EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Rules.)

These Rules amend the Superannuation (Civil Service and Northern Ireland Health Service) Transfer Rules 1957 by giving the Treasury discretion to allow longer periods than those specified in the 1957 Rules:—

(a) For a person to commence employment in the Civil Service after leaving employment in the Northern Ireland Health Service and vice versa;

(b) For a person to give notice that he desires the 1957 Rules to apply to him.

The Rules also amend the 1957 Rules, which require a civil servant transferring to service in the Northern Ireland Health Service to obtain the consent of the Head of his Department beforehand, by enabling him to obtain such consent either before or after so transferring.
