CHAPTER 42.

An Act for amending the Tithe Commutation Acts with respect to Market Gardens. [21st July 1873.]

WHEREAS by the Tithe Commutation Acts (described in the schedule to this Act) provision is made for the commutation into a permanent rentcharge of the tithes leviable in the several parishes in England and Wales:

And whereas it is expedient to amend the said Acts in respect of the sections of such Acts in the said schedule particularly mentioned:

Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

Restriction of provisions respecting market gardens newly cultivated.

1. So much of such sections, and of the powers therein contained conferred on the Tithe Commissioners, as provide for the charging of an additional rentcharge by way of extraordinary charge on market gardens newly cultivated as such, shall extend and apply only to a parish in which an extraordinary charge for market gardens was distinguished at the time of commutation.

Saving for pending proceedings.

2. Nothing in this Act shall affect or be deemed to apply to any proceedings taken or to be taken in relation to the charging of an additional rentcharge by way of extraordinary charge on market gardens newly cultivated as such in any case where an award in that behalf was made and confirmed, or where an application was made to the Tithe Commissioners to charge an additional rentcharge by way of extraordinary charge upon any market gardens newly cultivated as such, before the commencement of the present session of Parliament.

Construction of Act.
Short title.

3. This Act shall be construed and have effect as one Act with the Tithe Commutation Acts, and may be cited as The Tithe Commutation Acts Amendment Act, 1873.
