section.
