EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Regulations, but is intended to indicate their general purport.)

These regulations divide greetings telegrams into two general categories, standard greetings telegrams and de luxe greetings telegrams. The charge for such telegrams (which is additional to the ordinary rate and to any other special charges) is sixpence for a standard greetings telegram and two shillings for a de luxe greetings telegram.

TELEPHONES

1959 No. 2068

The Telephone Amendment (No. 2) Regulations, 1959

Made - - - -	3rd December, 1959
Laid before Parliament	9th December, 1959
Coming into Operation	1st March, 1960

I, the Right Honourable John Reginald Bevins, M.P., Her Majesty's Postmaster-General, with the consent of the Treasury, by virtue of the power vested in me by section one of the Telephone Act, 1951(a), and of every other power enabling me in this behalf, do hereby make the following Regulations, that is to say :—

Interpretation

1.—(1) These regulations shall be read as one with the Telephone Regulations, 1957(b) (hereinafter called " the principal regulations "), and the Telephone Amendment (No. 1) Regulations, 1958(c).

(2) The Interpretation Act, 1889(d), applies for the interpretation of these regulations as it applies for the interpretation of an Act of Parliament.

Amendments to the principal regulations

2. The principal regulations (as amended by the Telephone Amendment (No. 1) Regulations, 1958) shall be further amended as follows :—

(1) In paragraph (1) of regulation five (which applies certain terms and conditions set out in the First Schedule to particular descriptions of installations), after sub-paragraph (d) there shall be inserted the following :

" (da) where the installation is connected with an answering set provided by the Postmaster-General, the term or condition set out in Part 5 of the said Schedule : ".

(2) In paragraph (3) of regulation seven (which provides for the assessment of the sum to be paid by the subscriber in certain cases where an installation ceases to be provided during the minimum period of service), for the words after " end of that period " down to the end of the paragraph there shall be substituted the following :

" . . . and in assessing the said sum the Postmaster-General shall make such allowance (if any) as he may consider reasonable for any use which he is able to make of the work done in installing the equipment and apparatus comprised in the installation, and of the equipment and apparatus, for the purpose of providing at the same premises telephone service for any person other than the subscriber."

(a) 14 & 15 Geo. 6. c. 52. (b) S.I. 1957/1931 (1957 II, p. 2477).

(c) S.I. 1958/1182 (1958 II, p. 2310). (d) 52 & 53 Vict. c. 63.

(3) In paragraph (2) of regulation eight (which provides for the assessment of the sum to be paid by the subscriber when an application for service is cancelled), for the last four lines there shall be substituted the following:

"and in assessing the said sum the Postmaster-General shall make such allowance (if any) as he may consider reasonable for any use which he is able to make of the said work in providing at the same premises telephone service for any person other than the subscriber."

(4) At the beginning of paragraph (3) of regulation twenty-seven (which empowers the Postmaster-General to fix the charges for certain services and facilities), there shall be inserted the following:

"Except as provided in regulation thirty-two,".

(5) In paragraph (6) of regulation thirty-two (which regulation relates to inland transferred charge calls), the word "only" in line 1 shall be omitted, and at the end of the regulation there shall be inserted the following:

"(7) Paragraphs (1) and (2) of this regulation shall apply also in relation to calls made from a vehicle through the public telephone system under the control of the Postmaster-General to a place within the British Islands."

(6) Regulation thirty-three (which relates to oversea transferred charge calls) is hereby revoked, and the following regulation shall be substituted therefor:

"Oversea transferred charge calls

33.—(1) A person making a call from the United Kingdom or the Isle of Man to a place outside the British Islands in respect of which the transferred charge service is available may request that the call charges should be reversed; and if the Telephone Authority providing service in the latter place or the Post Office operator obtains from the person answering on the called telephone his consent to such request before the call is established, and the call is established, no call charge or service charge shall be payable under these regulations in respect of the call or the transferred charge service.

(2) Where the call is not established (whether or not such consent has been obtained), or where such consent is not obtained and the call is established as an ordinary call, there shall be charged and paid under these regulations such service charge (if any) as the Postmaster-General may fix in relation to the place concerned, in addition in the latter case to the charge in respect of the call.

(3) Where a person making a call to the United Kingdom or the Isle of Man:

(a) from a place outside the British Islands, or

(b) from a ship registered in any part of the British Islands,

being a place or ship in respect of which the transferred charge service is available, requests that the call charges shall be reversed, and the person answering from the called telephone consents to such request before the call is established, and the call is established, there shall be charged and paid under these regulations:

(a) where the call is made from a place, such call charge and such service charge (if any) as the Postmaster-General may fix in relation to that place;

(b) where the call is made from a ship, the charge for the call fixed by the Postmaster-General under paragraph (1) of regulation twenty-two.

The said charges shall be payable by the like person and in the like manner as if they were charges in respect of a call made from the called telephone, but not so as to make payable the additional charges referred to in paragraph (3) of regulation twenty-two where the called telephone is a call office or a coin box line.

(4) The Postmaster-General shall publish as provided by paragraph (3) of regulation twenty-seven the charges fixed by him under this regulation."

(7) After regulation thirty-three there shall be inserted the following regulation :

"Credit card calls

33A.—(1) The Postmaster-General may issue to any subscriber he thinks fit on the subscriber's request a credit card under the authority of which, subject to the provisions of this regulation, any holder of the card may make calls from telephones other than the subscriber's telephone on terms that the call charges will be payable by the subscriber.

(2) On the expiry of a credit card the Postmaster-General may if he thinks fit issue to the subscriber a credit card by way of renewal thereof unless the subscriber has requested the Postmaster-General not to do so.

(3) The subscriber shall make periodical payments for the credit card service at the rate of five shillings per quarter for each current credit card issued to him, and these regulations shall apply in relation to such payments as if they were rental payable in respect of the subscriber's installation.

(4) A person wishing to make a credit card call under the authority of a credit card issued by the Postmaster-General shall ask the appropriate telephone service operator to connect the call as a credit card call, and shall quote the number shown on the credit card.

(5) Credit card calls may be made under the authority of a credit card issued by the Postmaster-General :

(a) from any telephone on the Postmaster-General's system to any telephone to which calls may be made from the first mentioned telephone ;

(b) from any telephone in a ship or aircraft registered in any part of the British Islands, if the call involves the use of the Postmaster-General's system, and is transmitted by wireless telegraphy over the first part of its course to a station for wireless telegraphy established on land within the British Islands ;

(c) from any telephone on the telephone system of any Authority providing service under licence from the Postmaster-General if the call involves the use of the Postmaster-General's system, or from any telephone on the telephone system of an Authority providing service in any country outside the British Islands if the call is made to a telephone in the British Islands, provided (in both cases) that an arrangement has been made between the Postmaster-General and such Authority permitting such credit card calls to be made by the holders of credit cards issued by the Postmaster-General.

(6) The subscriber to whom the credit card was issued shall pay to the Postmaster-General on demand the following charges in respect of calls made as credit card calls by any holder of the credit card:

(a) Where the call was made from a telephone on the Postmaster-General's system, or in a ship or aircraft, or on the telephone system of an Authority providing service under licence from the Postmaster-General, the charge shall be that which would have been payable for the call under these regulations or under the Telephone (Channel Islands) Regulations for the time being in force (as the case may be), if it had been made otherwise than as a credit card call: Provided that where the telephone from which the call was made was a coin box line provided by the Postmaster-General, the charge shall be that which would have been payable as aforesaid by the caller.

(b) Where the call was made from a telephone on the telephone system of an Authority providing service in a country outside the British Islands, the charge shall be such call charge and such service charge (if any) as the Postmaster-General may fix in relation to the place from which the call was made.

(7) The Postmaster-General shall publish as provided by paragraph (3) of regulation twenty-seven the charges fixed by him under the last foregoing sub-paragraph.

(8) (a) Where there is an arrangement between the Postmaster-General and an Authority providing telephone service under licence from the Postmaster-General or providing such service in any country outside the British Islands, whereby the holders of credit cards issued by that Authority to its subscribers may make calls from telephones on the Postmaster-General's system on terms that the call charges will be paid by those subscribers, the following sub-paragraph shall apply.

(b) A person who satisfies the Postmaster-General that he is the holder of a current credit card issued by such Authority, and that the telephone to which he wishes to make a call is one to which he may make credit card calls under the arrangement, may make the call as a credit card call from any telephone on the Postmaster-General's system; and in that case no call charge or service charge shall be payable under these regulations by the caller or by the person who is the subscriber in respect of the telephone from which the call is made.

(9) This regulation shall apply to services and facilities requested on the authority of a credit card and to the charges in respect of such services and facilities, as it applies to credit card calls and to the charges in respect thereof.

(10) In this regulation "the Postmaster-General's system" means the public telephone system under the control of the Postmaster-General."

(8) In paragraph (1) of regulation thirty-six of the principal regulations (which provides for the supply of particulars of certain calls), after the words "for individual calls made from the subscriber's installation" there shall be inserted the words "or for transferred charge calls made to that installation, or for credit card calls made by a holder of a credit card issued to the subscriber,"; and after sub-paragraph (d) there shall be inserted the following:

"(e) the telephone numbers of the telephones from and to which a credit card call was made;

(f) the telephone exchanges serving the telephones from and to which a credit card call was made."

(9) At the end of the First Schedule (which contains terms and conditions applicable to particular installations), there shall be inserted the following:

"Regulation 5 (1) (da).

PART 5

Any recorded announcement made by means of the Answering Set shall be limited to the following matters or any of them:

(i) a statement that the call is being answered by a telephone answering machine;

(ii) the telephone number and identity of the subscriber;

(iii) an explanation of the subscriber's absence;

(iv) a statement of his expected time of return;

(v) an alternative telephone number at which the subscriber may be called or at which messages may be left for him;

(vi) any other matter which the Postmaster-General may from time to time approve in writing."

(10) In item 1 (a) in Part 7 of the Third Schedule, after the words "Private manual branch exchange" there shall be inserted the word "switchboard".

(11) At the end of Part 8 of the Third Schedule (which specifies the quarterly rentals for instruments for use by an operator at a private branch exchange) there shall be inserted the following items:

"8. Lightweight headset No. 1 (where the standard instrument supplied by the Postmaster-General with the relative private branch exchange is a handset type telephone, or the handset portion only of a handset type telephone)	10s. 6d.
9. Lightweight headset No. 1 (where the standard instrument supplied by the Postmaster-General with the relative private branch exchange is a lightweight headset No. 1, or has been replaced by a lightweight headset No. 1)	10s. 6d."

(12) In Part 10 of the Third Schedule (which specifies the quarterly rentals for miscellaneous equipment and apparatus), for item 19 there shall be substituted the following:

"19. Apparatus for use of subscribers who experience difficulty in hearing when using a standard telephone:—

	s.	d.
Valve amplifier	15	–
Hearing aid telephone	15	–"

and at the end of the Part there shall be inserted the following items:

"24. Answering set No. 1	10	–	–
25. Lightweight headset No. 1		10	6"

(13) In item 5 in the Fifth Schedule, for the words "For each manual or automatic switchboard" in the first column there shall be substituted the words "For each manual switchboard or automatic branch exchange" and after the words "private manual branch exchange" in the second column there shall be inserted the word "switchboard".

(14) in Item 4 (a) in Part 1 of the Sixth Schedule, after the words "Private manual branch exchange" there shall be inserted the word "switchboard".

(15) At the end of Part 1 of the Sixth Schedule (which specifies the connection charges for equipment and apparatus not forming part of a private circuit), there shall be inserted the following item:

"6. Answering set No. 1 ... ... £2 – –"

(16) In item 2 in Part 2 of the Sixth Schedule, for the words "automatic switchboard" in the first column there shall be substituted the words "automatic branch exchange", and after the words "private manual branch exchange" in the second column there shall be inserted the word "switchboard".

(17) In Part 1 of the Ninth Schedule (which specifies the maximum charges for certain removals), after item 5 there shall be inserted the following item:

"5A. Answering set No. 1 ... ... £2 – –"

(18) In item 8 (a) in Part 1 of the Ninth Schedule, after the words "Private manual branch exchange" there shall be inserted the word "switchboard".

(19) In item 5 in Part 2 of the Ninth Schedule, for the words in the first column there shall be substituted the words "Manual switchboard or automatic branch exchange", and after the words "private manual branch exchange" in the second column there shall be inserted the word "switchboard".

(20) After item 9 in Part 4 of the Ninth Schedule (which specifies the maximum charges for certain changes of apparatus), there shall be inserted the following item:

"10. Lightweight headset No. 1: in respect of each manual switchboard, switchboard section or item of apparatus which is modified for use with the lightweight headset No. 1 ... ... £5 – –"

Citation and Commencement

3.—(1) These regulations may be cited as "The Telephone Amendment (No. 2) Regulations, 1959".

(2) These regulations shall come into operation on the 1st day of March, 1960.

Dated this 3rd day of December, 1959.

J. R. Bevins,
Her Majesty's Postmaster-General.

We consent to these regulations.

Michael Hughes-Young,
J. D. Gibson-Watt,
Two of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury.

3rd December, 1959.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Regulations but is intended to indicate their general purport.)

These Regulations amend the Telephone Regulations, 1957. The principal changes are as follows:—

1. There is a new regulation providing for a credit card service (regulation 2 (7)).

2. The regulation about oversea transferred charge calls is amended, the main change being that call office and coin-box charges are not made payable on outgoing transferred charge calls in the international service (regulation 2 (6)).

3. Provision is made for transferred charge calls in the inland service to be made from vehicles (regulation 2 (5)).

4. Charges and conditions are specified for Post Office answering machines (regulation 2 (1), (9), (12), (15) and (17)), and charges are specified for lightweight headsets (regulation 2 (11), (12) and (20)) and hearing aid telephones (regulation 2 (12)).

THERAPEUTIC SUBSTANCES

1959 No. 732

The Therapeutic Substances (Control of Sale and Supply) Regulations, 1959

Made - - - -	17*th April*, 1959
Laid before Parliament	23*rd April*, 1959
Coming into Operation	11*th May*, 1959

Whereas the substances hereinafter mentioned appear to the Minister of Health, the Secretary of State and the Minister of Health and Local Government for Northern Ireland (hereinafter called "the Ministers") to be substances which are capable of causing danger to the health of the community if used without proper safeguards:

Now, therefore, the Ministers, in exercise of the powers conferred on them by subsection (1) of Section 8 of the Therapeutic Substances Act, 1956(a), and of all other powers enabling them in that behalf, jointly, after consultation with the Medical Research Council, hereby make the following regulations:—

1.—(1) These regulations may be cited as the Therapeutic Substances (Control of Sale and Supply) Regulations, 1959, and shall come into operation on the eleventh day of May, 1959.

(2) The Interpretation Act, 1889(b), applies to the interpretation of these regulations as it applies to the interpretation of an Act of Parliament.

2. Part II of the Therapeutic Substances Act, 1956, shall apply—

(a) to cycloserine and salts thereof;

(b) to all derivatives of cortisone, hydrocortisone, prednisone and prednisolone respectively with hydroxyl or alkyl groups or halogens as substituents, and to esters and salts of esters of such derivatives;

(a) 4 & 5 Eliz. 2. c. 25. (b) 52 & 53 Vict. c. 63.
