ANNO DUODECIMO & DECIMO TERTIO

VICTORIÆ REGINÆ.

Short Title.

II. And be it enacted, That in citing this Act in other Acts of Parliament, and in legal Instruments, Parliamentary Notices, and other Documents, it shall be sufficient to use the Expression "The Sunderland Dock Amendment Act, 1849."

Acts of Directors appointed under recited Act declared valid, notwithstanding Informality in their Election, &c.

III. And whereas by the recited Act the Persons therein named were appointed the First Directors of the Company; and it was enacted, that they should continue in Office until the First Ordinary Meeting to be held after the passing of that Act, and at such Meeting the Shareholders present, personally or by Proxy, might either continue in Office the Directors appointed by that Act, or any Number of them, or might elect a new Number of Directors, or Directors to supply the Places of those not continued in Office, the Directors appointed by that Act being eligible as Directors of such new Body; and it was enacted, that at the First Ordinary Meeting to be held in the Year next after the Year in which such last-mentioned Directors should have been appointed or elected, the Shareholders present, either personally or by Proxy, should elect Persons to supply the Place of the Directors then retiring from Office agreeably to the Provisions in the Companies Clauses Consolidation Act contained; and the several Persons elected at any such Meeting, being neither removed nor disqualified, nor having resigned, should continue to be Directors until others were elected in their Stead: And whereas by the Companies Clauses Consolidation Act it was enacted, that the Directors appointed by the special Act and continued in Office, or the Directors elected to supply the Places of those retiring, should retire from Office at the Times and in the Proportions mentioned in the Companies Clauses Consolidation Act; viz., at the End of the First Year after the First Election of Directors the Number therein mentioned, at the End of the Second Year the Number therein mentioned, and at the End of the Third Year the Number therein mentioned: And whereas inasmuch as the Provisions of the last-mentioned Act, and of the Sunderland Dock Act, with respect to the Retirement of the Directors named in such Act, and the Appointment of others, are inconsistent with each other, be it enacted, That the Thirteen Persons herein-after named, viz. George Hudson, Christopher Bramwell, David Jonassohn, Thomas Brown, Richard Spoor, William Ord, Thomas Reed, Robert Davies, James Richardson, and Nicholas Wood, being Ten of the Persons named as Directors in the Sunderland Dock Act, and John Clay, who has been appointed a Director in the Place of Andrew White another of the Directors named in the same Act, John Scott, who has been appointed a Director in the Place of Thomas Wood another of the Directors named in the same Act, and Thomas Hunter, who has been appointed a Director in the Place of James Hartley the other Director named in the same Act, and which Thirteen Persons have from Time to Time been continued or re-elected and now act as the Directors of the Company, are hereby declared to have been duly elected, and the Appointments of them respectively as Directors are hereby confirmed, and that notwithstanding the Informality (if any) in the Continuation in Office, Election, or Re-election of them, any or either of them, and notwithstanding any Act, Matter, or Thing relating thereto, all Acts done by any Meeting of them as Directors, and all Acts done by any

Meeting

Meeting of the first-named Ten Directors, and of the said Andrew White, Thomas Wood, and James Hartley, or either or any of them, shall be and are hereby declared to be valid.

As to the future Elections of Directors.

IV. And be it enacted, That the Ordinary Meetings of the Company, which shall be held in the Month of August in each Year, shall be the Meetings at which, pursuant to the Companies Clauses Consolidation Act, Directors retiring from Office by Rotation shall so retire, and at which their Places shall be supplied; and that in the Construction of that Act, as applied to the Sunderland Dock Act, the Ordinary Meeting which shall be held in the Month of August One thousand eight hundred and forty-nine shall be deemed the End of the First Year, the Ordinary Meeting which shall be held in the Year One thousand eight hundred and fifty the End of the Second Year, and the Ordinary Meeting which shall be held in the Year One thousand eight hundred and fifty-one the End of the Third Year, respectively named in the Companies Clauses Consolidation Act with reference to the Rotation of Directors; and at the first of the above-mentioned Ordinary Meetings the Shareholders present, either personally or by Proxy, shall elect Persons to supply the Places of the Directors then retiring from Office agreeably to the Provisions of the Companies Clauses Consolidation Act; and the several Persons elected at such Meeting, being neither removed nor disqualified, nor having resigned, shall continue to be Directors until others are elected in their Stead in Manner provided by the Companies Clauses Consolidation Act, and thenceforth the Provisions of that Act with respect to the Rotation of Directors shall be observed.

Power to raise Money by Creation of new Shares instead of borrowing.

V. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Company to raise the additional Sum of One hundred thousand Pounds which by the recited Act they are authorized to borrow on Mortgage or Bond, or any Part thereof, by creating new Shares in the Company instead of borrowing the same, or, having borrowed the same, to continue at Interest only a Part of such additional Sum, and to raise Part thereof by creating new Shares; and the new Shares so to be created shall be of such nominal Amount, and the Proprietors thereof shall be entitled to such Privileges, and such Preferences or Priorities as to Dividend or otherwise, and such Guarantee, as the Company may determine, and shall in the first instance be offered to the Proprietors of original Shares in the Undertaking of the Company in fair Proportion to the Number of such original Shares as they shall respectively hold therein: Provided always, that no such Augmentation of Capital shall take place without the previous Authority of a General Meeting of the Company.

Capital raised by Creation of new Shares to be subject to same Provisions as original Capital.

VI. And be it enacted, That the Capital so to be raised by the Creation of new Shares shall be considered as Part of the general Capital of the Company, and shall be subject to the same Provisions in all respects, whether with reference to the Payment of Calls, or the Forfeiture of Shares, or Nonpayment of Calls, or otherwise, as if it had been Part of the original Capital, except as to the Amount of such Shares, and the Times of making Calls thereon, and the Amount of such Calls, which respectively it shall be lawful for the Directors of of the Company from Time to Time to fix as they shall think fit, and as to the Guarantee and Privileges as to Preference or Priority, if any, which are to be attached to such Shares, which Privileges it shall be lawful for the Company to fix as they shall think proper.

Voting by Proprietors of new Shares.

VII. And be it enacted, That the Proprietors of any new Shares created under the Powers of this Act shall be entitled to such Number of Votes in respect thereof as the nominal Amount represented by such Shares would have entitled them to if such new Shares had been original Shares in the Undertaking of the Company.

Extending Period for compulsory Purchase of Lands.

VIII. And be it enacted, That, notwithstanding anything contained in the recited Act, the Period after which the Powers thereby granted to the Company for the compulsory Purchase or taking of Lands shall not be exercised shall be and is hereby extended; and it shall be lawful for the Company to avail themselves of and act upon such Powers at any Time, or from Time to Time within the Period of Two Years from the passing of this Act, but the said Powers shall not be exercised after the Expiration of Two Years from the passing hereof.

Existing Contracts and Notices to take Lands not to be affected.

IX. Provided always, and be it enacted, That nothing herein contained shall in anywise prejudice or affect any Contracts entered into or Notice given by the said Company before the passing of this Act, for purchasing, taking, or using any Lands which under the said Act such Company is entitled to purchase, take, or use, but every such Contract and Notice respectively shall be construed, and shall take effect, and the same Proceedings shall be had thereunder, and all Parties thereto shall be entitled to the same Rights and Remedies in respect thereof, both at Law and in Equity, as if this Act had not been passed.

Parties aggrieved by Extension of Time being granted may have Compensation for additional Damage.

X. Provided always, and be it enacted, That the Justices, Arbitrator, Umpires, or Juries respectively, as the Case may be, who, under the Provisions of the said recited Act or this Act, shall award or assess the Compensation to be made by the Company to the Owners or Occupiers of or other Persons interested in any of the Lands which shall be taken or used for the Purposes of the Dock or Works by the said recited Act or this Act authorized, or which may be injuriously affected by the Construction thereof, shall, in estimating the Amount of such Compensation, have regard to and make Compensation for the additional Damages (if any) sustained by such Owners, Occupiers, or other Persons by reason of any such Extension of Time having been granted as aforesaid.

Extending Period for Completion of Works.

XI. And be it enacted, That, notwithstanding anything contained in the recited Act, the Period after which the Powers thereby granted to the Company for making and executing the Works thereby authorized, or otherwise relating thereto, are to cease, is hereby extended; and it shall be lawful for the Company to avail themselves of and act upon such Powers at any Time or from Time to Time within the Period of Five Years from the passing of this Act (except as hereinafter after next mentioned), but the said Powers shall not be exercised after the Expiration of Five Years from the passing hereof.

Extending Period for Execution of Ordnance Works.

XII. And be it enacted, That, notwithstanding anything contained in the said recited Act, the Period after which the Powers thereby granted to the said Company for providing a suitable Site for the Erection of a new Battery, Fort, Buildings and Conveniences connected therewith, and for carrying up a proper Foundation Wall for the Tower of the said new Buildings to the Level of the proposed Dock Wall, are to cease, is hereby extended; and it shall be lawful for the said Company to avail themselves of and act on such Powers from Time to Time within the Period of Two Years from the passing of this Act; and in all other respects the Terms and Conditions in the said recited Act contained, and all the Powers and Authorities thereby given and vested in the Master General and principal Officers of Her Majesty's Board of Ordnance, shall remain in full Force and Effect.

Tolls.

XIII. And be it enacted, That such Parts of the Sunderland Dock Act, 1846, as may or would empower the said Company to demand, receive, or recover from the Master or Owner of every Vessel entering or using the said Dock the Rate or Duty specified in the Schedule (A.) to that Act, shall be and the same are hereby repealed; and that in place thereof be it enacted, That as soon as the said Dock shall be fit for the Reception of Vessels, it shall be lawful for the Company to demand, receive, and recover from every Master or Owner of every Ship or Vessel entering or leaving the said Dock any Rate or Duty not exceeding the Rate or Duty specified in the Schedule (A.) to this Act, for every Ton Burthen of such Ship or Vessel, for each and every Time she enters or leaves the said Dock, the Amount of such Burthen to be ascertained as in the said recited Act is directed; and every such Ship or Vessel shall pay the Tonnage Rate or Duty on leaving the said Dock, notwithstanding she may have paid or been liable to pay the Tonnage Rate or Duty when she entered the same.

Certificate of Justices sufficient Evidence of Dock being ready for Reception of Vessels.

XIV. And be it enacted, That such Part of the Sunderland Dock Act, 1846, as directs that a Certificate of the Chairman of the Quarter Sessions of the Peace for the County of Durham shall be Evidence of the Dock being completed and fit for the Reception of Vessels, be and the same is hereby repealed; and in lieu thereof be it enacted, That a Certificate under the Hand of any Chairman of the Quarter Sessions of the Peace for the County Palatine of Durham, or from any Three of Her Majesty's Justices of the Peace acting in and for the Borough of Sunderland in Petty Sessions assembled, such Justices not being in any Manner interested in the said Dock, shall be conclusive Evidence that the Dock is fit for the Reception of Vessels; and any such Chairman or Justices shall sign such Certificate on proper Proof being adduced to him that the Dock is in a State hereinbefore mentioned.

Tolls on Goods, &c.

XV. And be it enacted, That such Parts of the Sunderland Dock Act, 1846, as authorizes the said Company to demand, receive, and recover recover, for all Goods, Merchandize, Articles, or Things mentioned in the Schedule (B.) to that Act, loaded or delivered from or upon the Quays or Wharfs to be constructed under the Authority of that Act, or shipped or unshipped within the said Dock, the several Rates in the said Schedule specified, shall be and the same are hereby repealed; and in the place thereof be it enacted That it shall be lawful for the said Company to demand, receive, and recover, for or in respect of all Goods, Merchandize, Articles, or Things mentioned in the Schedule (B.) to this Act, loaded or delivered from or upon the Quays or Wharfs to be constructed under the Authority of this Act or the said recited Act, or shipped or unshipped within the said Dock, any Sum not exceeding the several Rates in the said Schedule specified.

Vessels remaining in Dock beyond a certain Period liable to a further Rate.

XVI. And be it enacted, That such Part of the Sunderland Dock Act, 1846, as directs that for Vessels remaining in the Dock longer than Fourteen Days there should be paid a further Tonnage Rate as therein mentioned, shall be and the same is hereby repealed; and in the place thereof be it enacted, That if any Vessel using the said Dock, except Inward-bound Vessels with Cargoes that shall be delivered in the said Dock, shall remain in the Dock for any longer Space of Time than Fourteen Days, or, in case of such Inward-bound Vessels as aforesaid, for any longer Space than Thirty Days, such Periods to be respectively computed from the Time of going into the Dock, there shall be paid and payable to the Company by the Master or Owner of every such Vessel, according tot he Tonnage or Burthen thereof, over and above all Tonnage Rates or Duties to which the same shall or may be liable on entering and leaving the said Dock by virtue of this Act, a further Rate or Duty not exceeding Two-pence per Ton for every Week, and so in proportion for any Period less than a Week, during which any such Vessel shall remain in the said Dock beyond such respective Periods as aforesaid: Provided always, that such additional Rates shall not be payable for any such Vessel which shall have been prevented from leaving the said Dock by an Embargo.

Power to Commissioners of the River Wear to take certain Rates, &c.

XVII. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Commissioners acting under an Act passed in the Eleventh Year of the Reign of His Majesty King George the Fourth, for the Improvement and Preservation of the River Wear and Port and Haven of Sunderland in the County Palatine of Durham, to levy and receive such and the same Tolls, Rates, and Duties in respect of Ships or Vessels entering or using, and all Coals and Cinders shipped or delivered in the said Sunderland Dock, as such Commissioners are or may from Time to Time be entitled to, and shall levy and receive in respect of Ships and Vessels entering or using, and Coals and Cinders shipped or delivered in the River Wear, or the Port or Haven of Sunderland; and the said Commissioners shall and may lawfully have, use, and exercise all such and the same Powers and Remedies for ascertaining the Tonnage of all Ships and Vessels, and the Quantity of Coals and Cinders liable to Duty to them under the Provisions of this Act, and for levying, receiving, and recovering the Tolls, Rates, and Duties by this Act imposed and payable to them in respect of Ships or Vessels entering or using, and Coals and Cinders shipped or delivered in the said said Dock, or otherwise in relation thereto, as are by the said Act of the Eleventh Year of the Reign of His said Majesty granted in respect of the Tolls, Rates, and Duties thereby imposed, and for such Purpose the said Sunderland Dock shall be deemed and taken to be Part and Parcel of the said River Wear: Provided always, that nothing in this Act contained shall be construed to authorize the said Commissioners to exercise or have any Power or Jurisdiction whatsoever within the said Dock, or the Entrance thereto or the Outlet therefrom, except such as may be necessary for enabling them to ascertain the Amount of Tolls, Rates, and Duties payable to them, and for levying, receiving, and recovering the same.

Certain Provisions of the Sunderland Dock Act as to such Rates and Duties repealed.

XVIII. And be it enacted, That such Parts of the Sunderland Dock Act, 1846, as require that the Sunderland Dock Company shall receive and pay to the said Commissioners, in respect of all Ships and Vessels entering and Coals or Cinders shipped or delivered in the said Dock, the same Rates and Dues as Ships or Vessels entering and Coals and Cinders shipped or delivered either in the River Wear or the Port or Haven of Sunderland are or may be liable to pay to the said Commissioners, and to require that the Company shall half-yearly render to the said Commissioners an Account in Writing of the Coals and Cinders shipped and delivered in the said Dock in the preceding Half Year, and as impose a Forfeiture and Payment in case of failing to deliver such Account, or knowingly delivering an incorrect Account, shall be and are hereby repealed.

Additional Power to Dock Master to regulate the Position of Vessels.

XIX. And be it enacted, That in addition to the Powers by the recited Act given to the Dock Master and his Assistants, it shall be lawful for the said Dock Master and his Assistants, or any of them, in case the said Dock shall at any Time or Times be so full or crowded with Ships or Vessels laying up so as to prevent, impede, or render inconvenient the Export or Import Trade of the said Dock, or the Ships entering or leaving the same, to remove any of such Ships or Vessels so laying up as aforesaid into any other more convenient Part of the said Dock, or into the River Wear, such Ships or Vessels when brought into the River Weare being under the Directions of the Haven Masters of the Port for the Time being for such Time as he or they may see fit: Provided that such Ships so removed shall not be liable, on such Removal into the said River, or back again into the said Dock, to the Tonnage Duties payable on Ships or Vessels entering or leaving the said Dock.

Company may land Goods not duly entered after the Expiration of Seven Days;

XX. And be it enacted, That if any Goods which shall be brought into the Dock on board of any Vessel shall not be duly entered with the Customs, and the Order for landing lodged with the Officer of the Customs stationed on board such Vessel, or with the proper Officer of the Customs within the said Dock, as the Case may be, within Seven Days next after the Vessel importing the said Goods shall have been reported to the Custom House, then and in every such Case it shall be lawful for the proper Officer of the said Company appointed for that Purpose, on the next ensuing Day (not being a Sunday, Christmas Day, or Good Friday, the King's or Queen's Birthday, or a Day appointed by Her Majesty's Proclamation for the Purposes of a General Fast or Thanksgiving), to cause such Goods to be forthwith landed and warehoused in the Presence of the Officers of the Revenue, who are hereby authorized and directed to take a true and particular Account of the Quantity, Quality, and Species thereof; and in case such Goods shall not be duly exported, or the Duties on such Goods shall not be paid and discharged within Six Calendar Months next after such Report as aforesaid, it shall be lawful for the Commissioners of Customs, and they are hereby authorized and empowered, to sell and dispose of such Goods, or any Part thereof, to answer and satisfy the Duties thereon, rendering the Overples, if any, of the Monies arising by such Sale, after Payment of the Freight, and of any Rates, Charges, or Expenses which may be due to the said Company, to the Owner of such Goods, on Demand: Provided always, that if a Price cannot be obtained for such Goods equal to the full Amount of the Duties of Customs payable thereon, and the Charges of the Sale thereof, and Freight, Rates, Charges, or Expenses as aforesaid, then and in such Case all such Goods shall be effectually destroyed, or otherwise be sold and disposed of, in such Manner, and for such Purposes, and under such Rules, Regulations, and Restrictions, as the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Customs shall from Time to Time direct.

General

and in default of Export or Payment of Duty within Six Months, the Commissioners of Customs may sell the same.

Company empowered to enter Goods if not entered by the Owners thereof.

XXI. And be it enacted, That whenever the Despatch of Business shall be obstructed by the Neglect or Delay of the Master or Owners of Vessels, or the Owners or Consignees of Cargoes, both or either, in making or passing due Entries for such Cargoes, or some Part or Parts thereof, it shall be lawful for the proper Officer of the said Company to cause a warehousing Entry or Entries to be made for the Inward Cargo, or any Part or Parts of such Inward Cargo, of any Vessel lying within the said Dock, for which an Entry shall not have been made by the Owner thereof, and for which the Customs Order for the Delivery shall not have been lodged with the proper Officer of the Customs within the said Dock, within Forty-eight Hours from the Day on which the Cargo of such Vessel shall have been reported at the Custom House in Sunderland, such Entry to be made according to the Marks, Numbers, Package or Packages, Qualities, Quantities, or Contents of such Cargo, or Part or Parts thereof, as shall be described in the Report of the Cargo of any such Vessel (such Goods being such as by Law may be warehoused), and forthwith to land and warehouse, both or either, as the Case may be, such Goods, and retain the same as a Security for the Payment of the Duties to which they may be subject, and of the Rates and Sums payable thereon to the said Company, together with the Rent and Freight due thereupon.

Such Goods not liable to Seizure for Inaccuracy in Entry.

XXII. Provided always, and be it enacted, That no Goods entered by the said Company or their Officer as aforesaid shall be liable to Seizure or Forfeiture by reason of any Inaccuracy in the Entry thereof, unless it shall appear to the Commissioners of Customs that such Inaccuracy was intentional or occasioned by wilful or culpable Negligence; and it shall be lawful for the said Company to detain any Goods being in the Possession of the said Company so entered as aforesaid, until the Person applying for the Delivery or Transfer thereof thereof shall have lodged with the said Company a Counterpart of the Bill of Lading which shall have been signed for the same at the Port of Loading in Parts beyond the Seas.

Company empowered to prevent Part of a Cargo being landed until entered at the Custom House.

XXIII. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Directors of the said Company or their proper Officer in that Behalf, whenever they or he shall see Occasion, to forbid and prevent any Vessel lying in the said Dock to break Bulk or land any Part of the Cargo thereof until the whole of such Cargo shall have been duly entered at the Custom House, and Orders for the landing thereof lodged with the proper Officers of Her Majesty's Customs at the said Dock; and every Master or other Person having the Command of any Vessel who shall break Bulk or land any Part of the Cargo thereof, after Notice from such Officer of the said Company not to do so, shall forfeit and pay for every such Offence any Sum not exceeding Twenty Pounds: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall extend or be construed to extend to prevent the proper Officer of Her Majesty's Customs from causing or permitting any Part or Parts of such Cargo to be landed and to be housed with the said Company for the Security of the Revenue, or for clearing the Vessel, whenever he or they shall think fit.

Company may, in case of Delay, employ Persons to discharge or load Ships.

XXIV. And whereas inconvenient and unnecessary Delay may occur in the discharging or loading of Ships in the said Dock from the Inadequacy, Insufficiency, or improper Conduct of the Persons employed for that Purpose by the Owners or other Persons having the Command of such Vessels, and also from the Negligence or Default of the Masters or other Persons having such Command as aforesaid, to the great Hindrance of the general Business of the said Dock: Be it enacted, That whenever such Delay shall take place in the discharging or loading of any Vessel within the said Dock, either from the Inadequacy, Insufficiency, or improper Conduct of the Persons employed for that Purpose, or from the Negligence or Default of the Master or other Person having the Command of such Vessel, it shall and may in every such Case be lawful for the said Company, or the proper Officer thereof in that Behalf, to cause to be employed a sufficient Number of fit and proper Persons to discharge or load or assist in discharging or loading the Cargo of such Vessel, and to make a reasonable Charge for the same upon the Owner thereof, to be recovered in the same Form and by the same Remedies as are appointed and given hereby for the Recovery of the Rates payable to the said Company in respect of such Vessel; and every Master or other Person having the Command of any Vessel in the said Dock who shall not properly clear the Deck of such Vessel, by stowing away such Articles as impede the Delivery of the Cargo, upon being required so to do by such proper Officer as aforesaid, shall for every such Offence forfeit and pay any Sum not exceeding Five Pounds.

Penalty on Master for not clearing Deck of Vessel of any Impediment to the Delivery.

Master of Vessel, &c. to be on board all the Time of unloading.

XXV. And be it enacted, That the Master of every Vessel which shall or may load or unload in the said Dock, or some Person appointed by him or by the Owner of such Vessel for that Purpose, shall, during all the Time employed in loading or unloading or discharging such Vessel, remain on board, and superintend, aid, and assist assist in such loading, unloading, or discharging; and every such Master or Person so appointed as aforesaid who shall neglect or refuse to superintend, aid, and assist in the loading, unloading, and discharging of the same as aforesaid, shall for every such Offence forfeit and pay any Sum not exceeding Five Pounds.

Power to Commissioners of the River Wear to use the Dock free of Charge.

XXVI. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Master or other Person having Charge of any Boat, Barge, or other Vessel belonging to or used by the Commissioners of the River Wear for the exclusive Purposes of their Works, to enter the Basin or Dock of the Company with such Boat, Barge, or Vessel, and there to ship or unship any Stone, Timber, or other Materials to be used exclusively in or about the Works of the said Commissioners, and also to enter the said Basin or Dock with any such Barge or Vessel as aforesaid in stormy or tempestuous Weather, and there remain during the Prevalence thereof, without being liable in any such Cases to pay to the said Company any Rates, Duties, or Charges in respect thereof; provided the Gates of the Dock can be opened to admit such Barges, Boats, or Vessels without Injury to the said Dock, and without Danger to the Ships and other Vessels therein; and provided also, that nothing herein contained shall authorize or empower the said Commissioners to bring into the Dock, or to load or unload, any Sand, Ballast, Gravel, and French or common Chalk, or Manure, without paying to the Company the Tolls and Charges payable in respect thereof.

Provisions of 10 & 11 Vict. c. 27. incorporated with this Act.

XXVII. And be it enacted, That "The Harbours, Docks, and Piers Clauses Act, 1847," except where the same shall be repugnant to or inconsistent with the Provisions of this Act, shall be incorporated with and be construed as forming Part of this Act: Provided always, that nothing in this Act, or in the said Harbours, Docks, and Piers Clauses Act contained, shall extend or be construed to extend to compel the Company to provide or keep any Life Boat, Mortar, or Rockets until they shall be required so to do by the Lord High Admiral, or the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral, in Writing under the Hand of the Secretary of the Admiralty; and upon such Requisition being made, the Clauses relating thereto contained in the said Harbours, Docks, and Piers Clauses Act shall as regards this Act be in full Force; and that nothing in this Act, or in the said Harbours, Docks, and Piers Clauses Act contained, shall extend to compel the Company to erect or keep any Watch-house, Boat-house, Hut, or Weighing Materials for the Use of the Officers of the Revenue, until the Company shall be required so to do by the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Customs, in Writing; and upon any such Requisition being made, the Clauses relating thereto contained in the said Harbours, Docks, and Piers Clauses Act shall as regards this Act be in full Force.

Provision in 10 & 11 Vict. c. 27. as to casting Ballast repealed.

XXVIII. And whereas Doubts may arise as to the Limits within which the Provisions of the said Act of the Eleventh George the Fourth prohibit the casting of Ballast and other Substances, it is expedient that further and more effectual Provisions should be made for preventing the casting of Ballast or any other Substances within within the Limits herein-after defined: Be it therefore enacted, That such Part of the said last-mentioned Act as imposes a Penalty upon Persons casting or unloading Ballast or other Substances within the Limits therein specified shall be and the same is hereby repealed.

Penalty on Persons casting Ballast into the River Wear, &c.

XXIX. And be it enacted, That from and after the Expiration of Six Calendar Months from the Day on which the Dock or any Part thereof shall be opened for the Reception of Vessels, if the said Company or the said Commissioners, or any other Person whomsoever, under any Pretence whatever, shall cast or unload any Ballast, Sand, Stones, Rubbish, Wreck, Filth, Gravel, Coal, Ashes, or other Substance (except upon Land above the full Sea and Tide Mark, or upon some Quay or Staith situated higher than the Flux of the Tide,) into the Navigation of the said River Wear, so far as the Place called South Biddick or Biddick Ford, or into the Port or Haven of Sunderland as the same extends from the Promontory or Point called Souter Point, about Two Miles from Sunderland Bar towards the North-east, and so into the Sea to Ten Fathoms at Low Water, and from thence in a supposed Line till it falls (still in Ten Fathoms at Low Water) opposite to a certain Place called Ryhope Dean, about Two Miles towards the South; or if the said Company or the said Commissioners, or any other Person, shall, at any Time between the passing of this Act and the Expiration of Six Months from the Day on which the said Dock or any Part thereof shall be opened for the Reception of Vessels as aforesaid, cast or unload any such Ballast or other Material or Thing as aforesaid (except as aforesaid) into the Navigation of the said River Wear so far as the said Place called South Biddick or Biddick Ford, or into the Port or Haven of Sunderland as the same extends from the said Promontory or Point called Souter Point, and so into the Sea to Five Fathoms at Low Water, and from thence in a supposed Line till it falls (still in Five Fathoms at Low Water) opposite to the said Place called Ryhope Dean; or if the said Company or the said Commissioners, or any other Person, shall at any Time after the passing of this Act dig and remove from and out of one Part of the said River, and cast into another Part thereof, any Soil, Ballast, Sand, Stones, Rubbish, Wreck, Filth, Gravel, Coal, Ashes, or other Substance, except upon Land above the full Sea and Tide Mark, or upon some Quay or Staith situated higher than the Flux of the Tide, the said Company or the said Commissioners or any other Person committing any such Act as aforesaid shall forfeit and pay any Sum not exceeding Ten Pounds for every such Offence, to be recovered in a summary Way, and applied in the same Manner as Penalties are recoverable and are to be applied under the said Act of the Eleventh Year of the Reign of His Majesty King George the Fourth: Provided nevertheless, that nothing herein-before contained shall abridge, lessen, defeat, prevent, obstruct, interfere with, or prejudice any Work authorized to be executed, or any Power, Right, or Privilege given to the said Sunderland Dock Company by the said Sunderland Dock Act, One thousand eight hundred and forty-six, or to the said Commissioners of the River Wear by the said recited Act of the Eleventh Year of the Reign of His Majesty King George the Fourth.

XXX. And

If Admiralty order a local Survey, the Expense to be defrayed by the Company.

XXX. And be it enacted, That if after Working Drawings of the Works by this or the said recited Act authorized shall have been submitted to the Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom, or to the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral, it shall be deemed expedient by him or them to order a local Survey and Examination of such Works, or of the intended Site thereof, the Company shall defray the Costs of such local Survey and Examination, and the Amount thereof shall be a Debt due to Her Majesty from the Company, and, if not paid upon Demand, may be recovered as a Debt due to the Crown, with the Costs of Suit, or may be recovered with Costs, as a Penalty is or may be recoverable from the Company.

If Works across tidal Waters are abandoned, Admiralty may remove them at the Expense of the Company.

XXXI. And be it enacted, That if any Work to be constructed by the Company in or affecting any tidal Water or navigable River, or if any Portion of the Work which affects any such Water or River or Access thereto, shall be abandoned or suffered to fall into Disuse or Decay by the Company, it shall be lawful for the Lord High Admiral, or the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral, to abate and remove the same or such Part or Parts thereof as he or they may at any Time or Times deem fit and proper, and to restore the Site thereof to its former Condition, at the Cost and Charge of the Company, and the Amount thereof shall be a Debt due from the Company to the Crown, and be recoverable accordingly with Costs of Suit.

Expenses of Act.

XXXII. And be it enacted, That all the Costs, Charges, and Expenses of applying for, obtaining, and passing this Act, or preparatory thereto, shall be paid out of the Funds of the Company in preference to all other Payments whatsoever.

Public Act.

XXXIII. And be it enacted, That this Act shall be a Public Act, and shall be judicially taken notice of as such.
