EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Regulations.)

These Regulations amend the Teachers (Education, Training and Registration) (Scotland) Regulations 1967, as previously amended. They provide that—

(a) from 1st June 1973, in relation to the requirements for admission to a course leading to a teaching qualification, a performance in any Ordinary grade examination of the Scottish Certificate of Education after 1972 is to be regarded as a pass if it falls within band A, B or C;

(b) from 1st August 1974, the minimum requirements for admission to a course leading to a Teaching Qualification (Primary Education) are raised to 3 passes on the Higher grade and 2 on the Lower or Ordinary grade, and in the case of the General Certificate of Education examination to 2 passes at Advanced level and 4 other passes; and for persons aged 23 or over to 3 passes on the Higher grade, and in the case of the General Certificate of Education examination, to 2 passes at Advanced level and 2 other passes;

(c) subject to the change described in (a) above, the requirements for admission to a course leading to a Teaching Qualification (Secondary Education) or a Teaching Qualification (Further Education) remain unchanged.
