1952 No. 88

The Telegraph (British Commonwealth and Foreign Written Telegram) Amendment No. 2 Regulations, 1952

Made - - - -	16*th January*, 1952
Laid before Parliament	18*th January*, 1952
Coming into Operation	1*st February*, 1952

I, the Right Honourable Herbrand Edward Dundonald Brassey Earl De La Warr, His Majesty's Postmaster General, with the consent of the Treasury, do by virtue of the powers vested in me by section two of the Telegraph Act 1885(a) (as amended by section one of the Post Office and Telegraph Act 1897(b), section four of the Post Office and Telegraph Act 1940(c), and section one of the Telegraph Act 1951(d)), and of all other powers enabling me in this behalf, hereby make the following Regulations, that is to say:—

Interpretation

1.—(1) These regulations shall be read as one with the Telegraph (British Commonwealth and Foreign Written Telegram) Regulations 1950(e) (hereinafter called "the principal regulations") and all regulations amending the same.

(2) The Interpretation Act 1889(f) applies to the interpretation of these regulations as it applies to the interpretation of an Act of Parliament.

Amendments to principal regulations

2. In paragraph (1) of regulation one of the principal regulations (Interpretation), after the definition of the expression "Commonwealth social telegram" there shall be inserted the following sub-paragraph:

"The expression 'de luxe telegram' means a telegram which is to be delivered on an ornamental form suitable for happy occasions".

3. In regulation nineteen of the principal regulations (which relates to the delivery of telegrams), after paragraph (10) there shall be inserted the following paragraph:

"(11) Where a sender wishes a telegram to be treated as a de luxe telegram, and arrangements for it to be delivered accordingly are in force in the country of its destination, the sender shall insert before the address the paid service indication = LX =, and shall pay a supplementary fee of sixpence. Provided that no supplementary fee shall be payable where the telegram is a radiotelegram originating in a mobile station and transmitted or intended for transmission over all or part of its course through the medium of a land station in the British Islands".

(a) 48 & 49 Vict. c. 58. (b) 60 & 61 Vict. c. 41. (c) 3 & 4 Geo. 6. c. 25.
(d) 14 & 15 Geo. 6. c. 37. (e) S.I. 1950/1023; Rev. XXII, p. 313; 1950 II, p. 993
(f) 52 & 53 Vict. c. 63.

4. In paragraph (7) of regulation twenty two of the principal regulations (which specifies the classes of telegrams which shall not be admitted as radiotelegrams), after sub-paragraph (h) there shall be inserted the following sub-paragraph:

"(j) De luxe telegrams, other than those originating in a mobile station and transmitted or intended for transmission over all or part of their course through the medium of a land station in the British Islands".

5. In paragraph (1) of regulation thirty three of the principal regulations (which specifies the paid service indications in respect of the services therein mentioned), for the words "Delivery on ornamental form" there shall be substituted the words: "De luxe telegram".

Date of commencement and short title

6. These regulations shall come into operation on the 1st day of February 1952, and may be cited as the Telegraph (British Commonwealth and Foreign Written Telegram) Amendment No. 2 Regulations, 1952.

Dated this 16th day of January, 1952.

De La Warr,
His Majesty's Postmaster General.

We consent to these regulations.

Herbert Butcher,
Edward Heath,
Two of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury.

15th January, 1952.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Regulations, but is intended to indicate their general purport.)

These regulations amend the Telegraph (British Commonwealth and Foreign Written Telegram) Regulations 1950 so as to provide for an international de luxe telegram service. The regulations enable a telegram to be delivered at the request of the sender on an ornamental form, where arrangements for the purpose are in force in the country of destination, and fix the fee for this service.
