EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Order, but is intended to indicate its general purport.)

This Order revokes, in respect of Australia, certain Orders in Council applying the Extradition Acts, 1870 to 1906, in the case of Sweden.

1953 No. 1221

The Sweden (Extradition) (New Zealand) (Termination) Order, 1953

Made - - - -	1*st August*, 1953
Laid before Parliament	4*th August*, 1953
Coming into Operation	5*th August*, 1953

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 1st day of August, 1953

Present,

The Queen's Most Excellent Majesty in Council

Whereas a Treaty was signed on the twenty-sixth day of June, 1873, between Her late Majesty Queen Victoria and His late Majesty King Oscar II of Sweden and Norway for the mutual extradition of fugitive criminals and this Treaty was, by an Agreement made on the second day of July, 1907, between the British and Swedish Governments, continued in force between the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland and the Kingdom of Sweden;

And Whereas certain Orders in Council were made under Section two of the Extradition Act, 1870(b), in pursuance of the said Treaty, and these Orders, by virtue of Section 17 of the said Act, took effect in New Zealand;

And Whereas the said Treaty, by virtue of a notice given by the Swedish Government under Article XV thereof, was terminated on the sixteenth day of December, 1951, as between New Zealand on the one hand and the Kingdom of Sweden on the other hand;

(a) S.R. & O. 1923/971; Rev. IX, p. 466; 1923, p. 347. (b) 33 & 34 Vict. c. 52.

And Whereas Section two of the Extradition Act, 1870, provides that every Order made in pursuance of an arrangement with a foreign state with respect to the surrender to such state of any fugitive criminals shall not remain in force for any longer period than the arrangement:

And Whereas Her Majesty's Government in New Zealand have requested that an Order should be made revoking these Orders in so far as they applied the Extradition Acts, 1870 to 1906, in the case of Sweden in respect of New Zealand:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, in exercise of the powers conferred on Her by Section twenty-one of the Extradition Act, 1870, is pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:—

1. The Order in Council of the thirtieth day of September, 1873(a), which in accordance with the aforesaid treaty of 1873 applied the Extradition Act, 1870, in the case of Sweden and Norway, is hereby revoked in so far as it applies in the case of Sweden.

2. The Order in Council of the twelfth day of August, 1907(b), which in accordance with the aforesaid agreement of 1907 applied the Extradition Acts, 1870 to 1906, in the case of Sweden, is hereby revoked.

3. The Order in Council of the thirtieth day of July, 1923(c), which directed that the Extradition Acts, 1870 to 1906, should apply in the case of certain foreign states in accordance with existing treaties, as supplemented by the Convention of the fourth day of May, 1910, for the suppression of the White Slave Traffic, is hereby revoked in so far as it applies in the case of Sweden.

4. The operation of this Order is restricted to New Zealand.

5. This Order may be cited as the Sweden (Extradition) (New Zealand) (Termination) Order, 1953, and shall come into operation on the fifth day of August, 1953.

W. G. Agnew.
