Laid before Parliament	28th February 1967
Coming into Operation	1st March 1967

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 22nd day of February 1967

Present,

The Queen's Most Excellent Majesty in Council

Her Majesty, by virtue and in exercise of Her powers under section 5 of the Foreign Jurisdiction Act 1890(a), as amended by the Foreign Jurisdiction Act 1913(b), is pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows :—

Citation, commencement and interpretation.

1.—(1) This Order may be cited as the Swaziland (Extension of Acts) Order 1967 and shall come into operation on 1st March 1967.

(2) The Interpretation Act 1889(c) shall apply, with the necessary adaptations, for the purpose of interpreting this Order and otherwise in relation thereto as it applies for the purpose of interpreting and in relation to Acts of the Parliament of the United Kingdom.

Application of certain enactments to Swaziland.

2.—(1) Subject to subsection (2) of this section, the enactments specified in the Schedule to this Order (being certain of the enactments described in the First Schedule to the Foreign Jurisdiction Act 1890, as amended), shall extend to Swaziland as if Swaziland were a British possession.

(2) Any reference in any of those enactments to a Superior Court or a Supreme Court in a Colony or British possession shall be construed, in relation to Swaziland, as a reference to the High Court of Swaziland.

W. G. Agnew.
