EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Rules.)

These Rules amend the Summary Jurisdiction Appeals (Counsel and Solicitor) Rules 1933 so that clerks of the peace will no longer be required to keep lists of members of the bar attending the sessions who are willing to appear as counsel for poor appellants and respondents in appeals to quarter sessions in criminal cases, and any member of the bar, irrespective of attendance at the sessions, will be eligible to be instructed on behalf of such appellants or respondents.
