4. In paragraph (7) of regulation twenty two of the principal regulations (which specifies the classes of telegrams which shall not be admitted as radiotelegrams), after sub-paragraph (h) there shall be inserted the following sub-paragraph:

"(j) De luxe telegrams, other than those originating in a mobile station and transmitted or intended for transmission over all or part of their course through the medium of a land station in the British Islands".

5. In paragraph (1) of regulation thirty three of the principal regulations (which specifies the paid service indications in respect of the services therein mentioned), for the words "Delivery on ornamental form" there shall be substituted the words: "De luxe telegram".

Date of commencement and short title

6. These regulations shall come into operation on the 1st day of February 1952, and may be cited as the Telegraph (British Commonwealth and Foreign Written Telegram) Amendment No. 2 Regulations, 1952.

Dated this 16th day of January, 1952.

De La Warr,
His Majesty's Postmaster General.

We consent to these regulations.

Herbert Butcher,
Edward Heath,
Two of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury.

15th January, 1952.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Regulations, but is intended to indicate their general purport.)

These regulations amend the Telegraph (British Commonwealth and Foreign Written Telegram) Regulations 1950 so as to provide for an international de luxe telegram service. The regulations enable a telegram to be delivered at the request of the sender on an ornamental form, where arrangements for the purpose are in force in the country of destination, and fix the fee for this service.

1952 No. 418

The Telephone Amendment (No. 1) Regulations, 1952

Made - - - -	4th March, 1952
Laid before Parliament	5th March, 1952
Coming into Operation	1st April, 1952

I, The Right Honourable Herbrand Edward Dundonald Brassey Earl De La Warr, Her Majesty's Postmaster General, with the consent of the Treasury, by virtue of the power vested in me by section one of the Telephone Act

1951(a) and of every other power enabling me in this behalf, do hereby make the following Regulations, that is to say:—

1.—(1) These regulations shall be read as one with the Telephone Regulations 1951(b) (hereinafter called "the principal regulations").

(2) The Interpretation Act 1889(c), applies to the interpretation of these regulations as it applies to the interpretation of an Act of Parliament.

2. Paragraph (2) of regulation forty seven of the principal regulations is hereby revoked, and the following paragraph is substituted therefor:—

"(2) (a) Every subscriber shall permit officers of the Post Office (or, when required by the Postmaster General so to do, procure permission for them from any other person whose permission is requisite) to enter at all reasonable times upon the subscriber's premises for the purpose of constructing, inspecting, maintaining, or altering the installation or any part thereof, or removing the installation or any part thereof whether on the subscriber's application or on the cesser or termination of provision of telephone service or on the determination of an agreement, and to have access at all reasonable times to all such parts of the installation as may be in or on the subscriber's premises.

(b) Every officer of the Post Office who desires to enter upon the subscriber's premises as aforesaid shall produce, if required so to do, some duly authenticated document showing his identity and authority."

3. These regulations shall come into operation on the 1st day of April 1952, and may be cited as The Telephone Amendment (No. 1) Regulations 1952.

Dated this 3rd day of March, 1952.

De La Warr,
Her Majesty's Postmaster General.

We consent to these regulations.

Edward Heath,
Dennis Vosper,
Two of the Commissioners of
Her Majesty's Treasury.

4th March, 1952.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Regulations, but is intended to indicate their general purport.)

These Regulations revoke and re-enact the requirement in the Telephone Regulations 1951 that subscribers shall permit officers of the Post Office to enter the subscribers' premises for the purpose of constructing, inspecting, maintaining, altering or removing telephone installations, and add a requirement that those officers shall produce if required a duly authenticated document showing their identity and authority.
