28th October 2024

(a) 1994 c. 26; section 54 was amended by the Intellectual Property (Unjustified Threats) Act 2017 (c. 14), section 2(1) and (4).

(b) Section 54 of the Trade Marks Act 1994 (c. 26) extends to the Isle of Man pursuant to section 108(2) of that Act subject to such exceptions and modifications as are specified in an Order in Council. The relevant Order in Council; S.I. 2013/2601, does not contain any exceptions or modifications relevant to the provision made in this Order.

(c) S.I. 2008/2206, to which there are amendments not relevant to this Order.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Order)

This Order amends the Trade Marks (International Registration) Order 2008 (S.I. 2008/2206), in order to implement an amendment of the Regulations under the Protocol Relating to the Madrid Agreement Concerning the International Registration of Marks (https://www.wipo.int/wipolex/en/treaties/textdetails/19818).

The amendment made by article 2 enables a registration to be concurrent where the goods and services in relation to which protection is conferred by the protected international trade mark (UK) include only some of those for which the trademark is registered.
