Cap. cxxvi.

An Act for the Conservancy and Improvement of Swansea Harbour, and for other Purposes, and of which the Short Title is "The Swansea Harbour Act, 1854." [3d July 1854.]

WHEREAS an Act was passed in the Thirty-first Year of King George the Third, intituled An Act for repairing, 31 G.3.c.83.
enlarging, and preserving the Harbour of Swansea in the County of Glamorgan: And whereas another Act was passed in the Thirty-sixth Year of King George the Third, intituled An Act to 36 G.3.c.93.
amend and render more effectual an Act made in the Thirty-first Year of His present Majesty, for repairing, enlarging, and preserving the Harbour of Swansea in the County of Glamorgan, and for making Improvements in the Lights at the Mumbles: And whereas another Act was passed in the Forty-fourth Year of King George the Third, intituled An Act for amending and enlarging the Powers of 44 G.3.c.56.
Two Acts passed for preserving the Harbour of Swansea in the County of Glamorgan, and for further improving the same: And whereas another Act was passed in the Session of the Sixth and Seventh Years of King William the Fourth, intituled An Act to alter and 6 & 7 W.4. c. cxxv.
amend several Acts for the Improvement of the Harbour of Swansea in the County of Glamorgan, and for further improving the said

Harbour: And whereas another Act was passed in the Session of the Seventh and Eighth Years of Her present Majesty, intituled An Act to amend an Act for altering and amending several Acts for the Improvement of the Harbour of Swansea in the County of Glamorgan: And whereas another Act was passed in the Session of the Tenth and Eleventh Years of Her present Majesty, intituled An Act to amend the several Acts relating to Swansea Harbour: And whereas the Trustees appointed under the recited Acts have erected and maintained a Lighthouse at the Mumbles, and have constructed Piers at the Entrance of the Harbour, with a Lighthouse on the Western Pier, and have converted the Bed of the River Tawe opposite the Town of Swansea into a Floating Dock, called the Town Float, with Two Iron Swing Bridges over the same, and have made a navigable Cut (in this Act called the new Cut) with an Iron Swing Bridge over the same, and have deepened and improved the Bed of the River from the Entrance to the Harbour, between the Piers, up to the Forest Copper Works, and have made other Works within the Port and Harbour, or communicating therewith: And whereas it is expedient that the Piers of the Harbour be repaired, altered, and extended, and the Docks, Basins, Quays, Locks, and other Works in this Act described be executed and maintained, and that further Provision be made for the Conservancy of the Bay and Harbour of Swansea and the River Tawe, and the Regulation and Navigation thereof: And whereas the Duke of Beaufort, through his Officers, called the Water Bailiff and the Layerkeeper of the said Port, Harbour, and River, together with the Corporation of Swansea (in right of the Portreeve of the Borough formerly appointed or otherwise), claim to be entitled to receive certain Petty Dues, called Keelage and Moorage Dues, in respect of Vessels entering the Harbour and River, according to the following Scale; (that is to say,)

7 & 8 Vict. c. xliv.

10 & 11 Vict. c. cclx.

	Portreeve.	Water Bailiff.	Layer Keeper.	Total.

And whereas the Duke of Beaufort, through his Officer, the Water Bailiff, further claims to be entitled to collect and receive certain other Petty Dues (in Kind), called Water Bailiff's Dues, in respect of Fish, Corn,

Corn, and other Provisions, the Property of Persons not free of the Borough, imported into the Borough: And whereas it is expedient that such Keelage and Moorage Dues and Water Bailiff's Dues should be abolished: And whereas the Bond or Mortgage Debt of those Trustees amounts to One hundred and forty-six thousand two hundred and forty-two Pounds or thereabouts: And whereas the several Persons mentioned in Schedule (C.) to this Act annexed have advanced certain Monies for the Purposes of the Harbour, and it is desirable that Provision be made by this Act for Payment of those Monies with Interest: And whereas it is expedient that Trustees be appointed or elected, as by this Act provided, and be incorporated and be empowered to carry this Act into execution, and to levy the Rates, Dues, and Tolls by this Act granted, and to raise Money for the Purposes of this Act: And whereas, in order to avoid Inconveniences arising from several Local Acts relating to the same Matters being in force at the same Time, it is expedient that the recited Acts be repealed, and that such Provisions of the same as are proper or applicable be re-enacted by this Act; but the Objects aforesaid cannot be effected without the Authority of Parliament: May it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows; (that is to say,)

Short Title.

I. This Act may be cited for any Purpose as "The Swansea Harbour Act, 1854."

Commencement of Act.

II. This Act shall commence and have effect on and from the First Day of September in the Year One thousand eight hundred and fifty-four.

Limits of Act.

III. This Act shall be put in force within the Limits of the Harbour of Swansea, which Limits comprise Port Tennant as by this Act defined, and all Works by this Act authorized to be made or maintained, and all Places within the Navigation of the River Tawe as high as the Forest Weir.

Interpretation of Terms.

IV. The following Words and Expressions in this Act have the following Meanings, unless there be something in the Subject or Context repugnant to such Construction; (to wit,)

The Expression "the Admiralty" means the Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and also the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom:

The Expression "the Trinity House" means the Corporation of the Trinity House of Deptford Strond:

The Expression "the old Trustees" means the Trustees for carrying the recited Acts into execution:

The Expression "the Trustees" means the Trustees for carrying this Act into execution:

The Expression "the Corporation" means the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the Borough of Swansea:

The Expression "the Council" means the Council of the Borough of Swansea:

The Expression "Justices" means Justices of the Peace for the Borough of Swansea, as well as Justices of the Peace for the County of Glamorgan:

The Expression "Ballast Lighter" means any Lighter, Barge, Boat, or other Vessel used for receiving or conveying Ballast:

The Word "Ballast" includes Stone, Gravel, Sand, Clay, Earth, Soil, and other Materials and Substances used as Ballast:

Same Meaning of Words in incorporated Acts and this Act.

"Quarter Sessions."

V. The several Words and Expressions to which Meanings are assigned by the Acts wholly or partly incorporated with this Act, and to which Meanings are not otherwise assigned by this Act, have in this Act the same Meanings as are so assigned to them respectively; and the Expression "Quarter Sessions" in those Acts means, for the Purposes of this Act, the General or Quarter Sessions of the Peace for the County of Glamorgan.

Recited Acts repealed.

VI. From and after the Commencement of this Act, but subject to the Powers and Provisions of this Act, the recited Acts are by this Act repealed.

Incorporation of Commissioners Clauses Act, 10 & 11 Vict. c. 16. incorporated.

VII. "The Commissioners Clauses Act, 1847," except Section Eighty-two thereof, and except Sections Seventeen, Nineteen, Twenty, Twenty-four, Twenty-five, Twenty-six, and Thirty-two thereof, with respect to the Election and Rotation of the Commissioners where the Commissioners are to be elected by the Ratepayers or other like Class of Electors, is incorporated with this Act; and the Word Clerk in that Act includes for such Purposes as the Trustees think fit the Treasurer of the Trustees.

Appointment and Incorporation of Trustees.

VIII. Whereas it is expedient that Two Persons, to be for ever hereafter from Time to Time appointed by the Lord of the Seigniory of Gower for the Time being, by Writing under his Hand (or under the Hand of his Guardian, if such Lord shall be a Minor), for Periods of not less than Six Years (except in case of the Death or Incapacity of such Persons or either of them), and the Steward of the said Seigniory for the Time being, and the Coroner of the said Seigniory for the Time being, together with the several other Persons herein-herein-after mentioned or referred to, should be the Trustees for executing this Act: Therefore any Two Persons to be from Time to Time appointed by the Lord of the Seigniory of Gower for the Time being, by Writing under his Hand (or under the Hand of his Guardian if such Lord shall be a Minor), for Periods of not less than Six Years (except in case of the Death or Incapacity of such Persons, or either of them, in any of which Cases another Person may be forthwith appointed as aforesaid), and the Steward of the Seigniory for the Time being, and the Coroner of the Seigniory for the Time being, and the chief Agent of the Briton Ferry Estate, in the Parish of Llansamlet, now in the Possession of the Right Honourable George Earl of Jersey, together with Nine Persons appointed by the Council, in this Act called Corporation Trustees, and Twelve Persons, in this Act called Proprietary Trustees, to be respectively from Time to Time appointed and elected as by this Act provided, shall be the Trustees for executing this Act, and shall be called "The Swansea Harbour Trustees," and by that Name shall be a Body Corporate, with perpetual Succession and a Common Seal, and with Power to purchase, take, hold, and dispose of Lands and other Property for the Purposes but subject to the Restrictions of this Act, and to put this Act in all respects into execution: Provided always, that if at any Time there be not any such Lord, Nominees, Steward, Coroner, or chief Agent, or full Number of Nine Corporation Trustees, or Twelve Proprietary Trustees, the Existence or Powers of the Trustees shall not be thereby affected.

Appointment of Corporation Trustees.

IX. The Council at their First Monthly Meeting after the Commencement of this Act, or at some Special Meeting called for the Purpose, and on the Ninth Day of November One thousand eight hundred and fifty-four, and on the Ninth Day of November in every succeeding Year, shall elect Nine Persons out of the Council as Corporation Trustees, and every Person so from Time to Time appointed a Trustee shall continue in Office until the Ninth Day of November following, if he respectively so long live and continue qualified.

Failure in punctual Appointment.

X. In case of Failure of the Appointment on the Ninth Day of November in any Year of the Number of Corporation Trustees by this Act directed to be appointed, the Council may make or complete such Appointment on any Day within Twenty-eight Days next after that Day.

Provisions for Sundays, &c.

XI. Whenever the First Day of March or the Ninth Day of November in any Year is a Sunday or a Day appointed for a Public Fast or Thanksgiving, the next Day which is not a Sunday or Thanksgiving or Fast Day shall, for the Purposes of the Appointment and Election respectively of Trustees for the Purposes of this Act, be substituted for the First Day of March or the Ninth Day of November, as the Case may be, in that Year.

As to filling up Vacancies by the Council.

XII. In case of any Vacancy by the Death, Resignation, Disqualification, or lawful Removal, or by the ceasing to be a Member of the Council of any of the Nine Corporation Trustees before the Expiration of the Time by this Act appointed for their ceasing to be Trustees, the Council shall, at their next Monthly Meeting, or at some Special Meeting called for that Purpose, appoint another Member of the Council to supply such Vacancy, and every Trustee so elected shall continue in Office only so long as the Person in whose Place he is elected would have been entitled to continue in Office.

First Proprietary Trustees.

XIII. The Persons who at the Commencement of this Act are the Representative or Proprietary Trustees appointed and acting under the recited Acts, or the Survivors of them, shall meet together at Twelve of the Clock at Noon on the Second Monday after the Commencement of this Act, and shall then elect and appoint out of their own Body Twelve Persons, who shall be the First Proprietary Trustees under this Act, and the senior Trustee then present shall be the Chairman at such Meeting, and in case of an Equality of Votes such Chairman shall be entitled to a Casting Vote.

Qualification of Proprietary Trustees.

XIV. No Person shall be qualified to be elected a Proprietary Trustee unless he have in his own Right a Share or Shares of the Value of at least Two thousand Pounds in any Colliery, Mines, or Minerals, Works, or Manufactory whatsoever, wrought or carried on within Four Miles from the River Tawe, and the Exports from which are made from that River, or from Swansea Bay, or the Coast thereof, within the Seigniories of Gower and Kilvey, or be registered at the Port of Swansea as the Owner of Shipping belonging thereto of the Value of at least One thousand Pounds, or be possessed of a Wharf or Warehouse on the Banks of the River Tawe, or of an aggregate Interest in any Dock, Canal, or Railway terminating at or communicating with the River Tawe of the Value of at least Two thousand Pounds, or be entitled to Six Votes in the Election of Proprietary Trustees.

As to filling up Vacancies among Proprietary Trustees previous to the 1st March 1856.

XV. If before the First Day of March One thousand eight hundred and fifty-six any Proprietary Trustee die, or resign, or become disqualified, or retire, or from any other Cause cease to be a Proprietary Trustee, the Vacancy so caused shall be forthwith filled up by an Election of another Proprietary Trustee in his Place by the surviving or continuing Proprietary Trustees, at a Meeting convened for that Purpose, Ten Days Notice of such Meeting having first been given given by the Clerk by Advertisement in some Newspaper published or circulated in the Town of Swansea, and every Trustee so elected shall continue in Office only so long as the Person in whose Place he is elected would have been entitled to continue in Office.

Rotation of Proprietary Trustees.

XVI. On the First Day of March in the Year One thousand eight hundred and fifty-six, and on the First Day of March in every succeeding Second Year, Four of the Proprietary Trustees shall go out of Office, and in every instance the Places of those retiring shall be supplied by the Election of a like Number of Persons as Proprietary Trustees in the Manner herein provided.

Election of Proprietary Trustees.

XVII. In order to determine the Rotation by which the First Proprietary Trustees shall go out of Office, the Proprietary Trustees shall, at their First Meeting in the Year One thousand eight hundred and fifty-six, form a Rotation List in the following Manner; to wit, the Clerk, or some Person to be then appointed for that Purpose by the Proprietary Trustees present, shall write the Names of all the First Proprietary Trustees on separate Slips of Paper, all as nearly as may be of equal Size, and having folded them in the same Manner shall put them into a Balloting Box, and the Chairman of the Day shall, in the Presence of such Meeting, draw out such Slips of Paper in succession, and the Names upon the Slips so drawn shall be written by the Clerk or other Person as a List in the Order in which they are drawn, and a Copy of such List shall be entered on the Minutes, and the Original shall be kept by the Clerk among the Papers of the Trustees, and the Names therein shall be numbered consecutively, and the First Proprietary Trustees shall retire from Office in the Order in which their Names shall appear in such List in the Proportions herein-before mentioned, and on the First Day of March One thousand eight hundred and sixty-two, and on the First Day of March in every subsequent Second Year, the Four Proprietary Trustees who have without being re-elected been longest in Office shall go out of Office, and Four Persons shall be elected Proprietary Trustees in their Place.

As to filling up Vacancies among Proprietary Trustees on and after 1st March 1856.

XVIII. If on or at any Time after the First Day of March One thousand eight hundred and fifty-six, any Proprietary Trustee die, or resign, or become disqualified, or retire, or from any other Cause cease to be a Proprietary Trustee, the Vacancy so caused shall be forthwith filled up by an Election of another Proprietary Trustee in his Place, Ten Days Notice of the Meeting for the Election having first been given by the Clerk by Advertisement in some Newspaper published or circulated in the Town of Swansea; and every such Election shall take place as in the Case of an Election of Proprietary Trustees in the Place of those who retire in Rotation; and every

Trustee

Trustee so elected shall continue in Office only so long as the Person in whose Place he is elected would have been entitled to continue in Office.

Qualification of Electors of Proprietary Trustees, viz., Persons rated to the Poor's Rates.

XIX. The following Persons and no others shall be entitled to vote in the Election of the Proprietary Trustees:

Revisors of the Lists.

XXIX. In the Month of December in the Year One thousand eight hundred and fifty-five, and in every subsequent Year, the Trustees shall appoint Two of their Number to be the Revisors of the certified List and the alphabetical List respectively, and the Two Persons so appointed shall, on or before the Fourteenth Day of January next after their Appointment, appoint a Third Person, being a Person qualified to be elected a Proprietary Trustee, to be the Third Revisor, and to be the Chairman of the Revisors, and the Three Persons so appointed shall be the Revisors of those Lists.

Period for Revision of the Lists.

XXX. The Three Revisors shall, during the Seven Days next before the Fourteenth Day of February in the Year One thousand eight hundred and fifty-six, and in every subsequent Year, revise at the Office of the Trustees the Lists for that respective Year, giving not less than Three nor more than Seven Days public Notice of every such Revision: Provided always, that in case of the Decease or Failure to act of any of the Revisors, the others, or One of them, may make or complete the Revision.

Claims and Objections on Revision.

XXXI. On every such Revision any Person whose Name is not inserted in the List, may, in Person or by his Agent, claim to have his Name inserted therein; and every Person whose Name is inserted in the List may, in Person or by his Agent, claim to have the Number of Votes attributed to him therein corrected, and may object to any other Person as not being entitled to have his Name retained therein, or as not being entitled to the Number of Votes attributed to him therein.

Revision of Lists.

XXXII. The Revisors shall retain the Name of any Person, or the Number of Votes so objected to, if the Objection be not established to their Satisfaction, and shall insert in the List the Name of any Person shown to their Satisfaction to be entitled to have his Name inserted inserted therein, and shall retain in the List the Name of every Person to whom and every Number of Votes to which an Objection is not made, and shall strike out the Name of every Person shown to their Satisfaction to be dead or not to be entitled to have his Name inserted therein, and shall correct the Number of Votes attributed to any Person shown to their Satisfaction to be entitled to any other Number of Votes than those attributed to him.

Revised Lists to be signed.

XXXIII. Every Decision of the Revisors or the Majority of them with respect to the Lists shall be final and conclusive, and the Revisors shall forthwith after every Revision sign their Names at the Foot of the Lists revised; and in default of any Revisor signing the List, such Revisor shall be liable to a Penalty not exceeding Fifty Pounds.

Production of Books to Revisors.

XXXIV. For the Revision of the Lists the Trustees, their Agents, Collectors, or Lessees, shall produce at their Office, to the Revisors and their Assistants, such of the Books and Accounts of the Trustees as are proper and sufficient to enable those Persons respectively, according to the Provisions of this Act, to revise the Lists, and shall afford to them respectively all reasonable and proper Facilities in that Behalf; and if any such Agent, Collector, or Lessee shall neglect or refuse so to produce any such Books or Accounts as may be in his Possession, he shall for every such Offence be liable to a Penalty not exceeding Fifty Pounds.

In case of Partners, the Firm to be named in the List.

XXXV. In every Case of several Persons being registered as Shipowners in Partnership, and whether as Part Owners or sole Owners, or both, and in every Case of Persons paying Rates on Goods imported or exported, being Partners, the Name of the Firm shall be placed in the certified List, or, as the Case may be, the alphabetical List; and if not so placed, the List shall be corrected by the Revisors.

Revised Lists to be printed.

XXXVI. Every such revised List shall forthwith after such Revision be printed and published by the Trustees, and every Person whose Name appears therein shall be entitled to a Copy thereof on Payment of One Shilling therefor.

Validity of revised Lists.

XXXVII. Every List purporting to be a revised List according to this Act, and to be signed as by this Act directed, shall, without any Proof other than that of the Signatures thereto, be sufficient and conclusive Evidence, to all Intents and Purposes, of the same being a revised List according to this Act, and of all the Provisions of this Act in any way relating to such revised List having been duly complied with.

XXXVIII. Every

Continuance of revised Lists.

XXXVIII. Every such revised List shall be in force until the then next Revision of the List, and the Persons whose Names appear on the revised List for the Time being in force shall be the Persons entitled to vote for the Election of Proprietary Trustees, and shall at every such Election be respectively entitled to the Number of Votes appearing by the revised List.

Provision in Case of Failure of Revision in 1856.

XXXIX. Provided always, as to the certified List and the alphabetical List respectively, That if the same respective List be not duly revised in the Year One thousand eight hundred and fifty-six, the same respective List shall, until the First Day of March One thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven exclusive, be as valid as if it were duly revised.

Measuring Distances.

XL. For the Purposes of this Act, every Distance prescribed by this Act shall be measured in a straight Line on a horizontal Plane.

Justices not disqualified by being Trustees.

XLI. A Person shall not, on account only of his being a Trustee, be incapable of acting as a Justice for any of the Purposes of this Act.

First and other Meetings of Trustees.

XLII. The Trustees shall hold their First Meeting at some Place in Swansea, at the Hour of Twelve at Noon, on the Third Monday next after the Commencement of this Act, and shall hold their subsequent Meetings at such Place and at such Times as they from Time to Time think fit, and the Trustees shall hold an Annual Meeting on the Second Monday in the Month of August in every Year.

Property of old Trustees vested in Trustees.

XLIII. Notwithstanding the Repeal of the recited Acts, all the Estates, Lands, Buoys, Beacons, Lights, Lighthouses, Moorings, Works, Property, Choses in Action, Possibilities, Expectancies, Effects, Claims, and Demands whatsoever of or to which the old Trustees are by virtue of the recited Acts, or any other Act, or by any other Means whatsoever, at the Commencement of this Act, seised, possessed, or in any way entitled at Law or in Equity, or otherwise howsoever, with the Appurtenances, are by this Act, and on and from the Commencement thereof, transferred to and vested in the Trustees absolutely according to the Tenure, Nature, and Quality thereof respectively, but subject and without Prejudice to any Mortgages, Charges, Incumbrances, Claims, and Demands which at the Time of the Commencement of this Act affect the old Trustees or their Property, and all Persons in whom or in whose Names any such Real Estate, Stocks, Funds, and Personal Estate respectively are at the Commencement of this Act vested shall, when thereunto required, by Writing signed by the Clerk, convey, transfer, and assign such Estates, Stocks, and Funds respectively, according to the Nature and Quality thereof, to the Trustees or to such Persons as they appoint.

Mumbles Lighthouse Act to continue in force.

XLIV. Notwithstanding the Repeal of the recited Acts, the several Powers and Provisions of the Act passed in the Session of the Fourth and 4 & 5 W. c. 69.

and Fifth Years of King William the Fourth, intituled An Act for placing the Mumbles Head Lighthouse, in the County of Glamorgan, under the Management of the Corporation of the Trinity House of Deptford Strond, shall, on and from the Commencement of this Act, apply to the Trustees as representing the old Trustees, and to their Officers and Servants, and all other Persons accordingly.

Trustees to be entitled to Powers, &c. under other Acts.

XLV. Notwithstanding the Repeal of the recited Acts, the several Clauses and Provisions whatsoever in favour or for the Benefit of, relating to, or affecting the old Trustees or their Officers or Servants, contained in any Act or Acts except the recited Acts, and which immediately before the Commencement of this Act are in force, shall, on and from the Commencement of this Act, apply to the Trustees and their Officers and Servants, and shall continue and be in full force accordingly; and the Trustees acting under this Act, and their Officers and Servants, may and shall accordingly, for the Purposes of this Act, be entitled to, and have, exercise, and enjoy, under or by virtue of those Clauses and Provisions respectively, all such Rights, Interests, Powers, Authorities, and Privileges whatsoever as, in case this Act were not passed, the old Trustees and their Officers and Servants, under or by virtue of the same, might be entitled to, or might have, exercise, or enjoy.

Present and future Rights and Liabilities under repealed Acts saved.

XLVI. Notwithstanding the Repeal of the recited Acts, and except only as is by this Act otherwise expressly provided, every thing before the Commencement of this Act done and suffered respectively under the repealed Acts respectively shall be as valid as if this Act had not been passed, and such Repeal and this Act respectively shall accordingly be subject and without Prejudice to every thing so done and suffered respectively, and to all Rights, Liabilities, Claims, and Demands, both present and future, which, if such Repeal had not happened, and this Act had not been passed, would be incident to and consequent on any and every thing so done and suffered respectively; and with respect to all things so done and suffered respectively, and all such Rights, Liabilities, Claims, and Demands, the Trustees shall, to all Intents and Purposes, represent the old Trustees.

Conveyances, &c. to remain in force.

XLVII. Notwithstanding the Repeal of the recited Acts, all Purchases, Sales, Conveyances, Leases, Mortgages, Bonds, Contracts, Agreements, Securities, Resolutions, and other Acts and Things before the Commencement of this Act done, entered into, executed, or instituted under or by virtue or with reference to the Purposes of the recited Acts shall be good, valid, and effectual, to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever, for, against, and with reference to the Trustees, and may be proceeded on and enforced accordingly.

XLVIII. Not-

Actions, &c. not to abate.

XLVIII. Notwithstanding the Repeal of the recited Acts, any Action, Suit, Prosecution, or other Proceeding commenced either by or against the old Trustees before the Commencement of this Act shall not abate or be discontinued or be prejudicially affected by this Act, but, on the contrary, the same shall continue and take effect both in favour of and against the Trustees in like Manner in all respects as, in case this Act were not passed, the same would continue and take effect in favour of and against the old Trustees; and all Offences against the Provisions of the recited Acts or any of them committed before the Commencement of this Act may be prosecuted, and all Penalties incurred by reason of such Offences may be sued for, in like Manner in all respects as if this Act were not passed.

Rates due at Commencement of Act to be recovered by Trustees.

XLIX. Notwithstanding the Repeal of the recited Acts, all Tolls, Rates, and Duties which immediately before the Commencement of this Act are due and payable or accruing or becoming due and payable to the old Trustees, shall be payable to and may be collected and recovered by the Trustees in like Manner as the Rates and Dues by this Act granted.

Debts to be paid to and by Trustees.

L. Notwithstanding the Repeal of the recited Acts, all Persons who immediately before the Commencement of this Act owe any Sum of Money to the old Trustees, or to any Person on their Behalf, shall pay the same, with all the Interest (if any) due or to accrue due for the same, to the Trustees; and all Debts and Money which immediately before the Commencement of this Act are due or owing by or recoverable from the old Trustees, or for the Payment of which the old Trustees are or but for this Act would be liable, shall be paid, with all Interest (if any) due or to accrue thereon, by or be recoverable from the Trustees.

Byelaws to remain in force.

LI. Notwithstanding the Repeal of the recited Acts, all Byelaws, Rules, Regulations, Orders, and Notices made and given under the Authority and according to the Provisions thereof, and which are in force at the Commencement of this Act, shall continue in full Force and Effect during Six Months after the Commencement of this Act, or until the same be re-enacted, repealed, altered, or varied under the Authority of this Act; and such Byelaws, Rules, Regulations, and Orders, and all Penalties and Forfeitures thereby respectively imposed, may and shall be enforced, recovered, and applied in the same Manner in all respects as the same respectively might be enforced, recovered, and applied in case the same respectively were made and imposed under the Authority of this Act.

Books, &c. to be Evidence.

LII. Notwithstanding the Repeal of the recited Acts, all Maps, Plans, Books, Accounts, Documents, and Writings thereby directed or authorized authorized to be kept or made, and which if those Acts were not repealed would be receivable in Evidence, shall be admitted as Evidence in all Courts of Law and Equity and elsewhere accordingly.

Officers to continue.

LIII. Notwithstanding the Repeal of the recited Acts, every Officer and Servant appointed by virtue of or acting under those Acts shall hold and enjoy his Office and Employment, with the Salary and Emoluments thereunto annexed, and be deemed an Officer and Servant of the Trustees, until he be removed by them from such Office and Employment, and he shall have the like Power and Authority for the Purposes of this Act, and be subject to the like Power of Removal, Rules, Regulations, Pains, and Penalties, in all respects whatsoever as if he had been appointed by the Trustees under this Act: Provided always, that the Duke of Beaufort, his Heirs or Assigns, or his or their Officers for the Time being, shall not, except as a Trustee, have any Right to interfere in the Appointment, Suspension, or Removal of the Clerk of the Trustees.

Swansea Ferry to remain extinguished.

LIV. Notwithstanding the Repeal of the recited Acts, the ancient Ferry across the River Tawe, called the Swansea Ferry, mentioned in the fourthly-recited Act, and which on the opening for public Use of the Bridge over the River Tawe near the Pottery became extinguished, shall remain and be extinguished.

8 & 9 Vict. c. 18. incorporated.

LV. The "Lands Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845," is incorporated with this Act.

Power to purchase Lands by Agreement.

LVI. The Trustees may from Time to Time, by Agreement, purchase or take on Lease for the Deposit of Ballast, or for any of the Purposes of this Act, any Quays, Landing Places, Wharfs, and Lands, and any Easements, Rights, and Interests in, over, and affecting any Lands within the Seigniories of Gower and Kilvey.

Certain Provisions of 10 & 11 Vict. c. 27. incorporated.

LVII. The "Harbours, Docks, and Piers Clauses Act, 1847," except Sections XXV. and XXVI. thereof, is incorporated with this Act; and the Expression "the Harbour, Dock, or Pier" in that Act means, for the Purposes of this Act, the Harbour; and the Expression "the Undertakers" in that Act means, for the Purposes of this Act, the Trustees: Provided always, that the Duty imposed on the Trustees by the Sixteenth and Eighteenth Sections of the said Act shall relieve the Swansea Dock Company of the Liability of keeping a Life Boat and Store of Rockets, and a Tide Gauge and Barometer.

Trustees to be Conservators of Harbour.

LVIII. The Trustees shall be the Conservators of the Harbour of Swansea and the River Tawe, and all Parts of Swansea Bay included within Three imaginary straight Lines, one drawn from the Root of the the Western Pier, and another from the Root of the Eastern Pier, and both continued out Seaward to dead Low-water Mark, and the Third being of Eight hundred Yards in Length, and drawn from the Seaward Extremity of the First Line to the Seaward Extremity of the Second Line; and, as such Conservators, shall have and may exercise the several Powers for the Improvement, Protection, and Regulation of the Harbour, and other the Powers relating thereto conferred on them by this Act: Provided always, that the Conservancy aforesaid shall not be held or construed to give any Jurisdiction or Power over Port Tennant as by this Act defined, or over any Part of the Undertaking of the Swansea Dock Company, or over any Part of the Beaufort Dock.

Powers of Trustees as Conservators.

LIX. The Trustees from Time to Time may repair, alter, and maintain the several Improvements, Works, and Conveniences made or maintained under the Authority of the recited Acts and this Act respectively, and may cut, deepen, scour, cleanse, extend, widen, and keep navigable the Harbour from the Forest Weir to the Sea, and the Trustees shall and they are hereby required to make, maintain, and keep the Bed or Channel from the Lock at the South Entrance to the Town Float to the Entrance between the Piers or any Extension thereof, at least as deep in every Part thereof as the Sill of such Lock, and the Trustees may maintain and improve any Walls and Embankments necessary for preserving the Works or the Navigation of the Harbour or the Entrance to the Harbour from the Sea, and any Lighthouses, Beacons, Ballast Wharves, and Quays, and Places for the Deposit of Ballast and Rubbish, and any other Conveniences which the Trustees from Time to Time think requisite for any of the Purposes of this Act.

Power to construct Works hereinafter described.

LX. The Trustees from Time to Time, when and as they think fit, may make and carry out the following Improvements, Works, and Purposes by this Act authorized, with all proper Bridges, Piers, Locks, Feeders, Engines, Machinery, Quays, Walls, Wharves, Landing Places, Embankments, Fences, Buildings, Depôts, Gates, Weirs, Warehouses, Viaducts, Approaches, Jetties, Slips, and other Conveniences connected therewith respectively:

The Trustees may construct a Dam or Embankment across the old Channel of the River Tawe, commencing at Meagher's new Dry Dock, and terminating at or near the Pottery Mill Wharf, in extension of the Town Float, and a Lock or Opening in such Dam or Embankment; and that Part of the old Channel between such Dam and the present Dam at or near the Pottery, together with the Beaufort Dock, shall be deemed and held to be Part of the Town Float; and on the Completion of those Works the Trustees may remove the present Gates in the Dam at the North End of the Town Float:

The Trustees may make a Cut, commencing in the old Channel of the River Tawe, at or near the Pottery Mill Wharf, and terminating at the Pottery Mill Pool, together with a Lock in such Cut, and a Bridge or Bridges over such Lock and Approaches thereto:

The Trustees may deepen and excavate the Pottery Mill Pool, and may convert the same into a Basin, and may remove a Bank which now separates the Pottery Mill Pool from the Swansea Canal, so as to effect a Communication by means of that Cut herein-before authorized from the River Tawe to that Canal and that Basin herein-before authorized:

The Trustees may and shall and are hereby required to construct on both Sides of the existing new Cut, from the existing Wharf Walls at the Hoist Bridge to Fabian's Bay, proper and substantial Foundation Walls, to the Height of Six Feet above the lowest Depth of Water in that new Cut; and may fill up any vacant Spaces behind those Foundation Walls; and may and shall make and maintain that new Cut of such Depth as that the Water therein up to those Foundation Walls shall in all Places be of the same Depth as in the Centre:

The Trustees may form the Bed of the River Tawe outside that Half-tide Basin into a tidal Entrance, or Entrance Basin, and for that Purpose may construct a Capstern Pier in prolongation of the Point of the Bank which separates the new Cut from the old Channel of the River Tawe at the Slag Bank:

The Trustees may alter and extend the Western Pier of Swansea Harbour, and may remove a Portion of the Eastern Pier of that Harbour, and construct a new Head to that Pier:

The Trustees may excavate and deepen the navigable Channel through Fabian's Bay to the Sea:

The Trustees may erect a Lighthouse upon the said Western Pier:

The Trustees may make a Railway diverging from and out of the Line of the Swansea Vale Railway, at or near a certain Coal Pit called Pullmawr, and terminating at or near a certain Field in the Parish of Llansamlet, belonging to the Right Honourable the Earl of Jersey, and demised to Jenkin Harris, situate and lying between Smith's Canal and the Lower Forest Farm:

The Trustees may take and use, for the Purposes relating to the Ballast of Vessels frequenting the Harbour, any of the Lands delineated and described on the Plans and Book of Reference herein-after referred to, deposited with the Clerk of the Peace, other than the Lands numbered in those Plans in the Parish of Swansea, 11, 27 to 36 a, both inclusive, 34 to 36 a, both inclusive, and 46 to 61, both inclusive, and 64, 65, and 68:

The Trustees may make a Dam or Embankment across the old Channel of the River Tawe from a Point near the Liverpool Steam Packet Wharf to the Slag Bank, together with an Entrance, by means of Gates in such Dam or Embankment:

The Trustees may deepen the old Channel of the River Tawe, between that Dam or Embankment and the Lock at the South End of the Town Float, so as to convert the old Channel between these Points into a Half-tide Basin:

The Trustees may and shall construct on the Eastern Side of that Half-tide Basin, from the present Return Walls of the Lock at the South Entrance of the Float to the proposed Return Walls of that Dam or Embankment across the River near the Slag Bank, proper and substantial Foundation Walls, to the Height of Three Feet above the lowest Water Level in that Half-tide Basin, for the Foundation of proper and sufficient Quay Walls, and those Foundation Walls shall be of the same Depth and sectional Area as the Quay Walls of the Beaufort Dock within the Town Float, and may fill up any vacant Spaces behind those Walls, and may and shall make and maintain that Half-tide Basin of such Depth as that the Water therein up to those Foundation Walls shall in all Places be of the same Depth as in the Centre:

And the Trustees, previous to constructing the said Half-tide Basin, shall make, lay down, and construct, and ever after keep in repair, a good and sufficient Culvert or Watercourse, for the Purpose of conveying the Water from the Corporation Dry Dock on the Western Side of the Town Float in the said Harbour, and from the Patent Slip on the Eastern Side of the Town Float, to the Outside of the Gates of the said Half-tide Basin:

The Trustees may lay Pipes in the Half-tide Basin to carry out the Water from the Patent Slip and Dry Dock:

The Trustees may remove the Jetty at the Landward End of the Western Pier of the Harbour.

The Duke of Beaufort to construct and maintain Quay Walls upon the Foundation Walls in the new Cut.

LXI. The Duke of Beaufort, his Heirs or Assigns, may and shall, within Twelve Months after the Completion of the Foundation Walls on both Sides of the new Cut, construct proper and substantial Quay Walls upon those Foundation Walls, so far as they front the Lands of the said Duke, and to a Height of at least Three Feet above High-water Mark, and the Trustees may fill up any vacant Spaces behind those Quay Walls to the Level thereof.

The Duke of Beaufort to construct and maintain Quay Walls upon the Foundation Walls on the Eastern Side of the Half-tide Basin.

LXII. The Duke of Beaufort, his Heirs or Assigns, may and shall, within Six Months after the Completion of the Foundation Walls on the Eastern Side of the Half-tide Basin, construct, and shall for ever thereafter maintain, proper and substantial Quay Walls upon those Foundation Walls, and to a Height of at least Three Feet above High-water Mark, and the Trustees may fill up any vacant Spaces behind those Quay Walls to the Level thereof.

Works to be executed according to LXIII. Whereas Plans and Sections of the Improvements and Works by this Act authorized, showing the Situation and Levels thereof respectively, and the Limits within which the same are intended to

to be executed, and also a Book of Reference to such Plans, containing the Names of the Owners or reputed Owners, Lessees or reputed Lessees, and Occupiers of the Lands upon or through which such Works are intended to be executed, have been deposited with the Clerk of the Peace for the County of Glamorgan: Therefore, subject to the Provisions of this Act, the Trustees may make and maintain those Improvements and Works respectively in the Lines and within the Limits of Deviation defined on those Plans, and according to the Levels shown by those Sections, and upon the Lands described in such Book of Reference, and may enter upon, take, and use for any Purposes of this Act such of those Lands as they think necessary.

Duke of Beaufort to convey Lands required for Purposes of Act.

LXIV. Provided always, That the Works by this Act authorized to be constructed shall be full Compensation to the Duke of Beaufort, his Heirs and Assigns, for such of his and their Lands as the Trustees enter upon, take, and use under the Powers of this Act, for the Extension and Alteration of the Western and Eastern Piers; for the Dams of the Half-tide Basin for the Capstern Point; for the Dams across the old Channel of the River Tawe, near the Pottery Mill Wharf, and for the laying of Pipes in the Bed of the Half-tide Basin from the existing Pipes in the Return Walls of the Lock at the South End of the Town Float to the Outside of that Half-tide Basin; and such Lands shall be from Time to Time, by virtue of this Act, vested in the Trustees, as and when the said Works respectively shall be from Time to Time completed, without any Payment being made for the same.

Duke of Beaufort to grant Lease to Trustees of Lands at Port Tennant.

LXV. The Duke of Beaufort, his Heirs or Assigns, shall, whenever thereunto required, grant a Lease to the Trustees, for the Term of Twenty-one Years from the Commencement of this Act, of all those Lands at or near Port Tennant numbered on the deposited Plans in the Parish of Swansea 64, 65, and 68, at the yearly Rent of Five Shillings per Acre, for the Purpose of depositing Ballast, Slag, and Rubbish thereon: Provided always, that the said Ballast, Slag, and Rubbish shall be so laid and protected from the Sea as shall (in case of any Disagreement between the Trustees and the said Duke, his Heirs or Assigns) be from Time to Time directed by the Admiralty: Provided also, that such Lease shall contain an absolute Covenant for quiet Enjoyment, and all other usual Covenants.

Limits of deviation.

LXVI. In executing the Works the Trustees may deviate from the Lines thereof laid down on the deposited Plans to the Extent of the Limits of Deviation defined thereon.

Powers for compulsory Purchase of Lands limited.

LXVII. The Powers of the Trustees for the compulsory Purchase of Lands for the Purposes of this Act shall not be exercised after the Expiration of Three Years from the Commencement of this Act.

LXVIII. Those

Period for Completion of Works.

LXVIII. Those Works shall be completed within Five Years from the Commencement of this Act (unless the Completion thereof be prevented by inevitable Accident); and on the Expiration of that Period the Powers by this Act granted to the Trustees for executing the Works, or otherwise in relation thereto, or of borrowing Money, except to pay off existing Mortgages, shall, unless the Completion of the Works be prevented by inevitable Accident, cease to be exercised, except as to so much of the Works as are then completed.

Power to erect leading Lights.

LXIX. The Trustees may, subject to the Provisions of the Seventy-eighth Section of "The Harbours, Docks, and Piers Clauses Act, 1847," erect and maintain leading Lights for the Guidance of Vessels, in such Positions upon any of the Quays, Piers, or other Works belonging to or under the Control of the Trustees as they may think proper.

Power to use Water of the River Tawe and Harbour.

LXX. The Trustees may use the Waters of the River Tawe and of the Harbour for the Purpose of supplying the Docks and Works by this Act authorized to be maintained, and for that Purpose may lay such Pipes and other Conveniences in the Bed of the River and Harbour as they think necessary, and for such Purpose may from Time to Time enter into and upon and cut and dig into the Bed and Soil of the River and Harbour near the said Float and Half-tide Basin.

Power to lower Water in Float, &c.

LXXI. The Trustees may, on giving not less than Three clear Days previous Notice, by Handbills posted at or near the outer Doors of the Harbour Offices, and at the Pilot's House and Custom House of Swansea, under the Hand of the Clerk, or without such Notice in case of Accident or urgent Necessity, direct and cause the Water in the Town Float and Half-tide Basin to be drawn down or let out.

Lowering Water in Float at Request of Wharf Owners, &c.

LXXII. The Trustees shall, on Application made to them in Writing by any Person desirous of constructing or repairing the Wharves, Quays, Embankments, or other Works on the Banks of the Town Float and Half-tide Basin, when it appears to the Trustees that the same may be effected with the least Detriment and Obstruction to the Trade and Navigation of the Harbour, direct and cause the Water of the Town Float and Half-tide Basin to be so far drawn down or let out as may be necessary for that Purpose; provided that the Water thereof shall not remain so drawn for more than Seven Days at a Time, or more than One Month during any Year.

Plan to be deposited at the Admiralty before Com-

LXXIII. Previously to the Trustees commencing any Work in, under, over, or across any tidal or navigable Water, the Trustees shall deposit at the Admiralty Office, Plans, Sections, and Working Drawings mencement of Work.

Drawings of the said Work for the Approval of the Admiralty, such Approval to be signified in Writing under the Hand of the Secretary of the Admiralty; and every such Work shall be constructed only in accordance with such Approval.

Where any tidal Water abstracted, same to be compensated for by dredging or otherwise.

LXXIV. Where the Trustees, by the Construction of Docks, Basins, or other Works, abstract or lessen any Back Water or tidal Water, the same shall be compensated for by the Trustees, by dredging or otherwise, to the Extent in Cubic Yards of the Amount of Water abstracted by the proposed Works from the tidal Action; and the Site of such dredging or deepening shall be approved of by the Admiralty, and shall be completed to their Satisfaction.

Works below High-water Mark not to be executed without Consent of the Admiralty.

LXXV. It shall not be lawful for the Trustees to deviate Riverward or Seaward from the Black Centre Line of Works on the Plan deposited at the Admiralty, or to construct in, over, under, through, or across any tidal or navigable Water any Work hereby authorized to be made, without the previous Consent of the Admiralty, to be signified in Writing under the Hand of the Secretary of the Admiralty, and then only according to such Plan and under such Restrictions and Regulations as the Admiralty may approve, such Approval to be signified as last aforesaid; and where any such Deviation or Work shall have been made or constructed, it shall not be lawful for the Trustees at any Time to alter or extend the same without obtaining, previously to making any such Alteration or Extension, the like Consent or Approval; and if any such Deviation or Work shall be commenced or completed contrary to the Provisions of this Act, it shall be lawful for the Admiralty to abate, alter, and remove the same, and to restore the Site thereof to its former Condition, at the Cost and Charge of the Trustees, and the Amount thereof shall be a Debt due from the Trustees to the Crown, and be recoverable accordingly with Costs of Suit.

Admiralty may cause local Survey to be made at Expense of Company.

LXXVI. If at any Time or Times it be deemed by the Admiralty expedient to order a local Survey and Examination of any Works of the Trustees in or affecting any tidal Water or navigable River, or of the intended Site thereof, the Trustees shall defray the Costs of every such local Survey and Examination, and the Amount thereof shall be a Debt due to Her Majesty from the Trustees, and be recoverable accordingly with Costs of Suit.

Works affecting tidal Waters abandoned, may be removed by Admiralty at LXXVII. If any Work to be constructed by the Trustees in or across any tidal Water or navigable River, or if any Portion of any such Work affecting any such Water or River or Access thereto be abandoned or suffered to fall into Disuse or Decay, the Admiralty may abate and remove the same, or such Part or Parts thereof as they at any any Time deem fit, and restore the Site thereof to its former Condition at the Cost of the Trustees, and the Amount thereof shall be a Debt due from the Trustees to the Crown, and be recoverable accordingly with Costs of Suit. Expense of Company.

LXXVIII. If any Persons working any Quarry, Mine, or Pit, or any Servant of the Trustees, or any other Person, except in the Execution of Works properly authorized, and so far only as is necessary in the due Execution of such Works, shall, without the previous Approval of the Admiralty (signified in Writing under the Hand of the Secretary of the Admiralty), cast or deposit, or cause, direct, or procure to be cast or deposited, any Ballast or Rubbish into the River Tawe, or any of the Tributaries thereof, or into the Harbour or Bay of Swansea, or in any Place or Shore where the same shall be liable to be washed into the said River Tawe, or into the Harbour or Bay of Swansea aforesaid, either by ordinary or high Tides, or by Storms or Land Floods, every Person so offending shall for every such Offence forfeit any Sum not exceeding Twenty Pounds over and besides all Expenses incurred in removing to a proper Place the Matters cast or deposited contrary to this Act, such Expenses to be recoverable in such Manner and with such Power of Commitment on Nonpayment thereof as in Cases of Penalties under this Act. Ballast and Rubbish not to be cast into River, Harbour, or Bay.

LXXIX. The new Cut shall not in any Manner be shut up or closed by Weirs or Gates, or in any other Manner, but shall at all Times be left free to the Scour of the River, and to the Flux and Reflux of the Tides, unless with the previous Approval in that Behalf of the Admiralty, to be signified as aforesaid. New Cut not to be closed by Gates, &c.

LXXX. Any Master, Pilot, or other Person having the Charge or Command of any Vessel shall not place or lay the same in the new Cut or in the Half-tide Basin alongside of any other Vessel, or in or across the Centre of the new Cut or the Half-tide Basin, so as to obstruct the free Navigation thereof; and if any Person shall so place any such Vessel, and do not, on being thereunto required by the Harbour-master, as soon as practicable remove such Vessel to a proper Place, every Person so offending shall for every such Offence forfeit any Sum not exceeding Five Pounds, and also any Sum not exceeding Twenty Shillings for every Hour that the Obstruction thereby occasioned remains after such Notice; and in case the Master or other Person having the Command of such Vessel do not on being so required duly remove such Vessel accordingly, the Harbour-master may remove the same, and the Expense of every such Removal shall be paid by the Master or other Person having the Command of such Vessel, and such Expenses may be recovered in like Manner as the Penalty. For keeping the Cut and Half-tide Basin clear.

LXXXI. If

Penalty on casting Anchor in River.

LXXXI. If the Master, Owner, or other Person having the Care or Command of any Vessel shall at any Time (except by Stress of Weather only) cast Anchor in any Part of the Harbour, every Person so offending shall forfeit and pay for every such Offence a Sum not exceeding Thirty Pounds nor less than Five Pounds, together with reasonable Costs, and the same may be recovered by Distress and Sale of so much of the Tackle, Apparel, or Furniture of such Ship or Vessel as shall be sufficient to answer the Penalty and Costs, or by any other Mode for Recovery of Penalties appointed by this Act.

Vessels may lie in single Tier at private Quays, subject to the Control of Harbour Master.

LXXXII. Subject to the Control of the Harbour-master, Vessels may lawfully lie in single Tier at any private Quay within the Limits of this Act: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall empower the Harbour-master to place or to interfere with the Berthage of any Vessel within the Beaufort Dock without the Consent of the Duke of Beaufort, his Heirs or Assigns.

Trustees to maintain a Channel to Port Tennant.

LXXXIII. The Trustees shall make and for ever maintain the Channel from the Pier Head to the Line of the Slag Bank at Port Tennant of such Width as that the same shall not at the Bottom of such Channel and in the narrowest Part thereof be less than One hundred Feet wide, and of such Depth as that the Channel from the Pier Head for a like Distance up the Bed of the River Tawe shall not be deeper than such first-mentioned Channel: Provided always, that the Trustees shall not be required to expend more than Two hundred Pounds in any One Year in so maintaining the Channel.

Trustees may use Sluices with the Consent of Owners.

LXXXIV. The Trustees may, with the Consent of the Owners thereof, make such Use as they think fit of any Reservoir, Sluice, or other Device for the Purpose of discharging any tidal or other Water, and thereby scouring out or cleansing the Harbour or any Part thereof.

Openings to be maintained in Bridges over River and Cut.

LXXXV. The Trustees shall for ever maintain in the Bridges erected over the River Tawe, near the Pottery, and at the Corporation Quay, and in the Bridge erected over the Cut, Openings or Swing Bridges, of Dimensions the same as or greater than the Openings at present existing in such several Bridges; and the Trustees shall superintend and regulate the same, and make such Byelaws, Rules, and Orders respecting such Bridges as seem to them expedient to protect the Traffic over the same, and also the Navigation of the River, Town Float, and new Cut.

Trustees to have a Right of Way the whole Length of the Canal.

LXXXVI. The Trustees shall have a free Passage on each Side of the Cut, the whole Length of the Cut, of the Breadth of Sixteen Feet from the Brink of the Cut on each Side thereof, as an open open and public Towing-path; and on the Western Side of the Cut the Trustees shall, in pursuance of an Agreement entered into between the old Trustees and Thomas Starling Benson Esquire, the Owner in Fee of the Soil thereof, have and be entitled to the public Carriage-road of the Breadth of Forty Feet, made by the old Trustees, extending from and dividing a Wharf belonging to the old Trustees, adjoining the Cuba Hotel, up to the Bridge across the Gates of the Pottery Dam, as an open and public Road or Carriageway, together with the Railway or Tramroad laid down on that Road by the old Trustees, and such Road and Railway or Tramroad, together with the above-mentioned Towing-paths, shall be under the Control, Regulation, and Management of the Trustees in like Manner as any other Part of the Harbour: Provided always, that the Proprietors and Occupiers of the Lands adjoining such Road and Towing-paths on each Side of the Cut shall have full Right, Power, and Authority of crossing and using such Road and Towing-paths for the Purpose of loading and unloading Goods, Wares, and Merchandise into and out of Vessels in the Cut, and for any other like Purposes, and may lay such Rails as they may require across and over such Railway, but on a Level therewith, subject to the Control and Regulation of the Harbour-master in like Manner as in any other Part of the Harbour.

Right of Way for Occupiers, &c.

LXXXVII. The Trustees from Time to Time may lay, place, and maintain along and across such Road, and over and along the Bridges and the Corporation Quay, and all other Lands, Roads, and Approaches belonging to or under the Regulation of the Trustees, such Rails, Tramplates, and Turntables, or other like Conveniences, as they deem necessary for the Purposes of the Harbour; and remove, alter, or vary all or any of such Railways, Tramroads, and Turntables, and permit the same to be used on such Terms and under such Regulations as they from Time to Time deem reasonable: Provided always, that nothing in this Act contained shall empower the Trustees to lay any Rails, Tramplates or Turntables on or across the before-mentioned Towing-paths, except where they are the Owners or Occupiers of the Land adjoining such Towing-paths: Provided also, that the Trustees shall allow the Owners or Occupiers of any Lands, Docks, or Works adjoining any Railways or Tramroads of the Trustees, to make all necessary and convenient Junctions with the same, but under the Superintendence and to the Satisfaction of the Engineer of the Trustees.

Trustees may lay down Rails, &c.

LXXXVIII. No Ferry shall be set up or used by any Persons, except the Trustees or Persons acting under their Authority, across the River Tawe or the Town Float within One Mile from the Bridge over the River Tawe near the Pottery; and if any other Person, except the Trustees or Persons acting under the Authority, shall maintain maintain and use any Vessel in ferrying or conveying for Hire any Cattle, Persons, or Things across the River Tawe or the Town Float within that Distance, or if any Person (except Foot Passengers for themselves only) make or use any Ford through the River within that Distance, every Person so offending shall for every such Offence forfeit and pay any Sum not exceeding Five Pounds.

Trustees to maintain Mumbles Lighthouse.

LXXXIX. The Trustees shall maintain the Mumbles Head Lighthouse, and keep a Light there, and be subject with respect to the same to the Superintendence and Regulation of the Trinity House, according to the Powers and Provisions of the recited Act of the Fourth and Fifth of King William the Fourth relating thereto.

Expenses of Lighthouse.

XC. The Trustees shall defray all the Costs, Charges, and Expenses of supporting and maintaining the Lighthouse and Light in good Condition out of the Rates or Dues granted by this Act, but without Prejudice to the Provisions of that Act of the Fourth and Fifth of King William the Fourth, authorizing the Trustees, in the Events therein specified, to collect not exceeding a Moiety of the Rates or Duties therein referred to.

Light Dues.

XCI. The Moiety which the Trustees may so collect shall be One Farthing per Ton on Vessels of Ten Tons Burden or upwards mooring in the Mumbles, or in the Mumbles Road, or in any Part of Swansea Bay or any Bay within the Port of Swansea, or resorting to any Part of Swansea Bay or any Bay within the Port of Swansea, or resorting to any Port, Creek, Harbour or Road between the Nass Point and Wormshead, or any other Bay, Road, Sound, Port, Creek or Harbour between an imaginary Line from the Nass Point in the County of Glamorgan to Horestone otherwise Horsedown Point in the County of Somerset, on the East, and an imaginary Line from Hartland Point in the County of Devon to the opposite Shore and Mainland at Leadstep Point near Manorbere in the County of Pembroke, on the West, and navigating the Bristol Channel or Severn Sea within those Limits; such Amount to be payable for every such mooring or resorting to or for every Voyage to or from such respective Place, or for passing by or for any Occasion of crossing and recrossing and using the Mumbles Light: Provided always, that the Trustees shall not demand such Dues in respect of Fishing Vessels or Vessels laden with Limestone.

Abolition of certain Dues and Fees of Duke of Beaufort.

XCII. In pursuance of any Agreement already or hereafter entered into for the Purpose and upon the Terms so agreed on, the Trustees at any Time after the Commencement of this Act may pay or secure, and the Duke of Beaufort, his Heirs or Assigns, may accept, any Sum in gross or Rentcharge, as an Equivalent for all the ancient customary Dues

Dues and Fees called Keelage and Moorage Dues, collected and levied or claimed by the Water Bailiff and Layer Keeper in respect of Vessels entering the River Tawe and Harbour of Swansea; and all the Petty Dues and Fees rendered in Kind, called Water Bailiff Dues, collected and levied or claimed by the Water Bailiff, in respect of Fish, Corn, and other Provisions and Things the Property of Persons not free of the Borough of Swansea, imported into the Borough or Harbour, and all the Estate, Right, and Interest of the Duke of Beaufort, his Heirs or Assigns, and such Officers therein; and upon such Equivalent being so paid or secured, all those Dues and Fees shall be abolished.

Abolition of certain Dues and Fees of the Corporation.

XCIII. In pursuance of any Agreement already or hereafter entered into for the Purpose and upon the Terms so agreed on, the Trustees at any Time after the Commencement of this Act may pay or secure and the Corporation may accept any Sum in gross or Rentcharge as an Equivalent for all the Moiety or Share of the Corporation of all the ancient customary Dues and Fees called Moorage and Keelage Dues, collected and levied or claimed by the Corporation or by the Portreeve or other Officer of the Borough (and usually collected with the like Dues payable to or claimed by the Water Bailiff and Layer Keeper) in respect of Vessels entering the River Tawe and Harbour of Swansea, and all the Estate, Right, and Interest of the Corporation and their Officer therein, and upon such Equivalent being so paid or secured the Entirety of those Dues and Fees shall be abolished.

Payment to Corporation.

XCIV. All Monies payable under this Act by the Trustees to the Corporation shall be paid to their Treasurer, and the Trustees shall not be answerable for the Application of any Money so paid.

Provision in event of Equivalent being by way of Rentcharge.

XCV. In case any such Equivalent be a Rentcharge, it shall be redeemable at any Time by the Trustees on Payment of a gross Sum equal to Twenty-five Times the yearly Amount of such Rentcharge, and shall be so redeemable by the Payment, either on the Thirtieth Day of June or the Thirty-first Day of December in any Year, of such gross Sum: Provided always, that the Party entitled to the Rentcharge shall not be bound to accept such gross Sum, unless the Trustees previously pay up all Arrears thereof.

Equivalent to Corporation to be subject to any Charges on the Dues.

XCVI. If the Equivalent payable to the Corporation for their Moiety of the Keelage and Moorage Dues be a Rentcharge, then such Rentcharge shall be charged (in the Hands of their Treasurer) with the Payment of all Sums of Money secured or charged thereon respectively by any Mortgage granted by the Corporation, or any Judgment or other Lien affecting the same; and if such Equivalent be be a gross Sum, then such Sum shall be applied by the Corporation in paying off all Sums charged on the said Moiety of Keelage and Moorage Dues.

Power to reborrow.

XCVII. Subject to the Provisions of this Act for the Reduction of the Debt of the Trustees, they may from Time to Time borrow again the whole or any Part of the Money by the recited Acts, or any of them, authorized to be borrowed, hereafter paid off, except any Sum paid off by means of any Sinking Fund under this Act.

Provisions of 10 & 11 Vict. c. 16. applicable to existing Mortgages.

XCVIII. The Provisions "with respect to the Mortgages to be executed by the Commissioners of the Commissioners Clauses Act, 1847," apply to the Mortgages granted by the old Trustees under the recited Acts or any of them, as if they were Mortgages granted by the Trustees under this Act.

Trustees may borrow additional Money on Mortgage of Tolls, &c.

XCIX. For the Purpose of enabling the Trustees to make, construct, and carry out the Improvements, Works, and Purposes by this Act authorized, and the Works incidental thereto respectively, they may from Time to Time, in addition to the Moneys borrowed under the recited Acts or any of them, or reborrowed under this Act in lieu of any Moneys paid off, borrow any Sum not exceeding Eighty thousand Pounds on Mortgage of the several Tolls, Rates, and Dues by this Act authorized, and in the Event of any Sum so borrowed being repaid otherwise than by a Sinking Fund the Trustees may again borrow the same, and so toties quoties.

Money borrowed for a certain Time, if not paid, to bear Interest at Five per Cent.

C. If the Trustees fix any Period for the Payment of any Principal Money borrowed under this Act, and at the Expiration of such Period omit to pay off the same, then such Principal Money shall from such Period bear Interest at the Rate of Five Pounds per Centum per Annum until paid, unless otherwise agreed upon.

Mortgages under recited Acts to have Priority.

CI. All Mortgages granted under the recited Acts or any of them, or granted under this Act, for securing Monies borrowed under those Acts or any of them, and reborrowed under this Act, shall have Priority over any other Mortgages granted under this Act, unless otherwise agreed and expressed in the Mortgage for which the Priority might be claimed.

Sinking Fund to be set apart for the Payment of Mortgages.

CII. The Trustees shall, from and after the Thirtieth Day of June One thousand eight hundred and fifty-nine, set apart and appropriate annually out of their Rates, Dues, and Tolls, as a Sinking Fund, to be applied in paying off the Principal Sums from Time to Time secured on Mortgage under the recited Acts and this Act, a Sum not less than One thousand Pounds during a Period of Five Years thence next ensuing; and from and after the Thirtieth Day of June One thousand eight hundred and sixty-four, the Trustees shall set apart and appropriate annually out of their Rates, Dues, and Tolls for the like Purpose a Sum not less than One thousand five hundred Pounds, together with any Amount of Surplus Revenue which may remain in the Hands of the Trustees in any Year after One thousand eight hundred and sixty-four.

Proviso as to accruing Interest.

CIII. Provided always, That in order to secure the regular Payment of Interest half-yearly, which shall from Time to Time be deemed due on the Thirtieth Day of June and the Thirty-first Day of December in every Year, the Treasurer shall, out of the Swansea Harbour Fund, on the last Day of every Month reserve and place to a distinct Account, entitled Accruing Interest on Mortgages Account, One Twelfth Part of the Interest upon the total Amount of the Mortgage Debt of the Trustees, and in case there shall not be sufficient Funds in his Hands, then the whole of the Amount that shall be in his Hands; and shall transfer and set aside the Deficiency out of the First Moneys that may come into his Hands on account of the Swansea Harbour Fund; and no other Payment whatever shall be made by him from such Fund until the required Amount shall be set aside in manner aforesaid.

Appointment of Receiver for Mortgages.

CIV. The Mortgagees under the recited Acts and this Act respectively may enforce the Payment of the Arrears of Interest due to them by the Appointment of a Receiver, and the Amount of Debt to authorize a Requisition for a Receiver shall be Five thousand Pounds.

Trustees to increase Tolls if Income insufficient.

CV. If at any Time it appear to the Trustees that the Rates, Dues, and Tolls levied during the preceding Half Year ending on the Thirty-first Day of December or the Thirtieth Day of June, after setting aside the required Amount for a Sinking Fund, are insufficient to meet the Payment of the Interest upon the Money borrowed by the Trustees, together with the current Expenses for Salaries, and Maintenance and Preservation of the Harbour, the Trustees shall increase the Rates, Dues, and Tolls to such an Amount, within the Limits of this Act, as they think sufficient to make good such Deficiency, and to meet the prospective Expenditure of the next Half Year calculated on the Trade of the preceding Half Year: Provided always, that the Trustees shall not at any Time increase the Rates, Dues, and Tolls, or any of them, beyond the Amount therein limited.

Trustees not bound by Trusts affecting Mortgages.

CVI. The Trustees shall not be bound to see to the Execution of any Trust whatsoever, expressed, implied, or constructive, to which a Mortgage issued under this Act may be subject, and the Receipt of the the Party in whose Name a Mortgage stands in the Registry of Mortgages, or if it stands in the Names of more Persons than One, the Receipt of all the Persons named in that Register, shall from Time to Time be a sufficient Discharge to the Trustees for any Interest or other Sum payable in respect of such Mortgage, notwithstanding any Trusts to which such Mortgage is then subject, and whether or not the Trustees have had Notice of such Trusts, and the Trustees shall not be bound to see to the Application of any Money paid upon such Receipt.

Application of Money borrowed.

CVII. All Moneys borrowed under the Powers of this Act, for the Improvements, Works, and Purposes by this Act authorized, shall be applied in discharging all Costs, Charges, and Expenses whatsoever of and incidental to the obtaining and passing this Act, and in Payment of the Sum of Twelve hundred Pounds and Interest herein-after mentioned, and in paying certain Moneys due from the old Trustees, severally specified in Schedule (C.) to this Act annexed, together with Interest thereon from the First Day of January One thousand eight hundred and fifty-three, and in executing the Works by this Act authorized, and in otherwise carrying this Act into execution, and in Payment to the Duke of Beaufort, his Heirs or Assigns, or to the Corporation, of any Sums of Money as an Equivalent for the Abolition of any of the said Keelage and Moorage Dues and Water Bailiff's Dues, and in paying off the Moneys borrowed under the Authority of the recited Acts or this Act.

Monies to be carried to the Credit of Swansea Harbour Fund.

CVIII. All the Moneys of the old Trustees at the Commencement of this Act, and all Rates, Dues, Damages, Penalties, and other Sums of Money and Income whatsoever received by or for the Use or Benefit of the Trustees shall be paid to the Credit of "The Swansea Harbour Fund."

Charges on Swansea Harbour Fund.

CIX. The Interest of all Moneys borrowed under the recited Acts and remaining due at the Commencement of this Act, and of all Moneys borrowed under this Act, and all Moneys paid or expended by the Trustees for or with reference to the Execution of this Act, or any of the Provisions or Purposes thereof, and all Debts, Liabilities, and Engagements whatsoever incurred and entered into respectively by the old Trustees and the Trustees respectively, for or with reference to the Execution of the recited Acts and this Act respectively, and all other Costs, Charges, Losses, Damages, and Expenses whatsoever paid or incurred by the Trustees with reference to the Execution of this Act, or of any of the Provisions or Purposes thereof, shall be borne and paid by and out of the Swansea Harbour Fund.

CX. The

Application of Swansea Harbour Fund.

CX. The Moneys from Time to Time carried to the Credit of the Swansea Harbour Fund shall be applied, firstly, in paying the Interest on Moneys borrowed under the recited Acts and this Act; secondly, in maintaining and regulating the Harbour and the Navigation thereof; thirdly, in Payment of any Rentcharges secured under this Act by way of Equivalent to the Duke of Beaufort, his Heirs or Assigns, or to the Corporation; fourthly, in Payment of the Sums by this Act required to be set apart to form a Sinking Fund; and the Surplus, if any, shall be applied for such of the Purposes of this Act as the Trustees from Time to Time think fit.

Auditor to be appointed.

CXI. The Trustees shall, at their First Meeting to be held in every Year or at some other convenient Time, appoint One Person, not being a Trustee, to be Auditor of the Accounts of the Trustees, and the Person so appointed Auditor shall be subject to the like Disqualification or Disability as is by this Act provided with respect to Persons appointed Trustees, and the Trustees may pay such Auditor reasonable Remuneration for his Time and Trouble.

Dredging Vessels.

CXII. The Trustees from Time to Time may build, purchase, hire, provide, maintain, and use such Vessels, to be worked by Steam or otherwise at their Discretion, for dredging, scouring, cleansing, and deepening the Entrance to the Harbour and the Bed of the Harbour and the Navigation of the River Tawe, and such other Vessels, Machinery, and Apparatus for those Purposes as they think fit.

Steam Engines, &c.

CXIII. The Trustees may from Time to Time build, purchase, hire, provide, and use all such Steam Engines, Piling Engines, Diving Bells, Steam Tugs, Ballast and Rubbish Lighters, and other Machinery, Implements, Apparatus, and Vessels as they think necessary for any of the Purposes of this Act, and may make such Charges for the Use of the same respectively as they from Time to Time think fit.

Trustees may provide Lamps.

CXIV. The Trustees may from Time to Time provide and maintain such Lamps and Lights, in such Places and in such Manner as they shall deem necessary for well and sufficiently lighting the said Harbour, Quays, and Wharfs, and may contract with any Person for lighting the said Lamps.

Penalty for breaking Lamps, &c.

CXV. If any Person shall wilfully take away or damage any of the Lamps or Lights to be put up by virtue of this Act, or any of the Irons, Posts, or Furniture thereof, or wilfully extinguish the Light of any such Lamps or any such Lights, every Person so offending shall forfeit for every such Offence the Sum of Forty Shillings; and if any Person shall accidentally break or otherwise damage any of the said said Lamps or Lights, or the Irons, Posts, or any other Furniture thereof, and shall not immediately upon Demand make Satisfaction for the Damage done thereto, then and in that Case it shall be lawful for any One Justice to award such Sum of Money to be paid by way of Satisfaction for such Damages as he shall think reasonable, and the same shall be deemed a Penalty imposed by this Act.

Byelaws as to Ballast.

CXVI. The Trustees may from Time to Time make such Byelaws as they think fit, for regulating the Removal and Disposal within the Harbour of all Ballast brought by Vessels entering the Harbour, and for regulating the Supply of Ballast to Vessels in the Harbour: Provided always, that such Byelaws shall not extend to or include the Limits of the Undertaking of the Swansea Dock Company, except with the Consent of that Company.

Ballast to be brought to Sides of Vessels and thrown in immediately.

CXVII. All Ballast supplied to any Vessel in the Harbour, unless such Vessel be lying at any Wharf or Quay, shall be brought in a proper and efficient Ballast Lighter to the Side of such Vessel, and thence immediately thrown into such Vessel by the Crew or other Persons.

Penalty on Masters of Lighters improperly discharging or taking up Ballast.

CXVIII. If any Master of any Ballast Lighter or other Person employed to receive or take Ballast from any Vessel, or to remove or discharge any Ballast, or to take up or dredge for Ballast in the Harbour, discharge or deposit the Ballast at or take up any Ballast in or from any other Part of the Harbour than such Part thereof as the Trustees from Time to Time lawfully direct, every such Master or other Person shall for every such Offence forfeit any Sum not exceeding Ten Pounds.

Penalty for carting Ballast or Rubbish without a Portsail.

CXIX. If any Person cast or unload into or out of any Vessel in the Harbour, or if any Person having the Command of any Vessel in the Harbour knowingly permit to be cast or unloaded into or out of the same, any Goods, Minerals, Ballast, Rubbish, or other Materials, and such respective Person have not a Wooden Stage or Portsail sufficiently large and properly fastened during the whole Time of such casting or unloading from the Vessel into or out of which such Goods, Minerals, Ballast, Rubbish, or other Materials are to be cast or unloaded, to the upper Edge or highest Part of the Wharf or Quay, or to the Vessel into, from, or upon which such Ballast or Rubbish is to be cast or unloaded, and so as to prevent any such Goods, Minerals, Ballast, Rubbish, or other Materials from falling into the Harbour, every such Person so offending shall for every such Offence forfeit any Sum not exceeding Five Pounds.

Occupiers of Wharfs not to allow

CXX. If any Owner, Tenant, or Occupier of any Wharf or Quay adjoining the Harbour permit any Ballast or Rubbish cast or placed thereon thereon to be or remain on and within Five Yards of the Edge of such Wharf or Quay, or permit any Ballast or Rubbish to be cast or placed in or so near to any Watercourse upon or adjoining such Wharf or Quay as that such Ballast or Rubbish, or any Part thereof, is or may be washed into the Harbour to the Prejudice thereof, every Person so offending shall for every such Offence forfeit any Sum not exceeding Five Pounds.

Ballast to remain near Edge of Wharf.

CXXI. Whereas the Trustees are by this Act empowered to purchase Lands for the Deposit of Ballast, and to form Railways to and Communications with such Lands: The Trustees may from Time to Time after the Commencement of this Act fix the Rates to be paid in different Parts of the Harbour for the Removal of Ballast from and into Vessels in the Harbour, and such Ballast Rates shall be payable by the Master or Owner of every Vessel which discharges or loads any Ballast in the Harbour to the Trustees in respect of the Vessels into or out of which such Ballast is loaded or discharged, and shall be recoverable by the Trustees as other Rates in respect of Vessels are by this Act recoverable: Provided always, that the Trustees shall only levy such Sums for the Removal, carrying, and Deposit of Ballast as may be required to repay the Expense of purchasing such Land and removing the Ballast.

Trustees to fix Ballast Rates.

CXXII. If the Master or Crew of any Vessel, so as to occasion any unnecessary or unreasonable Delay therein, neglect to take in or cast out the Ballast or Rubbish of or for such Vessel from or to any Cart, Waggon, Truck, or other Apparatus, or Ballast Lighter employed to receive or supply Ballast or Rubbish from or to such Vessel, the Master of such Vessel shall for every such Offence forfeit any Sum not exceeding Forty Shillings for every Hour during which such Cart, Waggon, Truck, or other Apparatus or Ballast Lighter is by or in consequence of such Neglect so delayed.

Penalty for delaying Ballast Lighter, Carts, &c.

CXXIII. Every Constable having just Cause to suspect that any Felony has been or is about to be committed on board any Vessel in the Harbour may enter at all Times, as well by Night as by Day, in and upon every such Vessel, and search the same, and take all necessary Measures for the effectual Prevention or Detection of all Felonies which he has just Cause to suspect have been or are about to be committed, and apprehend and detain all Persons suspected to be concerned in such Felonies, and also all Property suspected to be feloniously stolen, and produce the same before some Justice.

Power of Constables to go on board Vessels.

CXXIV. The Trustees may from Time to Time appoint and license such a number of Persons to be Meters and Weighers within the Harbour as the Trustees think sufficient.

Power to appoint Meters and Weighers.

Rates on Shipping, as in Schedule (A.)

CXXV. The Trustees from Time to Time may demand and take, in respect of all Vessels of the Burden of Ten Tons and upwards by Admeasurement, entering or leaving the Harbour, the several Rates on Shipping respectively specified in the Schedule (A.) to this Act annexed, and those Rates shall be payable from the Commencement of this Act.

Dues on Goods in Float, &c. as in Schedule (B.)

CXXVI. The Trustees may from Time to Time demand and take, in respect of all Goods loaded into or discharged from all Vessels entering the Town Float or Half-tide Basin, the several Rates on Goods respectively specified in the Schedule (B.) to this Act annexed, and those Rates shall be payable from the Commencement of this Act.

Rates on Goods outside Float, &c.

CXXVII. The Trustees may from Time to Time demand and take in respect of all Goods, except British Copper Ores, loaded into or discharged from Vessels lying or being in any Part of the Harbour other than the Town Float and Half-tide Basin, Two Thirds of the Rates on Goods respectively specified in the Schedule (B.); and in respect of British Copper Ores loaded into or discharged from Vessels lying and being in any Part of the Harbour other than the Town Float or Half-tide Basin, the Trustees may demand and take the Rate of One Penny Halfpenny per Ton, and those Tolls shall be payable from the Commencement of this Act: Provided always, that the Trustees shall not demand or take in respect of any Goods shipped or unshipped into or from any Vessel within the Limits of Port Tennant as by this Act defined, and which shall enter Port Tennant by or through the present Entrance thereto in Fabian's Bay, more than One Half Part of the Rates which may for the Time being be demanded and taken under the Powers of this Act for Goods of a like Nature when shipped or unshipped into or from any Vessel within the Town Float or Half-tide Basin.

Proviso as to Half Rates at Port Tennant.

Limits of Port Tennant.

CXXVIII. The Limits of Port Tennant, for the Purposes of this Act, are all those several Fields, Pieces or Parcels of Land or Ground and Sea Shore formerly belonging to the late George Tennant Esquire, deceased, or in the Occupation of him or his Under-tenants or Lessees, and now belonging to or partly held on Lease by Henry Tennant and Charles Tennant Esquires, the Sons of the said George Tennant deceased, or in the Occupation of them or their Undertenants or Lessees, which said Fields, Pieces, or Parcels of Land or Ground are commonly called and known by the Name of Port Tennant, and are bounded on the North by the old Turnpike Road leading from Swansea to Briton Ferry, on the South by the Sea Shore of Swansea Bay, on the East by the Two Stones which mark the Boundary Line between the said Lands called Port Tennant and the Lands of the said George Earl of Jersey called the Crwmlyn Burrows, and on the West by Fabian's Bay

Bay in Swansea Harbour, and by certain Lands the Property of Capel Hanbury Leigh Esquire.

Dock Company to pay Half Tolls.

CXXIX. The Trustees shall not demand or take in respect of any Goods shipped or unshipped into or from any Vessel within the Docks and Works of the Swansea Dock Company more than One Half Part of the Rates which may for the Time being be demanded and taken under the Powers of this Act for Goods of a like Nature when shipped and unshipped into or from any Vessel within the Town Float or Half-tide Basin.

Providing for a rateable variation of certain Rates affecting the Copper Trade and Coal Trade.

CXXX. If any One or more of the several and respective Rates which the Trustees are by this Act authorized to demand and take in respect of the following Goods, videlicet, Copper, old Copper, Yellow and Copper Metals, Brass, Foreign or Colonial Copper Ore, British Copper Ore, Lead, Regulus of Copper, Spelter, Tin, Tin Plates, Zinc, Zinc Ores, Coal, Coke, and Patent Fuel, shall at any Time or Times, or from Time to Time hereafter, be varied under the Powers of this Act or of any Act incorporated herewith, all and every of the several and respective Rates demandable or payable in respect of all such Goods respectively shall at the same Time be varied rateably, and in the same Proportion, so that the Rates for the Time being and from Time Time demandable or payable in respect of all such Goods respectively may at all Times bear the same relative Proportion to each other.

Rates to be charged for the Use of Lock from Canal.

CXXXI. The Trustees may demand, in respect of all Goods entering or leaving the Town Float by the Lock from the Swansea Canal, such Rates as they shall from Time to Time appoint, but not exceeding the Rate of Twopence per Ton.

No Rates on Goods removed from one Part of the Harbour to another.

CXXXII. Provided always, That the Trustees shall not demand any Rates on Goods in respect of being transported or removed from one Part of the Harbour to another.

Yachts, Pleasure Boats, &c. exempt from Rates and Dues.

CXXXIII. Provided always, That the Trustees shall not demand or take any Rate or Due on any Pilot Boat or on any Boat or Yacht used for the Purposes of Pleasure, or on any Passage Boat for Passengers only with their ordinary Luggage, or on any Boat in the Fish Trade which carries fresh Fish only into the Harbour, or upon any Vessel carrying Limestone into the Harbour: Provided always, that the Harbour-master may refuse to allow any Vessel in respect of which such Exemption is claimed or allowed to enter the Town Float or Half-tide Basin.

Further Tonnage Rates pay-

CXXXIV. If any Vessel using the said Town Float or Basin, whether the same shall previously have paid or been liable to pay Tonnage able by Vessels remaining in Float, or Half-tide Basin beyond 30 Days.

Tonnage Rates or not, remain in the Town Float or Basin longer than Thirty Days, the Trustees may demand for every such Vessel a further Rate of Twopence per Ton for every Week, and so in proportion for any Period less than a Week, during which such Vessel remains in the Town Float or Basin beyond Thirty Days, in addition to the Tonnage Rates payable by virtue of this Act: Provided always, that such additional Rates shall not be payable for any Vessel lying or being within the Beaufort Dock, or prevented from leaving the Town Float or Half-tide Basin by an Embargo or Stress of Weather, or lying or being in single Tier at the Quays or Wharves within the Half-tide Basin belonging to the Duke of Beaufort, his Heirs or Assigns.

Exemption for Vessels driven into the Harbour by Stress of Weather.

CXXXV. The Trustees shall not demand or take any Rate or Due on any Vessel driven into the Harbour by Stress of Weather or other sufficient Cause, and not loading or unloading within the Harbour any Part of the Cargo thereof, or unloading the same only for the Purpose of Repairs to such Vessel, and not remaining in the Harbour more than Four Tides: Provided always, that if such Vessel remain in the Harbour exceeding Four Tides, the Trustees may demand and take in respect of such Vessel One Half of the full Tonnage Rates by this Act authorized: Provided also, that the Harbour-master may refuse to allow any Vessel in respect of which full Rates may not be demanded and payable under the Provisions of this Act to enter the Town Float or Half-tide Basin.

Trustees to maintain Toll Houses, Gates, &c.

CXXXVI. The Trustees from Time to Time may erect and maintain Toll Gates upon or adjoining the Bridges erected over the River Tawe near the Pottery, and at or near the Corporation Quay, and such Toll Houses and other Conveniences near or adjoining to the Toll Gates as they think proper, and may maintain any existing Toll Gates, Toll Houses, and Conveniences there, and may alter or remove any such Toll Gates, Toll Houses, and Conveniences.

Bridge Tolls.

CXXXVII. The Trustees, by their Lessee or Collector, may, after the Commencement of this Act, demand and take at every or any such Gates, before any Person on Foot, or any Horse, Cattle, Calf, Sheep, Lamb, or Pig, or any Cart or Carriage, be permitted to pass on or over those Bridges, or either of them, or through the Toll Gate, such Tolls as the Trustees at their Meetings from Time to Time direct, not exceeding the respective Sums following; (that is to say,)

Power to discontinue the levying of Bridge Tolls.

CXXXVIII. The Trustees shall from Time to Time, when the Revenue of the Trust will admit, vary, reduce, or wholly discontinue taking and may resume the taking of all or any of the said Bridge Tolls for such Time as they think proper, provided that the Tolls do not in any Case exceed the Amount authorized by this Act to be taken, and provided also, that such Tolls be at all Times charged equally to all Persons and in respect of all Animals at both the said Bridges across the River Tawe: Provided always, that it shall not be compulsory on the Trustees to reduce or discontinue taking any of such Bridge Tolls without the Consent of Three Fourths of the Trustees first had and obtained at a Special Meeting convened for that Purpose, and of which Meeting Twenty-one Days Notice shall be given by Advertisement in some Newspaper published or circulated in the Town of Swansea: Provided also, that the Number of Trustees present at such Meeting, and consenting as aforesaid, shall in no Case be less than Twelve.

Not compulsory to reduce Tolls without Consent of Three Fourths of Trustees present.

Horses, &c. on paying Toll may return free.

CXXXIX. In case the full Toll have been paid for the passing of any Person or Animal over any of the Bridges, such Person or Animal (except Beasts drawing any other Carriage, or Beasts drawing any Vehicle carrying Passengers or Goods for Hire or Reward, or Horses travelling for Hire) shall, on a Ticket being produced denoting such Payment, be permitted to repass over the same or any other of the Bridges once only on the same Day in respect of such full Toll so paid.

Horses drawing different Carriages to pay each Time of passing.

CXL. In case any Beast returning on the same Day over any of the Bridges shall draw any other Carriage than the one in which it drew when the Toll was paid, or in case any Beast returning on the same Day draw any Vehicle carrying Passengers or Goods for Hire or Reward, Toll shall again be paid in respect of such other Carriage or in respect of drawing such Vehicle, and the Toll shall in every such Case be paid for every second or other Time both of passing and repassing over the Bridges, in like Manner as if no Toll had been previously paid.

Ticket to be delivered to Persons paying Toll.

CXLI. Upon Payment of the Toll the Receiver thereof shall deliver gratis to the Payer thereof or Person paying such Toll a Note or Ticket denoting such Payment.

Table of Tolls to be set up, &c.

CXLII. Provided always, That a printed Table of the Tolls shall be affixed on the Toll Houses or Toll Gates, and the Trustees, their Lessee or Collector, (except in the Case of a malicious Removal or defacing of such Board,) shall not demand or take any Toll in respect of any Person or Animal but during such Time as such Table of Tolls remains so fixed.

Royal Family exempted from Toll.

CXLIII. Her Majesty or any Member of the Royal Family, or any Horses or Carriages attending Her Majesty or any of the Royal Family, or returning therefrom, shall be exempt from Toll.

General Exemption from Toll.

CXLIV. Toll shall not be taken for any Beast employed in conveying or guarding Mails of Letters and Expresses under the Authority of Her Majesty's Postmaster General, either when so employed, or when returning from such Employment; or for any Soldiers upon their March or upon Duty, or for any Animal attending them, with their Arms and Baggage, or returning from such Employment; or for any Beast employed in conveying any Ordnance, Barrack or Commissariat or other Public Stores of or belonging to Her Majesty or for the Use of Her Majesty's Forces; or for any Beast travelling with Vagrants sent by legal Passes, or any Prisoner in Custody under any legal Warrant; or for any Officer of the Customs when in the Execution of his Duty; or for any Militia or Volunteers upon their March or upon Duty, or going to or returning from the Place appointed for and on the Days of Exercise, or for any Horse furnished by or for or belonging to any Corps of Yeomanry or Volunteer Cavalry, and ridden by a Yeoman or Volunteer in going to or returning from the Place appointed for and on the Days of Exercise, he being in the Uniform of his Corps, and having his Arms, Furniture, and Accoutrements according to the Regulations provided for such Corps at the Time of claiming such Exemptions; or for any Animal carrying or conveying any Person to or from any Election of a Knight of the Shire to serve in Parliament for the County of Glamorgan, or for the Borough of Swansea, on any Day of such Election, or on a Sunday to or from his usual Place of Worship.

Penalty on improperly claiming Exemption.

CXLV. If any Person claim and take the Benefit, wholly or in part, of any Exemption from Toll under this Act, not being entitled to the same, every Person so offending shall for every such Offence forfeit and pay any Sum not exceeding Five Pounds.

CXLVI. If

Penalty on evading Toll.

CXLVI. If any Person forcibly go upon any of the Bridges without Payment of the Toll on Demand made by any Person empowered to demand the same, or fail to pay the Toll on such Demand, or in any Manner wilfully evade the Payment of the Toll or any Part thereof, or if any Person having the Care of any Animal upon either of the Bridges, or passing through the Toll Gate, fail to pay the proper Toll, or wilfully or fraudulently go upon the Bridge or pass the Toll Gate with any Animal without Payment of Toll, or with Intent to avoid Payment of Toll take off any Beast from any Vehicle, and having passed through the Toll Gate put on an additional Beast to any Vehicle, or cause any such Offence to be committed, every Person so offending shall for every such Offence forfeit and pay any Sum not exceeding Forty Shillings.

Lessees or Persons may collect Tolls.

CXLVII. While any of the Tolls are let, and the Lessee thereof duly pays his Rent and observes the Conditions and Agreements of the letting to him, but not further or otherwise, he or his Agent may occupy and enjoy the Toll Houses at which the Tolls so let are to be collected, with the Appurtenances, for the Purpose of collecting such Tolls, and may demand and take the Tolls so let, with the like Powers for Recovery thereof, to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever, as any Collector of the Tolls appointed by the Trustees may by virtue of this Act be authorized and empowered to demand, take, and recover the same, and shall be subject to the Regulations of this Act, and to the same Pains, Penalties, Forfeitures, Actions, and Prosecutions as any Collector of the Tolls appointed in pursuance of this Act.

Penalty on Collector, &c. taking greater or less Toll than allowed.

CXLVIII. If any Lessee or his Agent demand and take, or cause to be demanded and taken, from any Person any Toll not by this Act authorized, or a greater or less Toll than so authorized and directed by the Trustees to be taken, every such Person so offending shall for every such Offence forfeit and pay any Sum not exceeding Five Pounds, and the Lessee's Contract for renting the Tolls shall be vacated if the Trustees so think fit; and if any Collector, not being the Lessee or his Agent, so offend, every such Person so offending shall for every such Offence forfeit and pay any Sum not exceeding Forty Shillings: Provided always, that if the Justice before whom the Matter of Complaint is heard be of opinion that the Offender had probable Grounds for such Demand or taking, such Justice may, as he thinks fit, either mitigate the Penalty or wholly exonerate the Offender therefrom.

Penalty for damaging or committing Nuisance on Bridges, &c.

CXLIX. If any Person, without the Sanction of the Trustees, moor or fasten any Vessel or other Thing to the Bridges or the Works thereof, or any Part thereof, or by any Means wilfully obstruct the Passage over the Bridges or the Approaches thereto, or Footways or Causeways thereof, on any Part thereof respectively, or if any Person wilfully remove or injure any Toll House, Toll Gate, Post, Board, Table of Tolls, Lamp, Lamp Post, Lamp Iron, Rail, Fence, Slate, or other Work or Convenience put up or maintained by the Trustees, or by virtue of this Act, upon, at, or near the Bridges, Toll Gates, and Toll Houses, and the Works thereof, and the Approaches thereto, or any Part thereof respectively, or wilfully obliterate or deface any of the Inscriptions, Letters, Figures, or Marks thereon; or if any Person upon any Part of such Bridges or Approaches draw any Tree or Piece of Timber or any Stone otherwise than upon a Wheel Carriage, or suffer any Tree or Piece of Timber conveyed upon a Wheel Carriage to drag thereon to the Prejudice thereof, or wilfully drive any Vehicle upon, along, or against or otherwise injure any Footway or Causeway thereof, or turn loose or suffer to stray or remain any Beast of Burden or Draught, Cattle, or Swine, or wheel any Carriage, Truck, or Wheelbarrow on any Footway or Causeway thereof, or ride on the Shafts or on any other Part of any Vehicle or any Horse drawing the same without Reins, or some other Person on Foot for driving the same, or being on Horseback or driving any Vehicle, and meeting any Vehicle or Person on Horseback, shall not keep his Horse or Carriage to the Near Side, or make any Bonfire, or let off or throw any Firework, or play at Football or any other Game, to the Annoyance of any Passenger, or unnecessarily leave any Vehicle, either with or without any Beast of Draught harnessed thereto, or convey any Thing on Horseback without placing such Thing so that the same or any Part thereof shall not project more than Fifteen Inches from the Side of such Beast, so as not in any Manner to impede the Passage of any Person, Animal, or Vehicle, or driving any Vehicle, wilfully or carelessly damage any Posts or Stones, or drive the Wheel of any Carriage against the same, or lay any Thing to the Prejudice, Annoyance, or Interruption of any Persons passing, or if any Person cause any such Offence to be committed, every Person so offending or causing any such Offences shall for every such Offence forfeit and pay a Sum not exceeding Forty Shillings, and shall also pay to the Trustees full Satisfaction for the Damage so done, which Damage shall be ascertained by the Justice by whom such Offender is convicted of the Offence, and shall be levied and recovered in like Manner as the Penalty.

Penalties on Toll Collectors.

CL. Every Collector who commits any of the following Offences shall for every such Offence forfeit and pay a Sum not exceeding Ten Pounds; (that is to say,)

If he omit to place his Christian and Surname, painted on a Board in legible Characters, in the Front or some other conspicuous Part of the Toll House or Toll Gate immediately on his coming on Duty,

Duty, each of the Letters of such Name to be at least Two Inches in Length, and of a Breadth in proportion, and painted in Black Letters on a White Ground, and continue the same so placed during the whole Time he is upon such Duty:

If he refuse to tell his Christian Name and Surname to any Person who paid or tendered the Toll demanded of him, or if he give as his Name a false Name to any such Person:

If he knowingly and wilfully demand or take a Toll from any Person exempt from the Payment thereof:

If, upon the legal Toll being paid or tendered, he unnecessarily detain or wilfully hinder any Passenger, Animal, or Vehicle from passing over either of the Bridges or through either of the Toll Gates:

If he make use of any scurrilous or abusive Language to any Passenger or to any Officer of the Trustees:

If he omit to maintain a sufficient Gas or Oil Light in front of the Toll House or Toll Gate from Sunset to Sunrise.

Penalty on obstructing Collectors.

CLI. If any Person assault, hinder, or molest any Lessee or other Collector of Tolls employed in the Execution of this Act while in the Performance of his Duty, every Person so offending shall for every such Offence forfeit and pay a Sum not exceeding Five Pounds.

Power to lease Rates, &c.

CLII. The Trustees may lease any of the Rates, Dues, and Tolls by this Act authorized at such Rents and upon such Terms and Conditions as are agreed upon between the Trustees and the Persons taking the same, provided that no such Lease be granted for longer than Three Years, without any Covenant to renew at the Expiration of the Term, and the Lessees of such Rates and Dues, and such Persons as they appoint to collect and receive the same, shall, during the Continuance of the Lease, be deemed Collectors thereof, and shall have the same Power and Authority for collecting and receiving the same as if they had been appointed for that Purpose by the Trustees:

Lessees to be deemed Collectors.

Notice to be given.

Provided always, that public Notice of the Intention to let the Rates and Dues, or any Part thereof, shall be given by the Clerk, by Advertisement in some Newspaper published or circulated in Swansea, at least Fourteen Days prior to any Meeting at which the same are proposed to be let.

Power of Re-entry.

CLIII. In case any of the Rates and Dues be demised to any Person, and such Lessee fail to perform the Covenants or Conditions of his Lease thereof, or in case the Rent thereby reserved, or any Part thereof, be in arrear for Seven Days next after any of the Days on which the same ought to be paid, or in case any such Lease in any Manner become void, then and in any such Case Two Justices, upon Application by the Trustees or the Clerk, may, by Warrant under their Hands and Seals, after having summoned the Lessee to show Cause why a Warrant shall not be issued for the Purposes herein-after mentioned, order any Constable to remove such Lessee and all other Persons from the Collection of such Rates and Dues, and to put the Trustees or their new Lessee or Collector into possession, and thereupon such Lease shall be absolutely void, save as to the Covenants and Agreements for Payment of Rent thereby reserved, or other unperformed or broken Obligations, Covenants, or Agreements on the Lessee's Part.

Trustees to license and regulate Pilots.

CLIV. The Trustees may from Time to Time license, regulate, and appoint such Number of proper Persons to act as Pilots of and from the Harbour as they think necessary, and remove every such Person at their Pleasure, and also fix the Rates of Pilotage to be paid to the Pilots as the Trustees from Time to Time deem just; and if any Person act as a Pilot within or about the Harbour without being so licensed, every Person so offending shall for every such Offence forfeit and pay a Sum not exceeding Twenty Pounds.

Trustees to examine Persons offering themselves as Pilots.

CLV. Before appointing as a Pilot any Person who offers himself to be admitted as Pilot for the Harbour, the Trustees shall, by Examination and such other Means as they think proper, inquire and satisfy themselves as to his Skill and Fitness for the Office.

Licences how to be issued.

CLVI. Every Licence shall be given under the Common Seal of the Trustees, and every Person so licensed shall be deemed qualified to exercise the Occupation of Pilot within the Harbour, and every such Licence shall continue in force for such Period as the Trustees fix, but not exceeding Twelve Months after granting the same.

Trustees to make Orders, &c. for Pilots.

CLVII. The Trustees may from Time to Time make such Orders, Rules, and Regulations as they may think proper for the Government and Direction of the Pilots of the Port of Swansea, and every Person so licensed as a Pilot shall be subject to the Provisions of this Act, and to such Orders, Rules, and Regulations.

Masters of Vessels Inward bound refusing to take Pilots to pay full Pilotage.

CLVIII. In case the Master or Commander of any Vessel inward-bound to the Harbour refuse to take on board and employ the first or only licensed Pilot of the Port who offers his Services outside of the Harbour, or as soon as such Pilot can safely come alongside of such Vessel, such Master or Commander shall pay to the Pilot who so first or only offers his Services, and is so refused, the full Pilotage according to the Rates fixed by the Trustees to be paid, as if he had been received and employed in piloting such Vessel into the Harbour.

CLIX. If

Pilot Boat running before any Vessel to be entitled to Rates.

CLIX. If any Boat belonging to a licensed Pilot of the Port run before any Vessel not having a licensed Pilot of the Port on Board, for the Purpose of directing the Course of such Vessel until a Pilot can be put on board, the Pilot of the Port so put on board, and the Pilot of the Port to whom such Boat belongs, shall be entitled to the Pilotage proportionably, and according to the Circumstances of the Case.

Compensation to Pilots for extraordinary Assistance.

CLX. In case any Vessel be met with in Distress by any licensed Pilot of the Port, and stand in need of and receive from him any extraordinary Assistance, then the Compensation to be made to the Pilot shall be determined according to the Circumstances of the Case by any One Justice acting in and for the Borough of Swansea; and if any Agreement for such extraordinary Assistance at any Time be made between the Master or Commander of such Vessel and such Pilot, such Agreement shall be null and void.

For Recovery of Pilotage.

CLXI. All Sums of Money which become due to any licensed Pilot for Pilotage, or by way of Compensation or Allowance for any Services performed within or about the Harbour, or to any Person for the Discharge of Ballast, may be recovered from the Owners or Masters of Vessels, or the Owners, Consignees, or Agents thereof, (as the Case may be,) who have paid or made themselves liable to pay any other Charges for such Vessel in the Harbour, and may be levied and recovered in like Manner as any Penalty.

A certain Enactment in 47 Geo. 3. c. 33. as to Pilots in the Bristol Channel not to apply to Vessels bound to or trading from the Port of Swansea.

CLXII. Whereas by Section Nine of the Act of the Second Session of the Forty-seventh Year of King George the Third, Chapter Thirty-three, intituled An Act for ascertaining and establishing the Rates of Wharfage, Cranage, Plankage, Anchorage, and Moorings to be received at the lawful Quays in the Port of Bristol, for the Regulation of the Crane Keepers in the said Port, and for the better Regulation of Pilots and Pilotage of Vessels navigating the Bristol Channel, it is enacted, that from and after the First Day of October next after the passing of that Act all Vessels sailing, navigating, or passing up, down, or upon the Bristol Channel to the Eastward of Lundy Island, except Coasting Vessels and Irish Traders, shall be piloted, conducted, and navigated by Pilots duly authorized and licensed by the Mayor, Burgesses, and Commonalty of the City of Bristol by Warrant under their Corporate Seal, and that the Master, Owner or Owners of every Ship or Vessel which shall be navigated in the Limits aforesaid without a Pilot licensed as aforesaid shall forfeit double the Sum which would have been demandable for the Pilotage of such Ship or Vessel, together with Five Pounds for every Fifty Tons Burthen of such Ship or Vessel: Be it enacted, That from and after the Commencement of this Act that Enactment shall not not apply to any Vessel (whether trading Coastwise or Foreign) navigating or passing up, down, or upon the Bristol Channel aforesaid, bound to or from the Port or Harbour of Swansea.

Trustees not required to provide Life Boat unless required by the Admiralty.

CLXIII. Provided always, That for the Space of One Year after the Commencement of this Act nothing in this Act or in the "Harbours, Docks, and Piers Clauses Act, 1847", contained shall extend or be construed to extend to compel the Trustees to provide and maintain any Life Boat, or Mortar or Rockets, or Crew, for the same respectively, or any Tide Gauge or Barometer; and the Authority of the Trustees to carry into execution the several Powers and Provisions of this Act shall not be dependent on the providing or maintaining any Life Boat, Mortar and Rockets, or Crew for the same, or any Tide Gauge or Barometer, or on the Completion of the Works by this Act authorized: Provided also, that after the Expiration of the said Period of One Year the Trustees shall not be bound to provide and maintain any Life Boat, or Mortar or Rockets, or Crew, or Tide Gauge or Barometer, which shall be stated in Writing by the Lords of the Admiralty, under the Hand of their Secretary, to be unnecessary.

Certain Payment to be made in satisfaction for a certain Undertaking contained in an Indenture dated 6th July 1840.

CXLIV. Whereas by the recited Act of the Sixth and Seventh Years of King William the Fourth, the old Trustees were empowered to purchase certain Lands of Henry Duke of Beaufort, and to make a navigable Cut or Canal, or a Cut for the Waste Water from Fabian's Bay, near those Lands, to communicate with the River Tawe near Pentreguinea; and by the Thirteenth Section thereof it was enacted that the old Trustees should deposit Materials excavated in making such Works on Part of the Beach in Fabian's Bay, to cover an Area equal in Extent to the Land of the Duke required for the Works by the said Act authorized; and the Trustees were empowered to deposit on that Beach in Fabian's Bay so much more Materials as they might think fit, and were required to make a sufficient Facing on the Seaward Side of such Materials, and to level such Materials: And whereas by an Indenture, dated the Sixth Day of July One thousand eight hundred and forty, between Charles Cavendish Fulke Greville and John Drummond, of the First Part, Henry Duke of Beaufort, of the Second Part, and Seven of the Swansea Trustees, of the Third Part, certain Parcels of Land belonging to the Duke or his Trustees were conveyed to the old Trustees in consideration of Five hundred Pounds, and of the Performance by the old Trustees of an Undertaking therein recited for such Deposit, facing, and levelling: Therefore the Trustees shall, out of the Moneys borrowed under the Powers of this Act, pay to the Persons entitled to require the Performance of that Undertaking, and they shall accept, One thousand two hundred Pounds, with Interest at the Rate of Five Pounds per Centum per Annum, from the Nineteenth Nineteenth Day of August One thousand eight hundred and fifty-two thereon, in full Satisfaction and Discharge of that Undertaking, and all other Claims and Demands under that Indenture or Undertaking.

Application of Penalties.

CLXV. The Justice by whom any Penalty or Forfeiture is imposed under the Provisions of this Act or of any Byelaw made in pursuance thereof, may award not more than One Half thereof to the Informer, and shall award the Remainder to the Trustees, to be paid and applied to the Credit of the Swansea Harbour Fund.

Pilotage Clauses not to come into operation without Consent of Board of Trade.

CLXVI. So much of this Act as relates to Pilots and Pilotage, or as repeals Section Nine of the said Act of the Second Session of the Forty-seventh Year of King George the Third, Chapter Thirty-three, shall not come into operation unless and until the Consent of the Lords of the Committee of Privy Council for Trade, signified by Writing under the Hands of One of their Secretaries or Assisting Secretaries, be first obtained, and then only to such Extent as may from Time to Time be approved by the Lords of the said Committee: Provided nevertheless, that until such Consent be obtained the Trustees shall continue to exercise such Powers with respect to Pilots and Pilotage as they would have been entitled to exercise if this Act had not been passed.

Saving Rights of the Admiralty.

CLXVII. Provided always, That, except as is by this Act expressly provided, this Act or anything therein contained shall not take away, lessen, alter, or prejudice any of the Jurisdictions, Franchises, Rights, Powers, or Privileges of the Admiralty.

Saving Rights of the Corporation.

CLXVIII. Provided always, That, except as is by this Act expressly provided, nothing in this Act contained shall extend or be construed to extend to alter, abridge, diminish, or take away any of the Rights, Tolls, Benefits, Privileges, Emoluments, Liberties, Franchises, or any former or other Jurisdictions which the Corporation of Swansea were possessed of or had a Right unto, by Charter, Prescription, Custom, or otherwise howsoever, before the passing of this Act, but that the said Corporation shall have full Power, Liberty, and Authority to appoint such Officer or Officers at the Port of Swansea as the Corporation do or can appoint, and shall receive all such Tolls and Dues on Goods and other Things discharged from or loaded into any Ship or Vessel within the River Tawe and Harbour of Swansea, and all other such Dues and Profits whatsoever appertaining to the said Corporation, as they would have been entitled to demand and receive if this Act had not passed, anything herein contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

Saving Rights of Dock Company.

CLXIX. Provided always, That, except as is by this Act expressly provided, this Act or anything therein contained shall not take away, lessen, lessen, alter, or prejudice any of the Rights, Powers, Authorities, or Privileges of the Swansea Dock Company.

Damages done to any Lands to be paid for.

CLXX. If any Person shall sustain any Damage in his Lands by reason of the Execution of any of the Powers given by the said recited Acts or this Act, and through or by Means not herein provided for, then and in every such Case such Damage shall be paid as may be agreed upon or determined in manner provided by "The Lands Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845."

Trustees not to be bound to regard Complaints of Injury or Damage unless Complaint is made within One Year after Damage sustained.

CLXXI. The Trustees shall not be compelled by virtue of the said recited Acts or this Act to receive or take notice of any Complaint to be made by any Person whomsoever for any such Damage by him sustained or supposed to be sustained in his Lands by virtue or in consequence of the Execution of any of the Powers of the said recited Acts, unless such Complaint shall be made to the Trustees within the Space of One Year after the Time when such supposed Injury or Damage shall have been sustained, or the doing or committing thereof shall have ceased.

Saving Rights of the Duke of Beaufort under Agreement dated 11th Sept. 1849.

CLXXII. Provided always, That this Act or anything therein contained shall not take away, lessen, alter, or prejudice any of the Rights, Powers, or Privileges which the present Duke of Beaufort, or the Heirs, Executors, Administrators, or Assigns of the late Duke of Beaufort, now have or are entitled to under or by virtue of a certain Resolution or Agreement entered into by or between the old Trustees and Henry late Duke of Beaufort, bearing Date the Eleventh Day of September One thousand eight hundred and forty-nine, and entered in the Books of the old Trustees: Provided nevertheless, that any Opening from the new Cut into the Spoil Bank in Fabian's Bay shall not be made under or by virtue of that Resolution or Agreement without in every Case the previous Consent of the Admiralty, signified in Writing under the Hand of the Secretary of the Admiralty.

Saving Rights of the Duke of Beaufort.

CLXXIII. Provided always, That, except as is by this Act expressly provided, this Act or anything therein contained shall not affect, prejudice, alter, diminish, abridge, or take away the Royalty, Right, or Property of the Duke of Beaufort, his Heirs, Successors, or Assigns, in and to the Water Channel and Soil of the River of Swansea, otherwise Tawe, and the Port and Harbour thereof, and the Fisheries therein, and the said River itself, or his or their Right, Power, or Authority to remove and prevent any present and future Weirs and Erections thereon, and to stop and impede any present or future Watercourses, Diversions, and perfect Use of the Streams thereof in anywise whatsoever, or in any Manner affect, prejudice, abridge, diminish, alter, or take away any Royalties, Rights, Properties, perties, Duties, Tolls, Payments, Powers, Authorities, Jurisdictions, Privileges, Liberties, and Franchises whatsoever of or belonging to the Duke, his Heirs, Assigns, or Successors, in the Seigniories of Gower and Kilvey, as Lord or Lords thereof and otherwise, or of any future Lords or Ladies thereof, or as Admiral or Admirals of the Seas, Bays, Havens, Creeks, Ports, and Rivers within, bordering on, and surrounding the same, or of his or their Officer or Officers in their respective Duties within the same, but the same respectively shall remain to him and them entire, wholly, and altogether as if this Act had not passed.

As to any future Application to Parliament by Trustees.

CLXXIV. If at any Time hereafter it be resolved by a Majority of not less than Three Fourths of the Trustees that it is expedient to apply to Parliament to repeal, amend, or extend any of the Powers or Provisions of this Act, then and in any such Case the Costs, Charges, and Expenses of and incident to such Application shall be paid and discharged out of the Funds of the Trustees.

Harbour, &c. not exempt from Provisions of present and future General Acts.

CLXXV. Nothing in this Act contained shall exempt the Harbour or the Trustees from the Provisions of any General Act relating to Harbours or Dues on Shipping or Pilotage now in force, or which may be passed during the present or any future Session of Parliament.

Expenses of Act.

CLXXVI. All Costs, Charges, and Expenses of applying for, obtaining, and passing this Act and incidental thereto shall be paid and discharged out of the Funds of the Trustees in preference to all other Payments whatsoever.
