The Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, in exercise of the powers conferred upon them by Section 2 of the Superannuation Act, 1957(a), and of all other powers enabling them in that behalf, hereby make the following Rules:—

1.—(1) Where a person was on the first day of October, nineteen hundred and fifty-four, taken into the civil service of the State as an officer of the Ministry of Education after having been employed by the body known as the Committee for the Education of Poles in Great Britain, his service in employment by that body before that day, but not before he attained the age of eighteen years, shall be reckoned for the purposes of the Superannuation Acts as employment in an unestablished capacity within the meaning of Section 3 of the Superannuation Act, 1935(b).

(2) Where the said Committee paid a gratuity to a person to whom the foregoing paragraph applies in respect of his service with the Committee, it shall be a condition of the making of any payment under the Superannuation Acts in respect of that person's service, so far as the amount of that payment is dependent on the provisions of the foregoing paragraph, that there has been paid to the Exchequer a sum equal to the amount of the said gratuity.

(3) These Rules shall not have effect so as to authorise an increase in an annual superannuation allowance or pension so far as the allowance or pension is payable in respect of a period before the coming into operation of these Rules.

2.—(1) In these Rules the expression "the Superannuation Acts" means the Superannuation Acts, 1834 to 1950, and any Act amending those Acts.

(2) The Interpretation Acts, 1889(c), shall apply to the interpretation of these Rules as it applies to the interpretation of an Act of Parliament.
