1960 No. 2076

The Tin Box Wages Council (Great Britain) (Abolition) Order, 1960

Made - - - -	11*th November*, 1960
Laid before Parliament	17*th November*, 1960
Coming into Operation	30*th November*, 1960

Whereas the Minister of Labour (hereinafter referred to as "the Minister") has published, in accordance with section 4 of, and the First Schedule to, the Wages Councils Act, 1959(a), notice of his intention to make an order abolishing the Tin Box Wages Council (Great Britain):

And Whereas no objections have been made to the draft of the said order referred to in the said notice:

Now, therefore, the Minister, by virtue of the powers conferred on him by subsection (1) (a) of section 4 of the said Act, and of all other powers enabling him in that behalf, hereby makes the following Order:—

1. The Tin Box Wages Council (Great Britain) is hereby abolished.

2.—(1) This Order may be cited as the Tin Box Wages Council (Great Britain) (Abolition) Order, 1960, and shall come into operation on the 30th day of November, 1960.

(2) The Interpretation Act, 1889(b), applies to the interpretation of this Order as it applies to the interpretation of an Act of Parliament.

Dated this 11th day of November, 1960.

John Hare,
Minister of Labour.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Order, but is intended to indicate its general purport.)

The Tin Box Trade Board (Great Britain) was established in 1914 under the Trade Boards Act, 1909. The field of operation of the Board was varied in 1928. It became a Wages Council upon the coming into force of the Wages Councils Act, 1945, by virtue of section 20 of that Act, and was continued in existence by virtue of section 26 of, and the Fifth Schedule to, the Wages Councils Act, 1959.

The Wages Council operated in relation to workers employed in the manufacture of boxes, canisters and bottles from sheet iron or sheet steel and to their employers. This Order abolishes the Wages Council.
