1964 No. 32

AGRICULTURE

The Tomato and Cucumber Marketing Scheme (Revocation) Order 1964

Made - - - - 16*th January* 1964
Coming into Operation 23*rd January* 1964

Whereas pursuant to the provisions of paragraph 2 of Schedule 1 to the Agricultural Marketing Act 1958(a) (hereinafter called "the Act") and paragraph 79 of the Tomato and Cucumber Marketing Scheme(b) the Board administering the Scheme (hereinafter called "the Board") has caused a poll to be taken of producers registered under the said Scheme on the question of whether the said Scheme shall be revoked:

And whereas pursuant to paragraph 2 of Schedule 1 to the Act the result of the aforesaid poll has been communicated by the Board to the Minister of Agriculture, Fisheries and Food and to the Secretary of State for Scotland (hereinafter called "the Ministers") showing that there have voted in favour of the revocation of the Scheme—

(a) more than half the total number of registered producers voting on the poll, and

(b) such number of registered producers as are together capable of producing more than half the quantity of the regulated product which all the registered producers voting on the poll are together capable of producing:

Now, therefore, the Ministers pursuant to section 2 and paragraph 2 of Schedule 1 to the Act hereby make the following order:—

1. This order may be cited as the Tomato and Cucumber Marketing Scheme (Revocation) Order 1964; and shall come into operation on 23rd January 1964.

2. The Tomato and Cucumber Marketing Scheme 1950 is hereby revoked.

In Witness whereof the Official Seal of the Minister of Agriculture, Fisheries and Food is hereunto affixed on 15th January 1964.

(L.S.)

Christopher Soames,
Minister of Agriculture, Fisheries and Food.

Given under the Seal of the Secretary of State for Scotland on 16th January 1964.

(L.S.)

Michael Noble,
Secretary of State for Scotland.
