THE TRADE BOARDS (NOTICES) REGULATIONS (NORTHERN IRELAND), 1939, DATED 21ST DAY OF FEBRUARY, 1939, MADE BY THE MINISTRY OF LABOUR UNDER SECTION 24 OF THE TRADE BOARDS ACT (NORTHERN IRELAND), 1923, AS MODIFIED AND APPLIED FOR THE PURPOSES OF THE HOLIDAYS WITH PAY ACT (NORTHERN IRELAND), 1938.

1939. No. 42.

The Ministry of Labour (in these Regulations referred to as " the Ministry ") in pursuance of the powers conferred on it by Section 24 of the Trade Boards Act (Northern Ireland), 1923, and by that Section as modified and applied to and for the purposes of the Holidays with Pay Act (Northern Ireland), 1938, by the Holidays with Pay (Adaptations of Enactments) (Trade Boards) Regulations (Northern Ireland), 1939, and of every other power enabling it in that behalf, hereby makes the following Regulations :—

1. In these Regulations the following expressions have the meanings hereby assigned to them, that is to say :—

" Person " includes any body of persons corporate or unincorporate.

" Employer " includes person as defined by this Regulation.

2. When a Trade Board propose to fix, cancel or vary any general minimum time-rate, or any piece-work basis time-rate, or any general minimum piece-rate, or any general overtime rate, or to give, cancel, vary or amend any direction, they shall—

(a) send a notice to all employers engaged in the trade, or, if the proposal applies to any special branch of the trade or to any special area, to all employers engaged in that branch of the trade or engaged in the trade in that special area, so far respectively as their names and addresses are known to the Trade Board, setting out the proposed rate to be fixed, or the proposed cancellation or variation of the rate, or the direction proposed to be given, or the proposed cancellation, variation or amendment of the direction, as the case may be, and requiring any objections to the proposal to be lodged with the Trade Board within the following periods, that is to say :—

(i) in the case of a proposal to fix a rate or to give a direction, within one month from the date of the notice, and

(ii) in the case of a proposal to cancel or vary a rate, or to cancel, vary or amend a direction, within fourteen days from the date of the notice.

(b) insert a notice in the Belfast Gazette of their proposal to fix, cancel or vary the rate, or to give, cancel, vary or amend the direction, intimating that, on application made to the Trade Board by, or on behalf of, persons engaged in the trade, information will be given as to the rate proposed to be fixed, or the proposed cancellation or variation of the rate, or as to the direction proposed to be given, or the proposed cancellation, variation or amendment of the direction, and that objections to the proposal may be lodged with the Trade Board within the respective times specified in the notice mentioned in sub-paragraphs (i) and (ii) of paragraph (a) of this Regulation.

3. Every occupier of any premises or place used for carrying on work within the jurisdiction of a Trade Board and occupied by an employer or worker within such jurisdiction, or of any place used for giving out work to outworkers, shall, on receipt of the notice mentioned in paragraph (a) of Regulation 2 of these Regulations, post up and keep posted up a sufficient number of true copies thereof in prominent positions in the premises or place used for carrying on work within the jurisdiction of a Trade Board and occupied by an employer or worker within such jurisdiction, or in any place used for giving out work, in such a manner as to ensure in each case that the notice shall be brought to the knowledge of all workers employed by him or on his premises or place who are affected thereby.

4. When a Trade Board have been notified by the Ministry that the Ministry has made an Order confirming any minimum rate of wages fixed by them, or the cancellation or variation of any such minimum rate, or confirming any direction given by them, or the cancellation, variation or amendment of any such direction, they shall send a notice, in such form as may be approved by the Ministry, announcing the making of the Order, to all employers engaged in the trade, or, if the Order applies to any special branch of the trade or to any special area, to all employers engaged in that branch of the trade or engaged in the trade in that special area, so far respectively as their names and addresses are known to the Trade Board; and the said notice shall set out particulars of the rate fixed, or of the rate as varied, or shall indicate the rate that has been cancelled, or (as the case may be) shall set out particulars of the direction given or of the direction as varied or amended or shall indicate the direction that has been cancelled, and shall state the date specified in the Order.

5. (a) Every such occupier as aforesaid shall, on receipt of the notice mentioned in Regulation 4, of these Regulations, post up and keep posted up a sufficient number of true copies thereof in prominent positions in the premises or place indicated in Regulation 3 of these Regulations, in such a manner as to ensure that in each case the notice shall be brought to the knowledge of all workers employed by him or on his premises or place who are affected thereby.

(b) Where a notice refers to some prior notice or notices in such manner that it must, to be properly understood, be read in conjunction with such prior notice or notices, or some part or parts thereof, a sufficient number of true copies of that notice and of the notice or notices to which it refers shall be posted up and kept posted up in the manner aforesaid together, so that that notice and the notice or notices or part or parts thereof to which it refers may be read and construed as one notice.

6. On the making by the Ministry of an Order confirming the cancellation or variation of any minimum rate of wages, or the cancellation, variation or amendment of any direction, it shall be lawful for the Trade Board when issuing a notice of the cancellation, variation or amendment to embody the same in a consolidating notice in a form approved by the Ministry and containing the particulars of the rates or directions previously in force which are left unaffected by the cancellation, variation or amendment and indicating clearly, in compliance with Regulation 4 of these Regulations, the cancellations, variations or amendments thereof or therein, respectively; and in that case the provisions of Regulations 4 and 5 of these Regulations shall apply to such consolidating notice, and the posting up and the keeping posted up of such consolidating notice shall be deemed to be a compliance with the provisions of Regulation 5 of these Regulations, in substitution for the posting up and keeping posted up of the previous notice the rates or directions in which are so cancelled, varied or amended.

7. Where a notice applies only to a special process in the work of the trade or a class of workers in the trade or a class of workers in a special process, an occupier shall be under no obligation to post or keep posted such notice so long as no workers are employed by him or on his premises or place to whom any of the rates or any direction set out in the notice are applicable.

8. The Interpretation Act, 1921, applies to the interpretation of these Regulations as it applies to the interpretation of an Act of the Parliament of Northern Ireland.

9. The Regulations as to the mode of giving notice, dated the 25th day of April, 1924, made by the Ministry under Section 24 of the Trade Boards Act (Northern Ireland), 1923, are hereby repealed except in so far as they relate to notices already required to be given or posted up under and by virtue of the Trade Boards Act (Northern Ireland), 1923.

10. These Regulations may be cited as the Trade Boards (Notices) Regulations (Northern Ireland), 1939.

Sealed with the Official Seal of the Ministry of Labour for Northern Ireland this 21st day of February, 1939, in the presence of

Assistant Secretary.

REGULATIONS, DATED 20TH DAY OF FEBRUARY, 1939, MADE BY THE MINISTRY OF LABOUR FOR NORTHERN IRELAND UNDER THE HOLIDAYS WITH PAY ACT (NORTHERN IRELAND), 1938.

1939. No. 43.

Whereas by sub-section (1) of section 2 of the Holidays with Pay Act (Northern Ireland), 1938, (hereinafter referred to as " the principal Act "), it is provided that the power of any Trade Board to fix minimum rates of wages for any workers shall include power to fix separate minimum rates of wages to be paid to those workers by way of pay in respect of holidays and that subject to the provisions of any Regulations made under the principal Act reference in the Trade Boards Act (Northern Ireland), 1923, to minimum rates of wages shall be construed accordingly;

And whereas by sub-section (1) of section 3 of the principal Act certain provisions of the Trade Boards Act (Northern Ireland), 1923,
