EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the regulations, but is intended to indicate their general purport.)

These regulations further amend the Teachers (Training Authorities) (Scotland) Regulations 1958 by adjusting the various dates in the electoral process to provide for an interval of a week between the closing date for the nomination of a teacher-candidate for election to the governing body of a college of education and the date on which he or she can withdraw acceptance of such nomination, and for the issue during this period to each candidate of a list of candidates.
