(i) provide a proper temporary substitute way; or (if such provision is not reasonably practicable)

(ii) exercise the said powers at such times and in such manner as to cause the minimum of interruption to the service and inconvenience to the passengers using it.

(4) The exercise of the powers conferred by this article in relation to a highway shall not affect the powers of the Post Office under the Telegraph Acts as defined in section 21 of the Post Office Act 1969(a) to maintain, inspect, repair, renew or remove telegraphic lines or to open or break up that highway for any of those purposes.

For protection of statutory undertakers.

(a) 1969 c. 48. (b) 1882 c. 56.

(not being in either case apparatus in respect of which the relations between the Conservators and the undertakers are regulated by the provisions of Part II of the Public Utilities Street Works Act 1950(a)) and includes any works constructed for the lodging therein of apparatus;

"in" in a context referring to apparatus includes under, over, across, along or upon;

"plan" includes a section and description;

"specified work" means any work or thing done under the powers conferred by this order;

"the undertakers" means the British Gas Corporation, the Southern Electricity Board and any statutory water undertaker as defined in section 59 of the Water Act 1945) supplying water within limits of supply which include any part of the lands affected by a specified work, or any of them, as the case may be.

(2) Notwithstanding anything in this order or shown on the deposited plans, the Conservators shall not, under the powers of this order, acquire any apparatus or operational land otherwise than by agreement.

(3) The Conservators shall not under the powers of paragraph (1)(g) of article 7 (General power to construct subsidiary works) of this order alter any apparatus except in accordance with the provisions of this article.

(4) If the Conservators in the exercise of the powers of this order acquire any interest in any land in which any apparatus is placed, that apparatus shall not be removed nor shall any right of the undertakers to use, maintain, repair, alter, renew or inspect any apparatus in that land be extinguished until adequate alternative apparatus has been constructed and is in operation to the reasonable satisfaction of the undertakers.

(5) (a) If the Conservators for the purpose of or in connection with the execution of any specified work require the removal of any apparatus, they shall give to the undertakers written notice of such requirement with a plan of the proposed work;

(b) If the Conservators require the undertakers to remove any apparatus, or if in consequence of the execution of any specified work the undertakers shall reasonably require to remove any apparatus, the Conservators shall, if practicable, afford to the undertakers the necessary facilities and rights for the construction of adequate alternative apparatus in other lands of the Conservators and thereafter for the maintenance, repair, alteration, renewal and inspection of such apparatus:

Provided that if the alternative apparatus or any part thereof is to be constructed elsewhere than in other lands of the Conservators and the Conservators are unable to afford such facilities and rights as aforesaid in the lands in which the alternative apparatus or such part thereof is to be constructed, the undertakers shall, on receipt of a written notice to that effect from the Conservators, forthwith use their best endeavours to obtain the necessary facilities and rights.

(6) (a) Any alternative apparatus to be constructed in lands of the Conservators in pursuance of paragraph (5) of this article shall be constructed in such manner and in such line or situation as may be agreed between the undertakers and the Conservators or, in default of agreement, settled by arbitration;

(b) The undertakers shall, after the manner of construction and the line and situation of any alternative apparatus have been agreed or settled by arbitration as aforesaid, and after the grant to the undertakers of any such facilities and rights as are referred to in paragraph (5) of this article, proceed with all reasonable dispatch to construct and bring into operation the alternative apparatus and thereafter to remove any apparatus required by the Conservators to be removed under the provisions of this article, and in default, the Conservators may remove the apparatus.

(7) Notwithstanding anything in paragraph (6) of this article, if the Conservators give notice in writing to the undertakers that they desire themselves to execute any part of so much of the work necessary in connection with the construction of the alternative apparatus or the removal of the apparatus required to be removed as will be situate in any lands of the Conservators, such work, in lieu of being executed by the undertakers, shall be executed by the Conservators with all reasonable dispatch under the superintendence, if given, and to the reasonable satisfaction of the undertakers:

Provided that nothing in this paragraph shall authorise the Conservators to execute the actual placing, erection, installation, bedding, packing, removal, connection or disconnection of any apparatus or any filling around the apparatus (where the apparatus is laid in a trench) within 12 inches above the apparatus.

(8) Where in accordance with the provisions of this article the Conservators afford to the undertakers facilities and rights for the construction, maintenance, repair, alteration, renewal and inspection in lands of the Conservators of adequate alternative apparatus in substitution for apparatus to be removed as aforesaid, those facilities and rights shall be granted upon such terms and conditions as may be agreed between the Conservators and the undertakers or, in default of agreement, determined by arbitration:

Provided that—

(a) in determining such terms and conditions as aforesaid in respect of alternative apparatus to be constructed across or through a specified work the arbitrator shall—

(i) give effect to all reasonable requirements of the Conservators for ensuring the safety and efficient operation of the specified work and for securing any subsequent alterations or adaptations of the alternative apparatus which may be required to prevent interference with any such work; and

(ii) so far as it may be reasonable and practicable to do so in the circumstances of the particular case, give effect to any terms and conditions applicable to the apparatus constructed through the lands of the Conservators for which the alternative apparatus is to be substituted;

(b) if the facilities and rights to be afforded by the Conservators in respect of any alternative apparatus and the terms and conditions subject to which the same are to be granted are, in the opinion of the arbitrator, more or less favourable on the whole to the undertakers than the facilities, rights, terms and conditions applying to the apparatus to be removed, the arbitrator shall make such provision for the payment of compensation to or by the Conservators by or to the undertakers in respect thereof as shall appear to him to be reasonable having regard to all the circumstances of the particular case.

(9) (a) Not less than twenty-eight days before commencing to execute any specified work which is near to or is likely to affect any apparatus, the removal of which has not been required by the Conservators under paragraph (5) of this article, the Conservators shall submit to the undertakers a plan of the work to be executed;

(b) Such work shall be executed only in accordance with the plan submitted as aforesaid and in accordance with such reasonable requirements as may be made by the undertakers for the alteration or otherwise for the protection of the apparatus, or for securing access thereto, and the undertakers shall be entitled by their officer to watch and inspect the execution of such work:

Provided that—

(i) if the undertakers within fourteen days after the submission to them of any such plan shall, in consequence of the work proposed by the Conservators reasonably require the removal of any apparatus and give written notice to the Conservators of such requirement the foregoing provisions of this article shall apply and have effect as if the removal of such apparatus had been required by the Conservators under paragraph (5) thereof;

(ii) nothing in this sub-paragraph shall preclude the Conservators from submitting at any time, or from time to time, but in no case less than twenty-eight days before commencing the execution of any such work, a new plan in lieu of the plan previously submitted and thereupon the provisions of this paragraph shall apply to and in respect of such new plan;

(c) The Conservators shall not be required to comply with sub-paragraph (a) of this paragraph in a case of emergency but, in such a case, they shall give to the undertakers notice as soon as reasonably practicable and a plan of the work as soon as reasonably practicable thereafter and shall comply with sub-paragraph (b) of this paragraph so far as reasonably practicable in the circumstances.

(10) If in consequence of the exercise of the powers of this order the access to any apparatus is materially obstructed the Conservators shall provide an alternative means of access to such apparatus.

(11) The Conservators shall repay to the undertakers the reasonable costs, charges and expenses incurred by the undertakers in or in connection with—

(a) the removal and relaying or replacing, alteration or protection of any apparatus or the provision and construction of any new apparatus under any of the provisions of this article;

(b) the cutting off of any apparatus from any other apparatus; and

(c) any other work or thing rendered reasonably necessary in consequence of the exercise by the Conservators of any of the powers of this order:

Provided that subsections (3) and (4) of section 23 of the Public Utilities Street Works Act 1950 (which imposes limitations on undertakers' rights to payment) shall so far as applicable extend and apply to any payment to be made by the Conservators under this paragraph as if the Conservators were the promoting authority and works hereinbefore in this paragraph mentioned were such undertakers' works as are referred to in the said subsection (3) and as if in that subsection for the words "specified as so necessary in a specification of the works settled under Part I of the Fourth Schedule to this Act or agreed so to be by the promoting authority" there were substituted the words "agreed or settled by arbitration under article 10 (For protection of statutory undertakers) of the Thames Conservancy (Ground Water Development) Order 1973".

(12) If by reason or in consequence of the execution, user or failure of any specified work or any subsidence resulting from any such work any damage to any apparatus (other than apparatus the repair of which is not reasonably necessary in view of its intended removal for the purposes of such work) of the undertakers or any interruption in the supply of electricity, gas or water by the undertakers shall be caused, the Conservators shall bear and pay the cost reasonably incurred by the undertakers in making good such damage or in restoring the supply of electricity, gas or water (as the case may be) and shall—

(a) make reasonable compensation to the undertakers for any loss sustained by them; and

(b) indemnify the undertakers against all claims, demands, proceedings, costs, damages and expenses which may be made or taken against or recovered from or incurred by the undertakers;

by reason or in consequence of any such damage or interruption:

Provided that—

(i) nothing in this paragraph shall impose any liability on the Conservators with respect to any damage or interruption to the extent that such damage or interruption is attributable to the act, neglect or default of the undertakers or their contractors or workmen;

(ii) the undertakers shall give to the Conservators reasonable notice of any claim or demand as aforesaid and no settlement or compromise thereof shall be made without the prior consent of the Conservators.

(13) The temporary stopping up or diversion of any watercourse or highway or private right of way under the powers of article 9 (Temporary stoppage of watercourses, highways, etc.) of this order shall not prejudice or affect any right of the undertakers—

(a) to lay, erect, maintain, inspect, repair, alter, renew or remove any apparatus in the watercourse or highway or private right of way; or

(b) for the purpose of such laying, erection, maintenance, inspection, repair, alteration, renewal or removal to enter upon or break open that watercourse or highway or private right of way.

(14) Notwithstanding the stopping up of any bridleway or footpath under the powers of article 8 (Stopping up of bridleways and footpaths) of this order, the undertakers shall continue to have the same powers and rights in respect of any apparatus remaining in the land which by reason of the stopping up has ceased to be a bridleway or footpath as they would have had if it had remained a bridleway or footpath and no such rights shall be extinguished by virtue of the said article 8 but nothing in this paragraph shall prejudice or affect any right of the Conservators, or of the undertakers, to require the removal of such apparatus under this section.

(15) (a) Any difference which may arise between the Conservators and the undertakers under this article shall be determined by arbitration;

(b) In settling any difference under this article the arbitrator may, if he thinks fit, require the Conservators to execute any temporary or other works so as to avoid, so far as may be reasonably possible, interference with the use of any apparatus.
