INTRODUCTION

Citation and commencement

1. These Regulations may be cited as the Teachers' Salaries Regulations (Northern Ireland) 1967, and shall be deemed to have come into operation on 1st July 1967.

Regulations revoked

2. The Regulations set out in Schedule VI (hereinafter called "the revoked Regulations") are hereby revoked.

Definitions

3.—(1) In these Regulations

"approved" means approved by the Ministry for the purposes of the context;

"assistant teacher" means a qualified teacher who is not a principal;

"employing authority" means the local education authority or, in the case of a school not under the management of a local education authority, the managers of the school;

"qualified teacher" means a teacher who is recognised as a qualified teacher in the school in which he is employed;

"recognised" means recognised by the Ministry for the purposes of the context;

"reorganisation" means rearrangement of educational facilities carried out with the approval of the Ministry by the local education authority or the managers of a school or schools;

"temporary teacher" means a full-time teacher in respect of whose employment an agreement is not required under Section 84 of the Act;

"unqualified teacher" means a teacher who is not eligible for recognition as a qualified teacher in the school in which he is employed; and

"working day" means a day on which a school is in operation or such other day as the Ministry may determine to be a working day for the purposes of these Regulations.

(2) In these Regulations, except where otherwise provided,

(a) "allowance" means an allowance payable under these Regulations;

(b) "salary" shall include an increase or addition under Regulations 7 or 8

(a) 1947. c. 3.

but not allowances, or compensation allowances payable under the Teachers' Salaries (Compensation Allowances) Regulations (Northern Ireland) 1965(a), or any Regulations superseding those Regulations; and (c) the rates indicated for salaries and allowances are rates per annum.

(3) A grammar school containing a preparatory department in addition to a secondary department shall be regarded as a single school for the purposes of these Regulations.

(4) Other expressions to which meanings have been assigned in the Nursery Schools Regulations (Northern Ireland) 1948(b), the Nursery Classes in Primary Schools Regulations (Northern Ireland) 1956(c), the Primary Schools (General) Regulations (Northern Ireland) 1961(d), the Handicapped Pupils and Special Schools Regulations (Northern Ireland) 1957(e), the Secondary Schools (Grant Conditions) Regulations (Northern Ireland) 1965(f), shall have for the purposes of these Regulations the same respective meanings in relation to the schools to which those Regulations respectively apply.

Application

4.—(1) These Regulations shall apply to teachers employed in grant-aided schools other than technical intermediate schools.

(2) In the Regulations which follow, except where otherwise indicated, "teacher" means a full-time qualified teacher.

(2) An assistant teacher who has not successfully completed at least three years' approved full-time study or training shall be placed on the scale at the minimum or at one point below the point on which he would have been placed if paragraph (3) had applied, whichever is the higher: provided that an assistant teacher who has been placed at the minimum shall not proceed beyond the minimum until the extent of incremental credit given in accordance with the provisions of Schedule I amounts to two years.

(3) An assistant teacher who has successfully completed three years' approved full-time study or training shall be placed on the scale with such incremental credit (if any) as may be given in accordance with the provisions of Schedule I.

(4) An assistant teacher who has successfully completed at least four years' approved full-time study, training or research shall be placed on the scale with such incremental credit (if any) as may be given in accordance with the provisions of Schedule I, and in addition shall be granted increments in the scale as follows:—

(a) one increment where the aggregate of such full-time study, training or research is less than five years;

(b) two increments where the aggregate of such full-time study, training or research is at least five years but is less than six years;

(c) three increments where the aggregate of such full-time study, training or research is at least six years:

Provided that this paragraph shall not be so construed as to entitle the teacher to payment at a rate of salary in excess of the maximum of the scale.

(5) For the purposes of this Regulation a year of study or training shall not be counted unless the teacher had attained the age of eighteen years not later than the end of the first term of that year.

Existing Teachers

6.—(1) For the purposes of this Regulation "existing teacher" means an assistant teacher who was placed on the scale for assistant teachers under the revoked Regulations, or on any of the scales I to V of the Regulations which from time to time governed the salaries of teachers in recognised schools.

(2) An existing teacher who was placed on the scale for assistant teachers under the revoked Regulations shall from 1st July 1967 or, if not in service on that date, from the effective date of first reappointment after that date, be placed on the scale set out in Regulation 5(1) at the point at which he was placed on the first mentioned scale, with such additional credit as he may be entitled to in accordance with the provisions of Schedule I.

(3) An existing teacher who was not placed on the scale for assistant teachers under the revoked Regulations shall from 1st July 1967 or, if not in service on that date, from the effective date of first reappointment after that date, be placed at the appropriate point of the scale set out in Regulation 5(1), with such additional credit as he may be entitled to in accordance with the provisions of Schedule I, as follows:—

(a) a teacher on Scale II, IV or V shall be placed on the scale at the point at which he was placed in Scale II, IV or V;

(b) a teacher on Scale III shall be placed on the scale at the point next above that at which he was placed in Scale III;

(c) a teacher on a point above the 14th point of Scale II, III, IV or V shall be placed on the scale at the maximum;

(d) a teacher on Scale I shall be placed on the scale at the point immediately below the point at which he was placed in Scale I:

Provided that

(i) a teacher on a point above the 16th point of Scale I shall be placed on the scale at the maximum;

(ii) a teacher at the minimum of Scale I shall be placed on the scale at the minimum and shall not proceed beyond the minimum until the extent of incremental credit given in accordance with the provisions of Schedule I amounts to two years;

(e) a teacher who was placed on the maximum of Scale III shall receive an addition of £30 beyond the maximum of the scale set out in Regulation 5(1):

Provided that such addition shall not be payable to a teacher who qualifies for the additional allowance of £50 referred to in Regulation 8;

(f) a teacher who was in receipt of salary in excess of the maximum of Scale IV or V by reason of approved full-time study, training, advanced work or research shall receive by way of addition to his salary a sum equal to the amount by which his rate of salary exceeded that maximum:

Provided that the additional sum payable shall be reduced by £30 where the teacher qualifies for the additional allowance of £50 referred to in Regulation 8.

(4) Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this Regulation an existing teacher may, where it is to his advantage, be placed in accordance with Regulation 5.

University Degrees (or equivalent)

7.—(1) In the case of an assistant teacher, other than a teacher to whom paragraph (2) applies, who holds an approved university degree, or other qualification adjudged by the Ministry to be equivalent thereto, the salary scale shall be increased by £100 at each point.

(2) In the case of an assistant teacher who holds an approved university degree with first or second class honours, or other qualification adjudged by the Ministry to be equivalent thereto, the salary scale shall be increased by £220 at each point.

Addition for training or qualifications

8.—(1) Where an assistant teacher has successfully completed a course of training or has obtained a qualification and the course or the qualification is approved by the Ministry for the purposes of this paragraph he shall receive an addition to his scale salary of £50.

(2) Where an assistant teacher is entitled to the increase of £100 or £220 prescribed in Regulation 7 and—

(a) (i) has successfully completed an approved full-time course of training; or

(ii) has obtained an approved university postgraduate certificate or diploma in education as a result of a part-time course of study; and

(b) the course does not form part of the teacher's qualifications entitling him to receive an increase under Regulation 7, he shall receive an addition to his scale salary of £50.

(3) An assistant teacher shall not receive more than one addition of £50 under the provisions of this Regulation.

Allowances for teachers of handicapped pupils

9.—(1) An assistant teacher in a special school shall receive, in addition to the salary and allowances otherwise payable under these Regulations, a special schools allowance of £130.

(2) An assistant teacher of a special class of handicapped pupils in a primary or secondary school may, at the discretion of the local education authority and with the approval of the Ministry, receive a special class allowance of £130 in addition to any other allowance to which he may be entitled under these Regulations.

(3) The addition under Regulation 8(1) shall be increased by £10—

(a) in the case of a teacher who is teaching deaf, partially-hearing, blind or partially-sighted pupils in a special school; or

(b) in the case of a teacher of a special class of partially-hearing or partially-sighted pupils in a primary or secondary school:

Provided that in either case the teacher holds a qualification approved by the Ministry for the purposes of this paragraph.

SALARIES OF PRINCIPALS

Scales and allowances

10.—(1) Subject to the provisions of these Regulations the scale of salary for a principal shall be determined by reference to the points average of the school in accordance with the provisions of Part I of Schedule II.

(2) A principal shall be placed on the scale applicable to him in accordance with Part II of Schedule II.

(3) If a teacher in a primary school holds a principalship for which he is eligible under the Primary Schools (General) Regulations (Northern Ireland) 1961, and the enrolment of the school increases so as to warrant the raising of the grade of the principalship to a grade for recognition in which the teacher is not as yet eligible under the said Regulations, the teacher shall nevertheless be entitled to be placed on the higher scale and, if he is employed in a permanent capacity, to remain so employed.

(4) The scales for principals of primary schools shall apply also to superintendent teachers in nursery schools.

(5) Subject to the provisions of Regulation 24, an unqualified teacher serving as principal—

(a) in a primary school, shall receive in addition to his salary under Regulation 24 or 26 an allowance of £105, and

(b) in a special school, shall receive in addition to his salary under Regulation 24 an allowance of such amount as the Ministry may approve.

INCREMENTS

Award of annual increments

11. After a teacher's rate of salary has been determined subsequent increments in the scale shall be granted annually on the teacher's normal incremental date: provided that

(a) the Ministry may at any time withhold an increment or require it to be withheld if a teacher's service, in the judgment of the Ministry, does not reach a satisfactory standard;

(b) if an increment is withheld at any incremental date or at any two or more successive incremental dates and if, at the next following incremental date, the teacher's service has, in the judgment of the Ministry, reached a satisfactory standard he may, at the discretion of the Ministry, be allowed two increments (instead of one increment) in the appropriate scale.

Credit for periods of absence

12.—(1) Periods of absence for which a teacher is entitled to full salary or salary at one-half of the full rate shall be regarded as teaching service for the purposes of these Regulations.

(2) Except as is otherwise provided in these Regulations a period of absence in respect of which salary is not paid shall not be regarded as teaching service for the purposes of these Regulations.

POINTS AVERAGE

Determination of points average

13.—(1) For each triennial period of school years, commencing with the period 1st August 1967 to 31st July 1970 a points average shall be determined, being the average of the points scores determined in each year of the immediately preceding triennial period: provided that—

(i) if the points average so determined for the triennial period 1st August 1967 to 31st July 1970 is in a lower group than the average of the points scores determined in 1965 and 1966, the school shall be deemed to be in the next higher group;

(ii) in the case of a school not recognised in each year of a triennial period, or of a school which has been directly affected by reorganisation, or in such other circumstances as the Ministry may deem proper, the Ministry may determine a points average for any particular purpose of the Regulations in respect of a part or the whole of any triennial period.

(2) In reckoning averages for the purposes of this Regulation fractions of one-half or more than one-half shall be counted as units, and fractions of less than one-half shall not be counted.

Determination of points score

14.—(1) Except as provided in paragraph (3) a points score shall be determined for each primary or secondary school in respect of each school year on the basis of the enrolment of pupils in each school, including pupils enrolled in nursery classes in primary schools, on the second Friday following the opening of the school for the second term in the preceding school year, the number of such pupils being classified according to their ages at 31st March following this opening as follows:—

Each pupil under 13 years of age	1 point
„ „ aged 13 and under 15 years of age	2 points
„ „ „ 15 „ „ 16 „ „ „	4 points
„ „ „ 16 „ „ 17 „ „ „	6 points
„ „ „ 17 and over	10 points

(2) A points score shall be determined for each special school in respect of each school year on the basis of the number of pupils enrolled in the school on the second Friday following the opening of the school for the second term in the preceding school year, the number of pupils thus ascertained being classified according to the type or types of special educational treatment provided for them as follows:—

Delicate pupils	2 points
Educationally sub-normal, epileptic and physically handicapped pupils; pupils attending hospital schools	3 points
Blind, partially-sighted and maladjusted pupils	4 points
Deaf and partially-hearing pupils	6 points

(3) For the purpose of determining the principal's scale or the amount of the vice-principal's allowance in a primary school the points score of the school shall be that which the school would have if all pupils in the school at any relevant time were under 13 years of age.

ALLOWANCES FOR ASSISTANT TEACHERS

Acting principals

15. If (a) the principalship of a school is vacant or the principal is absent on leave without pay; or

(b) the principal of a school in which there is no vice-principal is absent on leave with pay, the Ministry may, where it considers it reasonable, approve the appointment of an acting principal; and an acting principal so appointed may be paid an allowance of such amount as the Ministry may approve.

Vice-principals

16.—(1) A vice-principal shall be appointed in a primary or secondary school with a points average exceeding 200, and in a special school with a points average exceeding 180.

(2) A vice-principal shall be appointed in a primary school with a points average exceeding 100 but not exceeding 200 if there were included in the enrolment on the basis of which each of the points scores used was determined both pupils whose age was such that by 31st March next following the date by reference to the enrolment on which the points score was determined they would not attain the age of eight years and pupils whose age was such that by the said 31st March they would have attained that age.

(3) Subject to the provisions of paragraph (2), in a primary or secondary school with a points average exceeding 164 but not exceeding 200, and in a special school with a points average exceeding 139 but not exceeding 180, a vice-principal may be appointed if the Ministry so approves.

(4) In addition to his salary under these Regulations a vice-principal shall receive a vice-principal's allowance determined by reference to the points average of the school in accordance with Schedule III: provided that in a secondary school where the services of a principal are shared with an institution of further education the vice-principal's allowance shall be determined by the Ministry.

(5) For the purposes of paragraph (2) the points score taken into account in determining whether a school has a points average exceeding 100 shall be that which the school would have if all pupils in the school at any relevant time were under 13 years of age.

Posts of second master or second mistress

17.—(1) In a secondary school which is a school for both boys and girls and has a points average exceeding 1,000, a teacher of the opposite sex to that of the vice-principal may, with the approval of the Ministry, be designated as second master or mistress as the case may be.

(2) A teacher so designated shall receive such allowance not exceeding four-fifths of the vice-principal's allowance as the Ministry may approve.

Graded Allowances

18.—(1) The value of each graded allowance held by a teacher at any time during the period from 1st July to 31st July 1967 shall be increased to the value shown in Schedule IV.

(2) With effect from 1st August 1967 and subject to the provisions of these Regulations, there may be paid to assistant teachers in a school allowances (hereinafter referred to as "graded allowances") in respect of such number of posts and of such maximum aggregate value as are indicated in Schedule V as appropriate to the points average of the school and the type of school.

The teachers to whom such allowances may be paid shall, without prejudice to the power of the employing authority to pay such allowances to other teachers in special circumstances, include heads of departments and teachers undertaking special responsibility or special work of an advanced character.

(3) The value of each grade of graded allowance shall be as follows:—

Grade of Allowance	Value of Allowance
1	£125
2	£160
3	£210
4	£250
5	£315
6	£445
7	£570
8	£700

(4) Subject to the provisions of these Regulations, and in the case of teachers in primary schools to the provisions of the Primary Schools (General) Regulations (Northern Ireland) 1961, the employing authority shall determine the grade of each such allowance, the duties to be attached to each post carrying such an allowance and the teacher to be appointed thereto.

(5) The maximum graded allowance payable to a teacher shall not exceed:—

(a) in a primary or special school £210

(b) in any school—the allowance payable to the vice-principal of the school.

(6) A teacher shall not receive more than one graded allowance at any time, or receive a graded allowance at any time when he is entitled to an allowance under Regulations 15 to 17.

Vice-principals and graded posts—Miscellaneous

19.—(1) The allowances payable in accordance with these Regulations to vice-principals and to teachers who hold graded allowances shall for any school year be those appropriate to the points average of the school for the same school year.

(2) In a primary school in which, in addition to a post of vice-principal, one or more graded allowances are authorised, either the post of vice-principal or one of the posts to which a graded allowance is attached shall, unless the Ministry otherwise approves, be held by a woman, and in a primary school in which the points average exceeds 500 either the post of vice-principal or one of the graded allowances shall normally be held by a woman in charge of the infants' department.

ABSENCES OF TEACHERS

Definitions

20. In Regulations 21 to 23

"teacher" means a teacher in respect of whose employment an agreement is required under Section 84 of the Act; and

"salary" includes any allowances to which the teacher is entitled hereunder and any compensation allowance payable under the Teachers' Salaries (Compensation Allowances) Regulations (Northern Ireland) 1965, or any compensation allowances payable under any Regulations superseding those Regulations.

Absence due to illness

21.—(1) A teacher shall, subject to the provisions of these Regulations, be entitled, while absent because of illness, to receive salary at the full rate for a period not exceeding six months and thereafter salary at one-half of the full rate for a further period not exceeding six months, in any period of four years' service.

For the purposes of this paragraph six months shall be taken as 183 days.

(2) A teacher who has been absent because of illness for an aggregate of twelve months in any period of four years' service shall not, within that period, be entitled to salary for any further period of absence from duty because of illness.

(3) A teacher who is absent because of illness and who does not resume his teaching duties for ten successive working days immediately before, or immediately after, or immediately before and after a period of school vacation shall be regarded as absent because of illness for that period of vacation: provided that this paragraph shall not apply to any period of vacation, or to any part of such period, if the teacher satisfies the Ministry that during such period or such part of such period as the case may be, he was in all respects fit to undertake teaching duties.

(4) A teacher who is absent because of illness shall not be entitled to salary—

(a) for more than three successive working days, or

(b) for more than ten working days in all in any year ending 31st December, unless a medical certificate, specifying the nature of the illness and certifying the incapacity of the teacher for the performance of duty, is furnished through the employing authority to the Ministry or, in the case of a teacher in a primary school, is furnished to the Ministry.

Absence for other causes

22. Full salary may be paid to a teacher—

(a) for a brief period of necessary absence due to infectious disease in his home or to the serious illness or death of a near relative;

(b) for a period of absence not exceeding three working days, due to special circumstances; or

(c) with the approval of the Ministry, for a period of absence exceeding three working days, due to special circumstances.

Leave for other purposes

23.—(1) Subject to the approval of the Ministry a teacher may be granted leave of absence by the employing authority, with or without pay as may be approved by the Ministry, to attend an approved course of study or training or for such other purposes as the Ministry may approve.

(2) A period of such absence shall, unless the Ministry otherwise determines, rank for increment.

UNQUALIFIED TEACHERS

Minimum salary

24. The minimum rate of remuneration of full-time unqualified teachers shall be £550: provided that a full-time unqualified teacher who possesses qualifications entitling him to recognition as a qualified teacher in another type of school or in an institution of further education shall be paid salary at the rate which he would be paid as a qualified assistant teacher or principal as the case may be.

Appointed in primary schools before 1st August 1945

25. Unqualified teachers in primary schools who were appointed in primary schools before 1st August 1945 shall, after the completion of 20 years' satisfactory service, be placed on the salary scale set forth in Regulation 5 at a point one increment above the minimum of the scale and shall thereafter be eligible to proceed to the maximum of the scale in the ordinary way.

Women in primary schools appointed before 1st January 1947

26. The rate of salary payable to full-time unqualified women teachers in primary schools who were appointed as unqualified teachers (other than as locum tenens or substitute teachers) in primary schools before 1st January 1947 shall be £800.

TEMPORARY TEACHERS

Remuneration

27.—(1) A temporary teacher, including an unqualified teacher, shall be remunerated for each working day at the rate of 1/200th of the annual salary which he would receive if he were employed in a permanent capacity: provided that such a teacher may with the approval of the Ministry be paid salary as though he were employed in a permanent capacity.

(2) In the case of any teacher to whom, in respect of any period of service, remuneration is paid on a daily basis in accordance with the provisions of paragraph (1) each working day shall, for the purposes of increment if he is being paid on an incremental scale, and for such other purposes as the Ministry may determine, be reckoned as 1/200th of a year of service: provided that in any twelve consecutive months any such period of service together with any other period of teaching service which such teacher may perform during that time shall not be reckoned as more than one year of service.

(3) For the purposes of this Regulation

(a) not more than five working days shall be counted in any one week; and

(b) "salary" includes any allowances to which the temporary teacher is entitled hereunder and any compensation allowances payable under the Teachers' Salaries (Compensation Allowances) Regulations (Northern Ireland) 1965, or any Regulations superseding those Regulations.

PART-TIME TEACHERS

Remuneration

28. The minimum rate of remuneration of part-time teachers shall be 14s. 0d. per hour: provided that

(a) such teachers may, in such circumstances as the Ministry may approve, be paid salary in accordance with the appropriate scale for full-time teachers; and

(b) the Ministry may authorise lower rates of pay in the case of part-time teachers of music or other subjects where the classes consist of individual pupils.

MISCELLANEOUS

Deductions for board and lodging

29. In any case where a teacher in a grammar school receives free board or free lodging or both free board and free lodging as part of his remuneration, a deduction may be made by the school authorities from the salary payable to him under these Regulations, at a rate not exceeding £50 per annum in lieu of such board or lodging or board and lodging, as the case may be.

Deductions for compensation awarded under the Government of Ireland Act

30. The rate of salary otherwise payable under these Regulations to a teacher to whom compensation has been awarded by the Civil Service Committee under the provisions of the Government of Ireland Act 1920(a), by reason of his removal from office in consequence of the transfer of Model Schools to local education authorities and who is re-employed as a teacher subsequent to such removal shall be reduced by an amount equivalent to the rate of compensation payable.

Safeguarding of existing salaries

31. A teacher in recognised teaching service on 30th June 1967 shall not receive by reason of the operation of these Regulations a lesser rate of salary than he received under the Regulations in force on that date.

Payment of salaries

32.—(1) Subject to the deduction of any sums properly deductible therefrom and to the provisions of paragraph (2) the Ministry shall pay to teachers appointed to primary, intermediate (excluding technical intermediate) and special schools in accordance with the Ministry's Regulations the salaries and allowances to which they are entitled under these Regulations and any other Regulations applicable thereto.

(2) This Regulation does not apply to salaries and allowances paid by a local education authority in respect of which grant is payable under Section 104(1)(b) of the Act.

(3) In this Regulation "teachers" includes unqualified teachers and part-time teachers.

Sealed with the Official Seal of the Ministry of Education for Northern Ireland this 14th day of November 1967, in the presence of

(L.S.) J. M. Benn,
Secretary.

(a) 10 & 11 Geo. 5. c. 67.

SCHEDULE I

Service and employment recognised for the purposes of Regulations 5 and 6

Credit for the following full-time service and employment shall be given for incremental purposes in the salary scale as if it were teaching service to the extent specified in the table:

Provided that

(1) service and employment given before attaining the age of 18 years shall not be counted;

(2) teaching service given before the teacher possessed the qualifications required for admission to the salary scale shall not, save as provided for in (k), be counted; and

(3) full-time teaching service shall be taken to include one-half of corresponding part-time teaching service of not less than 10 hours per week, unless such part-time service was concurrent with other service which is allowed to count in full.

Type of Service	Extent of Incremental Credit
(a) Teaching service in recognised schools or institutions in Northern Ireland.	Credit in full.
(b) Teaching service in unrecognised schools in Northern Ireland.	To such extent as the Ministry may determine.
(c) Teaching service in schools in Great Britain.
(d) Teaching service in schools elsewhere in the British Commonwealth.
(e) Teaching service in schools in the Republic of Ireland.
(f) Teaching service in schools in other countries.
(g) Service on the staffs of university institutions and training colleges in the British Commonwealth or the Republic of Ireland.

NOTE:

1. The commencing salary of the principal of a primary or secondary school with a points average (a) not exceeding 40 and (b) of 41-100 shall be determined in accordance with the relevant paragraphs of Part II of this Schedule, and he shall proceed by increments of £50 to a maximum of—

(i) £1710, where the points average does not exceed 40;

(ii) £1820, where the points average is 41-100.

2. The commencing salary of a principal of a special school with a points average not exceeding 60 shall be determined in accordance with the relevant paragraphs of Part II of this Schedule and he shall proceed by increments of £50 to a maximum of £1,960.

3. Where a principal's salary falls short of the appropriate maximum by less than £50 the final increment shall be the amount required to increase the salary to that maximum.

PART II

A principal shall be placed on the scale applicable to him as follows:—

1. If appointed as principal for the first time on or after 1st July 1967—

(a) Primary and secondary schools with a points average not exceeding 40:

At a point equal to his salary as an assistant teacher at the date of appointment as principal together with the amount of any allowance (excluding an allowance for acting as principal) held immediately prior to the appointment as principal, and an addition of £210, subject to the maximum of the scale not being exceeded.

(b) Primary and secondary schools with a points average of 41-100 and special schools with a points average not exceeding 60:

As in (a) but substituting "£260" for "£210".

(c) All schools other than those provided for at (a) and (b):

At the minimum, provided that where he is appointed from service in a recognised school or institution and the sum of his salary in the former post and any allowance (excluding an allowance for acting as principal) at the date of appointment equals or exceeds the minimum, he shall be placed on the scale at the point next above such sum, subject to the maximum of the scale not being exceeded.

2. If serving as a principal in a recognised school on 30th June 1967—

(a) Primary and secondary schools with a points average not exceeding 100 and special schools with a points average not exceeding 60:

At the point which falls short of the maximum by the same amount as the point on which he was placed on the scale applicable to him under the revoked Regulations fell short of the maximum of that scale.

(b) All schools other than those provided for at (a):

At the point at which he was placed on the scale applicable to him under the revoked Regulations: provided that a principal may, where it is to his advantage, be placed at the point at which he would have been placed on the scale applicable to him under the revoked Regulations if the provisions of paragraph 1(c) had applied under those Regulations.

3. On becoming entitled to salary on a different principal's scale—

(a) Primary and secondary schools with a points average of 41-100 or special schools with a points average not exceeding 60 where the new scale exceeds the old scale:

(i) As in 1(b); or

(ii) At a point equal to his salary on the old scale at the date on which the new scale became applicable (excluding any addition under paragraph 4 or under paragraph 5 of Part II of Schedule II to the revoked Regulations) together with an addition of £50 where the old scale related to a school with a points average not exceeding 40, whichever is the greater.

(b) All schools other than those provided for at (a):

Where the new scale is higher than the old scale—

At the minimum, provided that where his salary on the old scale at the date on which the new scale became applicable (excluding any addition under paragraph 4 or under paragraph 5 of Part II of Schedule II to the revoked Regulations) equals or exceeds the minimum, he shall be placed on the new scale at the point next above such salary.

(c) Where the new scale is lower than the old scale—

At a point equal to his salary on the old scale at the date on which the new scale became applicable (excluding any addition under paragraph 4 or under paragraph 5 of Part II of Schedule II to the revoked Regulations) provided that the maximum of the new scale is not thereby exceeded.

4. Subject to the maximum of the appropriate scale not being exceeded a principal shall be entitled to an addition to the salary determined under paragraph 3 of one increment on the appropriate scale in respect of each period of five years' service as a qualified principal to 31st March 1965.

5. A principal who before his appointment has been employed as a teacher outside Northern Ireland and has not subsequently been employed as a teacher in a recognised school shall be placed on the appropriate scale at a point determined by the Ministry having regard to his previous service.

6. A principal to whom paragraphs 1, 2, 3, 5 and 7 do not apply shall be placed on the scale applicable to him at a point determined by the Ministry.

7. A principal serving in a recognised school on 14th November 1967 and in receipt of salary, determined under the provisions of paragraph 8 of Part II of Schedule II to the revoked Regulations, beyond the maximum of the scales then applicable to principals shall receive an addition of £100 (or in the case of a special school £110) so long as he continues to serve as a principal of that school or of any recognised school (or, in the case of a special school, any recognised special school) in the same or higher group: provided that where the salary including the addition falls below the maximum of the principal's scale applicable to him under these Regulations he shall, if it is to his advantage, be placed on the scale—

(a) if his salary at 30th June did not exceed the maximum of the scale applicable to him under the revoked Regulations, at the point at which he was then placed, or

(b) if his salary at 30th June was beyond the maximum of the scale then applicable to him, with incremental credit at the rate of one increment for each period of five years' service as a qualified principal to 31st March 1965, and full credit for service as a qualified principal after that date and before 1st July 1967.
