CHAPTER 55.

An Act for the better Protection of the Sand-Grouse in the United Kingdom. [24th December 1888.]

WHEREAS it is expedient to provide for the protection of the sand-grouse, in order that it may, if possible, become acclimatised in the United Kingdom:

Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

Penalty for killing sand-grouse.

1. Any person who shall, after the first day of February one thousand eight hundred and eighty-nine, and before the first day of January one thousand eight hundred and ninety-two, knowingly or with intent kill, wound, or take any sand-grouse, or shall expose or offer for sale any sand-grouse killed or taken in the United Kingdom, shall, on conviction of any such offence before any justice or justices of the peace in England and Ireland, or before the sheriff or any justice or justices of the peace in Scotland, forfeit and pay for every such bird so killed, wounded, or taken, or exposed or offered for sale, such sum of money not exceeding one pound as to the said justice or justices shall seem meet, together with the costs of conviction.

Short title.

2. This Act may be cited as the Sand-Grouse Protection Act, 1888.

CHAPTER 56.

An Act to make further provision for the Nomination of Bishops Suffragans. [24th December 1888.]

WHEREAS by the Act of the twenty-sixth year of the reign of King Henry the Eighth, chapter fourteen, intituled "An Act for nomination and consecration of suffragans within this realm," it was enacted that the towns therein named should be taken and accepted for sees of bishops suffragans:

And whereas it is desirable to add to the number of towns for the purposes of that Act:

Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

Short title.

1. This Act may be cited as the Suffragans Nomination Act, 1888.

Other towns to be sees for suffragans besides those named in 26 Hen. 8. c. 14.

2. From and after the passing of this Act, for the purposes of the herein-before recited Act, such other towns as Her Majesty the Queen may from time to time by Order in Council direct shall be taken and accepted for sees of bishops suffragans as if they had been included in that Act, and that Act shall be construed and have effect accordingly.

Power to change see of present suffragans.

3. It shall be lawful for Her Majesty by writing under Her Royal Sign Manual from time to time to substitute for the see of any bishop suffragan nominated before the passing of this Act any town included in any such Order in Council as in the last preceding section mentioned, and that town shall thenceforth be taken and accepted for the see of that bishop suffragan as if he had been originally nominated thereto.

CHAPTER 57.

An Act for further promoting the Revision of the Statute Law by repealing superfluous expressions of enactment, and Enactments which have ceased to be in force or have become unnecessary. [24th December 1888.]

WHEREAS in numerous statutes the expression "be it further enacted," or similar expressions of enactment, are frequently repeated, and it is expedient, with a view to the revision of the Statute Law, and particularly to the improvement of the Revised Edition of the Statutes, to repeal these expressions which are superfluous:

And whereas it is expedient that certain enactments which may be regarded as spent, or have ceased to be in force otherwise than by express specific repeal by Parliament, or have, by lapse of time or otherwise, become unnecessary, should be expressly and specifically repealed:

Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

Enactments in schedule repealed.

1. The enactments described in the schedule to this Act are hereby repealed, subject to the exceptions and qualifications in the schedule mentioned:

Saving.

Provided that the repeal of any words or expressions of enactment described in the schedule to this Act shall not affect the binding force, operation, or construction of any statute, or of any part of a statute, whether as respects the past or future;

and where any enactment not comprised in the schedule to this Act has been repealed, confirmed, revived, or perpetuated by any enactment hereby repealed, such repeal, confirmation, revivor, or perpetuation shall not be affected by the repeal effected by this Act;

and the repeal by this Act of any enactment or schedule shall not affect any enactment in which such enactment or schedule has been applied, incorporated, or referred to;
