EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Amending Regulations, but is intended to indicate their general purport.)

The responsibility element in the salaries of many teachers holding posts of special responsibility is based upon the average school roll during a specified period. When the Regulations of 1948 were made the period was changed from 1936-39, which had been used for salaries between 1945 and 1948, to 1946-48, which was to apply to salaries from 1948 to 1951. The result was that when rolls had dropped the teachers suffered a reduction in responsibility element. The purpose of the amendment of Regulation 7 is to enable responsibility element to be assessed on the previous basis in cases where the element had not been inflated by reason of the rolls in 1936-39 being greater than in 1945-48.
