service as was reckonable for the purposes of the Superannuation Acts as service in the capacity of a civil servant immediately before he ceased to be a civil servant, and upon the payment of such transfer value that service shall be reckoned as metropolitan police staff service for the purpose of the Orders.

Dated this 22nd day of December, 1954.

Martin Redmayne,
Gerald Wills,

Two of the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury.

21st December, 1954.

G. Lloyd-George,
One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State.

22nd December, 1954.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Rules, but is intended to indicate their general purport.)

Hitherto, if an officer transferred from an established post in the Civil Service to pensionable employment as a member of the Metropolitan Police Staff (or vice versa) and thereafter transferred to other pensionable employment covered by rules made under Sections 2 and 15 of the Superannuation (Miscellaneous Provisions) Act, 1948, e.g., to pensionable local government service, it has not been possible fully to preserve his pension rights in respect of the first of these employments. The effect of these Rules is to secure that, in such circumstances, it will be possible to aggregate and make a single superannuation award in respect of his service throughout.

The Rules may be applied retrospectively.
