EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Scheme, but is intended to indicate its general purport.)

The existing Scheme for treating the service of civilian teachers employed by the Air Council as pensionable under the Teachers (Superannuation) Acts allows no exception. In some places overseas, teachers are engaged locally on a temporary basis many of whom are not pursuing teaching as a profession and have no interest in teachers' superannuation. This Scheme excludes locally engaged teachers from teachers' superannuation unless they notify the Minister of Education that they wish their service to be pensionable.

The Teachers Superannuation (Training Within Industry) Scheme, 1950

1950 No. 1994

Draft laid before Parliament 25*th July*, 1950
Made - - - - - 11*th December*, 1950
Coming into Operation - - 11*th December*, 1950

The Minister of Education, with the consent of the Treasury, in exercise of the powers conferred on him by Section 21 (1) (b) of the Teachers (Superannuation) Act, 1925(a), as amended by Section 9 of the Superannuation (Miscellaneous Provisions) Act, 1948(b), hereby makes the following Scheme:—

1. This Scheme may be cited as the Teachers Superannuation (Training Within Industry) Scheme, 1950, and shall come into operation on the date on which it is made.

2. The Interpretation Act, 1889(c), applies to the interpretation of this Scheme as it applies to the interpretation of an Act of Parliament.

3. In this Scheme unless the context otherwise requires:—

"the Act of 1925" means the Teachers (Superannuation) Act, 1925, as amended by any subsequent enactment;

"contributory service" means contributory service for the purposes of Part II of the Act of 1925;

"the Minister" means the Minister of Education; and

"training service" means full-time service in the employment of the Ministry of Labour and National Service in the capacity of a trainer under the Scheme of Training Within Industry for Supervisors.

4. This Scheme applies to persons employed in training service on or after the date on which this Scheme comes into operation.

5. Where any person to whom this Scheme applies was employed in contributory service before becoming employed in training service or where any such person was not so employed in contributory service but the Minister approves his training service for the purposes of the Scheme, the training service of that person shall be treated as contributory service.

6. Where a person is in training service on the date on which this Scheme comes into operation and was in such service immediately before that date, he shall not be subject to the provisions of this Scheme unless he notifies the Minister that he wishes to be so subject.

(a) 15 & 16 Geo. 5. c. 59. (b) 11 & 12 Geo. 6. c. 33.
(c) 52 & 53 Vict. c. 63.

7.—(1) Where training service on the date on which this Scheme comes into operation is treated as contributory service by virtue of the foregoing provisions of this Scheme, such period of that service immediately before that date as the Minister may agree in any particular case shall also be treated as contributory service.

(2) Training service before the date on which this Scheme comes into operation which is treated as contributory service under the provisions of the last foregoing paragraph, shall be disregarded for the purpose of determining whether the person is an existing teacher for the purposes of the National Insurance (Modification of Teachers Pensions) Regulations, 1948(a).

Charles Royle,
W. A. Wilkins,
Two of the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury.

8th December, 1950.

Given under the Official Seal of the Minister of Education this 11th day of December, 1950.

(L.S.) Geo. Tomlinson,
Minister of Education.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Scheme, but is intended to indicate its general purport.)

The purpose of this Scheme is to enable teaching service as a trainer in industry in the employment of the Ministry of Labour and National Service to be treated as contributory service under the Teachers Superannuation Acts. The provision in clause 7 permitting the retrospective application of the Scheme in particular cases is covered by Section 9 (2) of the Superannuation (Miscellaneous Provisions) Act, 1948.
