(This Note is not part of the Scheme, but is intended to indicate its general purport.)

The Scheme of 1928 provided for contributory service as a teacher under the Guernsey Law of 1927 to be aggregated with contributory service in England and Wales under the Teachers (Superannuation) Acts, the cost of the resulting pension being divided between the two systems according to the division of the service. The Guernsey Law of 1927 has been repealed and re-enacted by the Law of 1948. The purpose of this Scheme is to continue the reciprocal arrangements in relation to service under the later Law.
