1962 No. 2086 (S. 99)

EDUCATION, SCOTLAND

The Students' Allowances (Scotland) Regulations 1962

Made - - - -	19th September 1962
Laid before Parliament	27th September 1962
Coming into Operation	1st October 1962

In the exercise of the powers conferred upon me by sections 75 and 76 of the Education (Scotland) Act 1962(a) and of all other powers enabling me in that behalf, I hereby make the following Regulations:—

Citation and commencement

1.—(1) These Regulations may be cited as the Students' Allowances (Scotland) Regulations 1962.

(2) These Regulations shall come into operation on 1st October 1962.

Interpretation

2.—(1) The Interpretation Act 1889(b) applies to the interpretation of these Regulations as it applies to the interpretation of an Act of Parliament.

(2) In these Regulations, unless the context otherwise requires, "allowance" means a scholarship, bursary or other allowance paid or to be paid under section 75(4)(g) of the Education (Scotland) Act 1962.

Allowances

3.—(1) The amount of an allowance shall be determined by the Secretary of State and may include sums in respect of—

(a) tuition and other fees payable in respect of the holder of the allowance;

(b) travelling expenses necessarily incurred or to be incurred by the holder in attending the course of study in respect of which the allowance is awarded;

(c) the maintenance of the holder and of any persons dependent on him during periods of whole-time study and during vacations;

(d) other expenses incurred or to be incurred by the holder in taking advantage of educational facilities.

(2) In determining the amount of an allowance, the Secretary of State shall take account of the sums, if any, which, in accordance with principles determined by him from time to time, the holder and his parents can reasonably be expected to contribute towards the holder's expenses.

(3) The amount of an allowance may be revised if, having regard to any change in the circumstances of the holder or his parents, the Secretary of State thinks fit.

Conditions of tenure

4. Every allowance shall be held subject to the following conditions—

(a) the holder shall attend regularly the course of study in respect of which the allowance is awarded;

(a) 10 & 11 Eliz. 2. c. 47. (b) 52 & 53 Vict. c. 63.

(b) the Secretary of State shall be satisfied as to the conduct and progress of the holder; and

(c) the holder or any person acting on his behalf shall provide the Secretary of State with such information and such documents as he may from time to time require to enable him to exercise his functions under these Regulations.

If the holder or any person acting on his behalf does not comply with these conditions or if the Secretary of State is not satisfied as to the conduct or progress of the holder or if the holder receives from any other source any sum which in the opinion of the Secretary of State makes it unnecessary for him to be assisted by means of an allowance, the Secretary of State may suspend payment of the allowance or terminate the allowance.

Method of Payment

5.—(1) The allowance may be paid to the holder or to another person for his behoof, or in part to the holder and in part to the said other person, and any sum in respect of fees payable to an educational institution which is included in the amount of the allowance may be paid to the institution.

(2) The allowance may be paid in a lump sum or by instalments as the Secretary of State thinks fit: but no payment shall be made before the holder has been accepted for admission to the course of study in respect of which the allowance is awarded.

Michael Noble,
One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State.

St. Andrew's House,
Edinburgh, 1.
19th September 1962.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Regulations, but is intended to indicate their general purport.)

Under section 75 of the Education (Scotland) Act 1962 the Secretary of State may, in accordance with Regulations made by him, make payment of sums by way of scholarships, bursaries and other allowances to persons attending courses of education. Under section 76, the Secretary of State may by Regulations prescribe conditions to which any payment will be subject. In accordance with these provisions of the Act, these Regulations prescribe arrangements and conditions for the award by the Secretary of State of allowances to persons attending universities, central institutions, colleges of education and other educational institutions.
