CHAP. cxxxiii.

An Act to amend "The Towns Improvement (Ireland) Act, 1854," so far as relates to the town of Kingstown; and for other purposes. [26th July 1869.]

A.D. 1869.

WHEREAS an Act was passed in the fourth and fifth years of the reign of His Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act for paving, watching, lighting, regulating, and otherwise "improving the town of Kingstown in the county of Dublin," which Act was duly put in force in the said town: 4 & 5 W. 4. c. xc.

And whereas "The Towns Improvement (Ireland) Act, 1854," (herein-after called "the Act of 1854,") has been in due form adopted and is now in force in the said town of Kingstown in the barony of Rathdown and county of Dublin, herein-after called "the township:"

And whereas by the adoption thereof the said first-recited Act is no longer in force as regards such of its provisions as have reference to the purposes for which the Act of 1854 has been adopted:

And whereas by "The Kingstown Improvement Act, 1861," (herein-after called "the Act of 1861,") the management of the roads and bridges in the township was transferred from the grand jury of the county of Dublin to the Commissioners elected and acting in the township under the provisions of the Act of 1854:

And whereas the township is a large, populous, and improving township, and the population thereof has of late years greatly increased, and is increasing, and the present division of the township into two wards for the election of Commissioners has been found to be unequal and unsatisfactory, and it is expedient to make provision for dividing the township into four wards for the purposes of such elections:

And whereas it is expedient to afford further facilities for the borrowing of money for the purposes of the Act of 1854 and of this Act:

A.D. 1869.

And whereas it is expedient to vary the provisions of the said Act of 1854, and the Acts incorporated therewith, in the manner in this Act mentioned so far only as regards the township:

And whereas it is also expedient that such further and other powers and provisions as are herein-after contained should be conferred and made:

And whereas the aforesaid purposes cannot be effected without the authority of Parliament:

May it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows; (that is to say,)

3. Have you already voted either in this or any other ward at the present election?

And no person required to answer any of the said questions shall be permitted or qualified to vote until he shall have answered the same; and if any person shall wilfully make a false answer to any of the questions aforesaid, he shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall and may be indicted and punished accordingly.

Corporation of Dublin to supply water.

41. Whereas by "The Dublin Corporation Waterworks Act, 1861," the lord mayor, aldermen, and burgesses of the borough of Dublin (in this Act called the Corporation) are authorized to bring water from the river Vartry for the supply of the inhabitants of Dublin, and of certain extra-municipal districts therein named, and to lay down mains for the purpose thereof: Notwithstanding anything contained in a certain indenture made the fifth day of April one thousand eight hundred and sixty-nine between the Corporation and the Commissioners, on or after the tenth day of January one thousand eight hundred and seventy the Commissioners shall give notice to the Corporation requiring them to supply water for all public and domestic purposes to the Commissioners, to be distributed by the Commissioners in the township, and thereupon the Corporation shall within six months after the service of the notice (unless some cause which the Corporation could not control shall have prevented the completion of the main from Stillorgan reservoir to the point of the township boundary to be agreed upon or fixed by arbitration in the manner herein-after prescribed, the Corporation having used all due diligence to complete said main within the time aforesaid), supply and thenceforth continue to supply (unforeseen accidents excepted) a quantity of water, not less than twenty gallons per head per day, for the population of the township from time to time, and the Commissioners shall pay and thenceforth continue to pay to the Corporation for such supply, out of the rates levied under the Act of 1854, a yearly rent equivalent in amount to the sum which would be produced by fivepence in the pound on the Government valuation from time to time made of the rateable property in the township, as rated under the provisions of the Act of 1854; the water to be delivered by the Corporation to the Commissioners shall be constantly laid on at high pressure at a point within the limits of the township, such point to be mutually agreed upon within fourteen days after the passing of this Act by Parke Neville, Esq., civil engineer, engineer for the Corporation of Dublin, and Richard Hassard, Esq., civil engineer, with power to them, should they disagree as to the point at which the water shall be delivered by the Corporation, to call in as umpire any person the Commissioners of Public Works in Ireland shall appoint, whose award shall be final; and the Corporation shall deliver such water by or through a main pipe from their service reservoir at Stillorgan, so as to be capable of delivering the water of the Corporation at the point so agreed on, or fixed by arbitration as aforesaid, under a head of not less than two hundred and forty-five feet above the level of the sea at low water, and the main from Stillorgan reservoir to such point shall be laid and maintained in good order by the Corporation at their expense; the Commissioners to supply at the point of delivery within the limits of the township, or at any other point or points from time to time mutually agreed on, at their own expense a valve or valves, and branch or branches, properly constructed: Provided always, that the said Commissioners shall not be at liberty to use, or permit to be made use of, any of the water so to be supplied by the Corporation to the township for the supply of ships, or for manufacturing purposes, or for other than domestic uses, and for the public purposes of the township; and the Commissioners shall at all times permit and suffer the Corporation to convey and send through the mains of the Commissioners any water which the Corporation may require to supply for such purposes, or for the supply of any adjoining district or township: Provided also, that nothing in this Act contained shall give to the Corporation any right to give such supply or require such payment before the first day of July one thousand eight hundred and seventy, and the Commissioners shall not procure a supply, or contract with any other person or persons, or company, or body corporate, for any supply of water to the township, unless or until the Corporation make default in supplying, according to the provisions aforesaid, to the Commissioners such water, and in such quantity and manner as in this section is in that behalf mentioned:

A.D. 1869.

Provided also, that the Corporation shall, at their own cost, provide and lay a pipe or pipes, main or mains of sufficient size to convey from the pipe or pipes, main or mains of the Commissioners the water required for the township of Dalkey and the adjoining districts, and shall pay all costs and charges to which the Commissioners may be put in forming junctions between the Dalkey main or mains and the main or mains of the Commissioners, and shall place on the main or mains on the Dalkey side of said junctions a meter or meters of sufficient size to meter the quantity of water required to be sent through such junction for the use of the township of Dalkey and other districts, and shall duly register and keep a true and just account of the quantity of water so passed through, and shall deduct the total quantity so passed through from the total quantity of water passed through the meter or meters of the Corporation from their Stillorgan main into the main or mains of the Commissioners, and the Corporation shall in like manner place or cause to be placed, without any expense to the Commissioners, pipes and meters for the conveyance and measurement of all water sold by them for the use of ships and other purposes, both within and without the township, and deduct the total quantity so passed out of the mains or pipes of the Commissioners through such meters from the total quantity sent from the Corporation main leading from Stillorgan into the mains of the Commissioners, when adjusting the annual, half-yearly, or quarterly account of water supplied to the Commissioners, and the Commissioners shall have reasonable access at all reasonable times to the books in which the accounts of the quantity of water sent into and drawn from the main or mains of the Commissioners shall be kept by the Corporation.

Commissioners to erect and maintain certain fountains.

42. The Commissioners shall immediately after they have commenced to supply the water of the Corporation to the inhabitants of Kingstown erect and maintain the six fountains provided for by the 38th section of "The Dublin Corporation Waterworks Act, 1861."

Payment of water rent to Corporation.

43. The rent for the water supply shall be paid half-yearly by the Commissioners to the collector general of rates for the city of Dublin for the time being, who is hereby authorized and empowered to collect the same, if called on to do so by the Corporation, and may be collected by him from the Commissioners at the same time, and in the manner, and by the same means (in addition to any other legal remedy), as "the contract water rate" under the provisions of "The Dublin Corporation Waterworks Act, 1861," and the rent may be included either originally or by addition and alteration in the account, or rental from time to time of "the contract water rate," and the Commissioners may and shall from time to time levy and assess on the township such rate as shall be required for the payment of the rent, and such rate shall be deemed to be and shall be part of the general yearly assessment provided for by section sixty of the Act of 1854, and not in addition thereto; the first half-year's rent to be due and payable on the first of January one thousand eight hundred and seventy-one, or six months after the Corporation shall have tendered the supply at the boundary.

Providing for agreement between the Commissioners and Corporation.

44. And whereas the Corporation are in and by their said Act empowered and authorized to borrow for the purposes thereof certain sums of money not exceeding in the whole the sum of three hundred and twenty-four thousand pounds on the security of the rates (leviable within the city under the said Act), and also to borrow for the purposes of making and extending their distributory and other works and pipes for the supply of the extra-municipal districts, or any part thereof, on the security of the income arising or to arise from the supply of water in the said extra-municipal districts, any sum or sums of money not exceeding in the whole seventy-five thousand pounds: And whereas by section sixty-nine of the said Act all the clauses of the "Commissioners Clauses Act, 1847," with respect to mortgages are, with the exception of section eighty-four, incorporated with and form part of said Act, and by the seventieth section of said Act powers are given of reborrowing from time to time any sum or sums of money so levied, and which the Corporation may have paid off: And whereas for the better securing of lenders, by the seventy-first section of the said Act power is also given to all parties who may have lent money to the Corporation for any or either of the above-mentioned purposes, and who hold mortgages for the same to the extent of one fortieth of the whole sum so borrowed and so secured by mortgage, to enforce payment of any interest due and for six months in arrear by the appointment of a receiver, and the Court of Queen's Bench in Ireland is by the said Act authorized and directed, upon the application of such receiver, to order and direct a writ of mandamus to issue to compel the Corporation from time to time to levy off the rateable property of the city of Dublin such additional rate or rates of such amount as shall from time to time be sufficient to make good any deficiency in the funds applicable to the payment of such interest, and the costs and expenses attending the recovery of the same: And whereas the Corporation of Dublin is empowered by the said Act to open the roads in the township as part of the "extra-municipal district" referred to in the said recited Act, and to lay down and maintain mains and pipes for the distribution of water within the same, but has agreed not to exercise their powers in that respect within the township: And

whereas it may be expedient that the necessary works, mains, and pipes for the distribution of water within the township should be laid and executed by the said Corporation for and on behalf of the Commissioners, and the Corporation are willing, if so required by the Commissioners to be elected under this Act, to execute such works and provide and lay the necessary mains, pipes, and other appliances within the township for the distribution within the said township of the water in accordance with the plans adopted or to be adopted by the said Commissioners, and on such terms as may be mutually agreed upon by and between the said Commissioners and the said Corporation:

Be it therefore enacted as follows:

If at a meeting of the said Commissioners to be elected under this Act specially called for that purpose, and at which at least thirteen Commissioners shall be present, and a request to execute the said works shall be made to the Corporation in writing under the common seal of the said Commissioners, whereby the said Commissioners shall agree to pay to the Corporation, or give security for the payment to the Corporation of the contract price of the said distributory works, service mains, pipes, and other appliances for the distribution of the said water within the township, it shall be lawful for the Corporation, on receiving such request under seal as aforesaid, to enter into a contract on such terms as may be agreed upon by and between the Corporation and the Commissioners to make and execute such works, or provide and lay such service mains, pipes, and other appliances as may be agreed upon, and to expend on said works such portion not exceeding ten thousand pounds of the said sum of seventy-five thousand pounds herein-before named as raised or to be raised on the securities herein-before mentioned as the contract price made between the Commissioners and the Corporation shall amount to, and no more; and it shall be lawful for the Commissioners, if they deem fit, to make such request, agreement, and contract as aforesaid, and to give such security as aforesaid to the Corporation.

Statement of accounts to be prepared and to be open for inspection.

45. The Commissioners shall cause their books of account in the present year, and so in every succeeding year, to be balanced to the thirty-first day of December, and on or before the fourteenth day of January one thousand eight hundred and seventy, and so in every succeeding year, shall cause a full and true statement and account to be drawn out of the amount of all rates and assessments made, and of all contracts entered into, and of all monies received and expended during the preceding year by virtue of any Act in force in the township or under this Act, and also of all debts then owing by the Commissioners, and they shall cause such statement and account to be signed by their chairman and clerk on their behalf, and to be printed, and shall allow the same to remain for inspection at the office of the clerk to the Commissioners between the said fourteenth day of January and the day to be fixed in each year for the audit of such accounts pursuant to the provisions herein-after contained; and every creditor and every ratepayer and other person interested, by himself or his agent, may at all reasonable times during the period aforesaid inspect such statement and account, and compare the same with the books and documents relating thereto in the possession of the Commissioners, and the clerk shall, on demand, furnish a copy of said statement and account printed as aforesaid to every such creditor, ratepayer, and other person interested without fee; and on the said fourteenth day of January the Commissioners shall give public notice that the said statement and account are printed and lie at the office of the clerk to the Commissioners, together with the books and documents relating thereto as aforesaid, ready for the inspection of the creditors and ratepayers and other persons interested, such notice to be inserted in one or more newspapers circulating in the township, and to be affixed on or near the outer door of the Town Hall. A.D. 1869.

46. The Lord Lieutenant shall, in the month of January in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy, and so in every succeeding year, by order under his hand, appoint some fit person to be the auditor of the accounts of the township for the preceding year; and every such auditor shall be paid by the Commissioners not exceeding three guineas for every day he is fully employed on such audit, and all expenses he is put to in the auditing of such accounts; and the Commissioners may apply for that purpose any monies coming to their hands by virtue of the Act of 1854, or any local Act in force in the township.

Audit of accounts.

47. The auditor so appointed shall, on or before the first day of February in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy, and so in every succeeding year, give public notice, by advertisement in one or more newspapers circulating in the township, of the time and place of the audit of such accounts, such time to be not earlier than the fifth or later than the tenth day of February, and the auditor at the place and on the day so named, and from time to time, shall proceed with the said audit, and the Commissioners shall, by their clerk, produce and lay before such auditor all books, papers, and writings in their custody or power relating thereto, and any

48. The auditor shall disallow every item of account contrary to law, and surcharge the same upon the person making or authorizing the making of the illegal payment, and shall certify the same to be due from such person, and, upon application by any party aggrieved, shall state in writing the reasons for his decision in respect of such disallowance or surcharge, and also of any allowance which he may have made; and any person aggrieved by such disallowance or surcharge may appeal thereon to the court of the assistant barrister in manner provided by the forty-first section of the Act of 1854, and for the purposes of the said appeal the certificate of the auditor shall be deemed to be an order of the Commissioners.

As to recovery of disallowances.

49. Every sum certified to be due from any person by the auditor shall be paid by such person to the treasurer to the Commissioners within thirty days after the same shall have been so certified, unless there be an appeal against the decision; and if such sum shall not be so paid, and there be no such appeal, the auditor shall recover the same with costs from the person against whom the same shall have been certified to be due by action in any of the superior courts of record in Dublin, or by civil bill in the court of proper jurisdiction.

Power to auditor to require the production of books.

50. For the purpose of any audit of account under this Act the auditor may, by summons in writing, require the production before him of all books, deeds, contracts, accounts, vouchers, and all other documents and papers which he may deem necessary, and may require any person holding or accountable for any such books, deeds, contracts, accounts, vouchers, documents, or papers to appear before him at any such audit or any adjournment thereof, and to make and sign a declaration as to the correctness of the same; and if any such person neglects or refuses so to do, or to produce any such books, deeds, contracts, accounts, vouchers, documents, or papers, or to make or sign such declaration, he shall incur for every neglect or refusal a penalty not exceeding forty shillings; and if he falsely or corruptly makes or signs any such declaration, knowing the same to be untrue in any material particular, he shall be liable to the penalties inflicted upon persons guilty of wilful and corrupt perjury.

Report of auditor.

51. Within fourteen days after the completion of the audit, the auditor shall report upon the accounts audited and examined, and shall deliver such report to the clerk of the Commissioners, who shall cause the same to be deposited in his office for inspection by any creditor, ratepayer, or other person interested therein, and shall publish an abstract of the account, and the auditor's report thereon, in some one or more newspapers circulating in the township.

Power to Lord Lieutenant to order mode of keeping accounts.

52. Should the auditor at any time in his report as aforesaid recommend an alteration in the mode of keeping the accounts of the township, or in making out the statement and account thereof, and the Commissioners should neglect or refuse to direct such alteration to be made, it shall be lawful for the auditor and he is hereby required to transmit a copy of such report to the Lord Lieutenant, who may, if it appears to him just and reasonable, by order direct such alteration, in whole or in part or otherwise, as he may think fit, to be made in the mode of keeping the accounts or of making out the statement thereof as aforesaid, and thereupon the Commissioners shall cause such alteration to be made.

The Commissioners to provide for the adjustment of weights and measures.

53. The Commissioners shall from time to time appoint a fit person to adjust the weights and measures in use in the township, to be called "the adjuster of weights and measures," and such person during his continuance in office shall at his own cost provide a suitable and convenient place in such locality as the Commissioners shall determine, together with all necessary appliances for the purpose of enabling him to discharge the duties of his said office, and such person shall receive for his remuneration the fees authorized in the schedule annexed to the Act of the 5th and 6th years of King William the 4th, cap. 63; and such person may be at any time suspended or dismissed at the pleasure of the Commissioners.

56. For any of the purposes of the Act of 1854 and of this Act, the Commissioners from time to time may borrow and reborrow, on mortgage of the general yearly assessment provided for by section sixty of the Act of 1854, any sums of money not exceeding in the whole sixteen thousand pounds, and the monies so borrowed shall be applied to the purposes for which they are so borrowed: Provided that when any portion of the monies so borrowed is paid off by means of the sinking fund, the Commissioners shall not reborrow on mortgage of the said rate any money so paid off.

Arrears may be enforced by appointment of a receiver.

58. The mortgagees of the Commissioners under this Act may enforce the payment of the arrears of interest, or of principal and interest, due on their mortgages by the appointment of a receiver, and the amount to authorize a requisition for a receiver is one seventh of the sum secured by all the mortgages.

Sinking fund.

59. The amount to be set apart in every year by the Commissioners for discharging the principal money borrowed on mortgage shall be one fortieth of the money so borrowed.

Sinking fund special rate.

60. Once in each year the Commissioners shall make a special assessment, to be called the "sinking fund special rate," on all the persons who, as occupiers or owners of property in the township rateable to the general yearly assessment provided for by section sixty of the Act of 1854, are liable to be rated thereto, provided the total amount to be raised in any one year shall not exceed the amount required for the year for paying the interest on money borrowed and from time to time remaining due on mortgage under this Act, and providing the sinking fund for discharging the principal money borrowed on mortgage: Provided also, that such assessment shall be deemed to be and shall be part of the general yearly assessment provided for by section sixty of the Act of 1854, and not in addition thereto.

Power to determine appeal or amend rate, or quash the same, and order a new rate.

62. The assistant barrister in and for the county of Dublin for the time being shall have power to hear and finally determine the matter of any appeal brought before him under this Act, and shall make such order therein as to him shall seem meet, which order shall be final and conclusive upon all parties; and he shall have power to order the name of any person interested or concerned in the event of such appeal, and having had notice thereof as herein is provided, to be inserted in such rate, and to be rated at such sum or sums of money, or to order the name of any such person to be struck out of such rate, or the sum or sums at which any such person is rated therein to be altered, as the said assistant barrister shall think right: Provided always, that the assistant barrister to whom such appeal shall be made shall not examine or inquire into any other cause or ground of appeal than such as is stated and specified in the notice of appeal, nor alter any such rate with respect to other persons or matter than are mentioned and specified in the notice of appeal; but if upon appeal from the whole of any rate it shall be found necessary to quash or set aside the same, the assistant barrister shall quash the same, and shall in that case order the Commissioners to make a new rate, and they are hereby required to make the same accordingly.

If rate decreased, amount thereof to be returned.

63. If upon the hearing of any appeal from any rate made under this Act the assistant barrister shall order the name of any person to be struck out of such rate, or the sum or sums rated on any person to be decreased or lowered, and if it shall be made to appear to the assistant barrister that such person hath, previously to the hearing of such appeal, paid any sum or sums of money in consequence of such rate which he ought not to have been charged with, then and in every such case the assistant barrister shall order all and every such sum and sums of money to be repaid by the said Commissioners, together with all reasonable costs, charges, and expenses occasioned by such person having been required to pay the same, to be recovered as penalties and forfeitures under this Act.

Fourteen days notice in writing to be given of appeal, and grounds thereof.

64. The person or persons so appealing shall give or cause to be given at least fourteen days notice in writing of his or their intention of appealing as aforesaid, and of the matter or cause thereof, to the clerk to the Commissioners; and the assistant barrister, upon hearing of such appeal, shall not examine or inquire into any other cause or ground of appeal than such as is stated and specified in the notice of appeal; and if any person or persons shall appeal against a rate because any other person is rated therein at any greater or less sum than the net annual value of the hereditaments in respect of which such other person shall be rated, or for any cause that shall require any alteration to be made in such rates with respect to any other person, then and in every such case the person or persons so appealing shall give such notice of appeal as aforesaid, not only to the clerk to the Commissioners, but also to every other person so interested or concerned in the event of such appeal, and every such other person shall, if he so desire, be heard upon such appeal.

Pending appeal, rate to be payable as if no appeal made.

65. Notwithstanding any such appeal or notice thereof, every rate shall be payable and shall be levied as if no appeal had been made, until such rate shall be quashed, granted, or amended.

Costs may be awarded.

66. The assistant barrister, upon hearing and finally determining the matter of any appeal, shall and may, according to his discretion, award such costs to the party appealing or appealed against as he shall think proper, and his determination in or concerning the premises shall be conclusive and binding on all parties to all intents and purposes whatsoever.

Expenses of Act.

67. All the costs, charges, and expenses of and incident to the preparing for, obtaining, and passing of this Act, or otherwise in relation thereto, shall be paid by the Commissioners out of monies raised by or on the credit of the general yearly assessment provided for by the sixtieth section of the Act of 1854; provided that so much of the said rate as is made for defraying the expense of preparing for, obtaining, and passing this Act, or otherwise in relation thereto, shall be distinctly set forth in the assessment of the said rate, and the same shall be paid, deducted, and retained by the same persons and in the same proportions as if the same were a rate levied for the relief of the poor in the township.
