EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Regulations, but is intended to indicate their general purport.)

These Regulations further amend the Teachers (Training Authorities) (Scotland) Regulations 1958, by enabling persons employed in the University Departments of Education and of Psychology to be appointed by the Senates of Scottish Universities as members of, instead of as assessors to, governing bodies of certain colleges of education. The Universities are empowered to appoint four members to each of the governing bodies concerned instead of three members and an assessor.
