EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Regulations, but is intended to indicate their general purport.)

These Regulations increase by five per cent. the basic part of the salaries of teachers employed by Education Authorities. The consolidated scales for Principals and Depute Principals of Further Education Centres, which include both basic salaries and payments for special responsibility, are increased by the amount which the teachers concerned would have received had they, being certificated teachers, been paid on the maximum of the scale for Heads of Departments appropriate to their qualifications and the level of work for which they are responsible.
