EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Rules, but is intended to indicate their general purport.)

When the ownership is changed of any land in respect of which a redemption annuity is charged, paragraph 3 of the First Schedule to the Tithe Act, 1951, makes it the duty of the former owner, or of the person (not always the owner) by whom the change has been effected, to furnish to the Tithe Redemption Commission particulars of the Instrument whereby the change has been made, and of the name and address of every person who has thereby become an owner of the land or of any part thereof. These rules prescribe the Form in which these particulars are to be furnished. This Form takes the place of a similar Form prescribed (by S.R. & O. 1937 No. 231) for the similar purposes of Section 18 (9), which has now been repealed, of the Tithe Act, 1936.
