Regulation 56

FIFTEENTH SCHEDULE

REGULATIONS REVOKED

Title	Extent of Revocation
The Telephone Regulations, 1954(a) ...	The whole.
The Telephone Amendment (No. 1) Regulations, 1955(b)	All not previously revoked.
The Telephone Amendment (No. 3) Regulations, 1957(c)	Paragraph (1) of regulation 2, regulations 3, 4, 5, 6, 8, 9 and 10 and the 1st and 2nd Schedules.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Regulations but is intended to indicate their general purport.)

These Regulations consolidate with amendments the Telephone Regulations, 1954, the Telephone Amendment (No. 1) Regulations, 1955, and the Telephone Amendment (No. 3) Regulations, 1957 (except regulations 2 (2) and 7 which contain transitional provisions).

The principal amendments made are as follows:

(1) Provision is made for the grouping of telephone exchanges for the purpose of calculating inland call charges, and certain charges in the tariff are reduced (r. 21 and 10th Schedule).

(2) Provision is made for the transferred charge service to be extended to calls between the British Islands and places abroad and from certain British ships to the British Islands (r. 33).

(3) Provision is made for the Postmaster-General to publish lists of approved devices which may be used with telephone installations without his written consent in individual cases (r. 44).

1957 No. 2151

The Telephone (Channel Islands) Amendment (No. 1) Regulations, 1957

Made - - - - 11*th December*, 1957
Laid before Parliament 17*th December*, 1957
Coming into Operation 1*st January*, 1958

I, The Right Honourable Alfred Ernest Marples, M.P., Her Majesty's Postmaster-General, with the consent of the Treasury, by virtue of the power vested in me by section one of the Telephone Act, 1951(d), as extended to the Channel Islands by the Telephone (Channel Islands) Order, 1952(e), and

(a) S.I. 1954/1045 (1954 II, p. 2298). (b) S.I. 1955/1622 (1955 II, p. 2570).
(c) S.I. 1957/1260. (d) 14 & 15 Geo. 6. c. 52.
(e) S.I. 1952/163 (1952 III, p. 3401).

of every other power enabling me in this behalf do hereby make the following Regulations, that is to say:—

Interpretation

1.—(1) These regulations shall be read as one with the Telephone (Channel Islands) Regulations, 1956(a) (hereinafter called " the principal regulations ").

(2) The Interpretation Act, 1889(b), applies to to the interpretation of these regulations as it applies to the interpretation of an Act of Parliament.

Call charges

2.—(1) Regulation three of the principal regulations is hereby revoked, and the following regulation shall be substituted therefor:

" Call charges

3.—(1) The charge for a call other than a call to which regulation four applies shall be at the appropriate rate specified in the Schedule hereto, according to the distance between the Jersey Central telephone exchange (in the case of a call made from a telephone on the Jersey telephone system) or the Guernsey Central telephone exchange (in the case of a call made from a telephone on the Guernsey telephone system), and the group centre of the telephone group which includes the telephone exchange serving the telephone to which the call is made.

(2) The sums specified in the said Schedule do not include the charge which the States of the Island of Jersey or the States of the Island of Guernsey may make in respect of the use of a call office or a coin box telephone provided by them.

(3) In this regulation " telephone group " means one of the groups into which telephone exchanges are classified by the Postmaster-General under regulation twenty-one of the Telephone Regulations, 1957(c), for the purpose of determining call charges, and " group centre " means the measuring point determined by the Postmaster-General in relation to the telephone group under that regulation."

(2) The Schedule to the principal regulations is hereby revoked, and the following Schedule shall be substituted therefor:

THE SCHEDULE

Distance between Jersey or Guernsey Central telephone exchange and group centre of called telephone	For the first three minutes or part of three minutes	For each minute or part of a minute after the first three minutes
	s. d.	s. d.
Not more than 125 miles ...	3 –	1 –
More than 125 miles	3 6	1 2

(a) S.I. 1956/723 (1956 II, p. 2358). (b) 52 & 53 Vict. c. 63.
(c) S.I. 1957/1931 (p. 2477 above).

Transferred charge calls

3. After regulation nine of the principal regulations there shall be added the following regulation:

"Transferred charge calls—elsewhere

9A.—(1) A person making a call from a place in the Channel Islands to a place outside the British Islands in respect of which the transferred charge service is available may request that the call charges should be reversed, and if the Telephone Authority providing service in the latter place obtains from the person answering on the called telephone his consent to such request before the call is established, no charge shall be payable under these regulations for the transferred charge facility or in respect of the call, except the charge referred to in paragraph (2) of regulation four where the call is made from a call office or a coin box telephone.

(2) Where:

(a) such consent is given but the call is not established, or

(b) such consent is refused and the call is established, or

(c) such consent is refused and the call is not established, there shall be charged and paid under these regulations for the attempt to provide the transferred charge facility, (in addition, in case (b), to the charge payable under these regulations in respect of the call), such charge (if any) as the Postmaster-General may fix in relation to the place concerned and notify to the States of the Island of Jersey and the States of the Island of Guernsey.

(3) Where a person making a call to a place in the Channel Islands from a place outside the British Islands in respect of which the transferred charge service is available requests that the call charges should be reversed, and the person answering from the called telephone consents to such request before the call is established, then:

(a) if the call is established, there shall be charged and paid under these regulations such call charge and such supplemental charge (if any) as the Postmaster-General may fix in relation to the place outside the British Islands which is concerned and notify to the States of the Island of Jersey and the States of the Island of Guernsey;

(b) if the call is not established, there shall be charged and paid under these regulations such supplemental charge (if any) as is mentioned in sub-paragraph (a).

The charges mentioned in sub-paragraphs (a) and (b) shall be payable by the like person and in like manner as if they were charges in respect of a call made from the called telephone.

(4) Where a person making a call to a telephone provided for a telephone subscriber in the Channel Islands from a ship registered in any part of the British Islands (being a ship in respect of which this service is available) requests that the call charge shall be reversed, then if the person answering from the called telephone consents to such request before the call is established, and the call is established, the charge for the call which is fixed by the Postmaster-General under the Telephone Regulations, 1957, shall be paid by the person who is the subscriber in respect of the called telephone."

Minor and consequential amendments

4. The amendments set out in the Schedule hereto, being amendments which relate to minor matters or amendments consequential upon the amendments made by the foregoing regulations, shall be made in the principal regulations.

Citation and commencement

5.—(1) These regulations may be cited as "The Telephone (Channel Islands) Amendment (No. 1) Regulations, 1957."

(2) These regulations shall come into operation on the first day of January, 1958.

Dated this 9th day of December, 1957.

Ernest Marples,
Her Majesty's Postmaster-General.

We consent to these regulations.

Harwood Harrison,
Martin Redmayne,
Two of the Commissioners of
Her Majesty's Treasury.

11th December, 1957.
