Where the Interest of any Successor in any Personal Property shall, before he shall have become entitled thereto in possession, have passed by reason of Death to any other Successor or Successors, then One Duty only shall be paid in respect of such Interest, and shall be due from the Successor who shall first become entitled thereto in possession; but such Duty shall be at the highest Rate which, if every such Successor had been subject to Duty, would have been payable by any One of them.

Duties payable in respect of transferred Interest.

XV. Where, at the Time appointed for the Commencement of this Act, any reversionary Property expectant on Death shall be vested, by Alienation or other derivative Title, in any Person other than the Person who shall have been originally entitled thereto under any such Disposition or Devolution as is mentioned in the Second Section of this Act, then the Person in whom such Property shall be so vested shall be chargeable with Duty in respect thereof as a Succession at the same Time and at the same Rate as the Person so originally entitled would have been chargeable with if no such Alienation had been made or derivative Title created; and where, after the Time appointed for the Commencement of this Act, any Succession shall, before the Successor shall have become entitled thereto or to the Income thereof in possession, have become vested by Alienation or by any Title not conferring a new Succession in any other Person, then the Duty payable in respect thereof shall be paid at the same Rate and Time as the same would have been payable if no such Alienation had been made or derivative Title created; and where the Title to any Succession shall be accelerated by the Surrender or Extinction of any prior Interests, then the Duty thereon shall be payable at the same Time and in the same Manner as such Duty would have been payable if no such Acceleration had taken place.

Succession subject to Trusts for charitable or public Purposes chargeable with Duty.

not due at his Decease shall cease to be payable, except in the Case of a Successor who shall have been competent to dispose by Will of a continuing Interest in such Property, in which Case the Instalments unpaid at his Death shall be a continuing Charge on such Interest, in exoneration of his other Property, and shall be payable by the Owner for the Time being of such Interest.

No Allowance to be made in respect of contingent Incumbrances, unless they take effect.
