2. In relation to a sale of sulphuric acid of any quantity and description by a producer of sulphuric acid (hereinafter referred to as " the relevant sale ") the basic price shall be—

(a) (where sulphuric acid of that quantity and description was sold during the basic period to the buyer upon terms similar to those of the relevant sale) the price (including any charges) at which that sulphuric acid was invoiced or, where such a price was invoiced to the buyer more than once, last invoiced to the buyer ; or

(b) (where sulphuric acid of that quantity and description was not sold during the basic period to the buyer upon terms similar to those of the relevant sale) the price (including any charges) at which sulphuric acid of that quantity and description, sold during the basic period to any customer of a class similar to the class to which the buyer belongs upon terms similar to those of the relevant sale and delivered in the same area as that required by the terms of the relevant sale, was invoiced or, where such a price was invoiced to that customer more than once, last invoiced to that customer.

In this paragraph " basic period " means the period beginning with the 1st day of April, 1949, and ending with the 30th day of June, 1949.

3. Where the costs of delivery included in the basic price are higher or lower than the costs of delivery of the sulphuric acid in pursuance of the relevant sale there shall be deducted from or added to the basic price, as the case may be, an amount equal to the difference.

4. In relation to the sale of sulphuric acid of a description specified in the first column of the following table there shall be added to the basic price an amount computed at the rate set out in the second column of that table in relation to that description.

[For new table substit. by S.I. 1950 No. 1784, see p. 878 below.]

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Order, but is intended to indicate its general purport.)

This Order amends the Sulphuric Acid (Prices) Order, 1949, by providing increased maximum prices for sulphuric acid to which that Order applies.
