CHAPTER 25.

An Act to amend the Taxes (Regulation of Remuneration) Act, 1891. [27th June 1892.]

BE it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

Amendment of 54 & 55 Vict. c. 13.

1.—(1.) The poundage payable to a clerk to Commissioners of Land Tax and to a collector of land tax is hereby abolished as respects the year which commenced on the sixth day of April one thousand eight hundred and ninety-one and any subsequent year, and in lieu thereof the clerk shall receive a sum not less than the amount paid to the clerk by way of poundage, or which would have been payable to the clerk if he had been so paid, for the year which commenced on the sixth day of April one thousand eight hundred and ninety, and the collector shall receive a sum not less than the sum paid to the collector by way of poundage for the same year.

(2.) Section six of the Taxes (Regulation of Remuneration) Act, 1891, shall have effect as if the words "assessor or collector" were therein substituted for the word "assessor."

Short title.

2. This Act may be cited as the Taxes (Regulation of Remuneration) Amendment Act, 1892, and the Taxes (Regulation of Remuneration) Act, 1891, and this Act may be cited together as the Taxes (Regulation of Remuneration) Acts, 1891 and 1892.

CHAPTER 26.

An Act to make provision respecting Advances made by the National Debt Commissioners under the National Debt (Redemption) Act, 1889. [27th June 1892.]

52 & 53 Vict. c. 4.

WHEREAS the Treasury, in pursuance of the National Debt (Redemption) Act, 1889, borrowed, by Exchequer bonds and otherwise, and the National Debt Commissioners out of moneys in their hands on account of trustee and post office savings banks advanced, various sums of which there remain unpaid sums amounting in the aggregate to thirteen million pounds:

And whereas it is expedient to make provision respecting the said advance (in this Act referred to as the redemption advance):

Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:
