3. This Order applies

(i) to any Government, public or other authority in Germany,

(ii) to any individual resident in Germany,

(iii) as respects any business carried on in Germany, to any individual or body of persons (whether corporate or unincorporate) carrying on that business.

4. For the purpose of this Order "Germany" means Berlin and the French, British, American and Russian Military Zones of Germany as established by the statement by the Governments of the United Kingdom, the United States of America, the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics and the Provisional Government of the French Republic on the zones of occupation in Germany on the 5th June, 1945, and also those parts of the former German Reich which are at present administered by the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics.

5.—(1) This Order may be cited as the Trading with the Enemy (Authorisation) (Germany) Order, 1950.

(2) The Interpretation Act, 1889(a), shall apply to the interpretation of this Order as it applies to the interpretation of an Act of Parliament.

Dated this 27th day of October, 1950.

H. S. Gregory,
A Secretary of the Board of Trade.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Order but is intended to indicate its general purport.)

This Order authorises trade with persons in Germany in respect of German-owned copyright in any literary, dramatic, musical and artistic work, copies of which have not been made available for sale to the public in the United Kingdom prior to the date of this Order or which has not been the subject of a licence granted by the Comptroller-General of Patents.

The Trading with the Enemy (Authorisation) (Japan) Order, 1950

1950 No. 28

Made - - - - 6th January, 1950

The Board of Trade in exercise of the powers conferred upon them by Sections 1 and 5 of the Trading with the Enemy Act, 1939(b) (hereinafter referred to as "the Act") and of all other powers enabling them in that behalf do hereby make the following Order:—

1. Notwithstanding anything contained in Section 1 of the Act, any person, unless the Board of Trade otherwise direct, may trade except as provided in Articles 3 and 4 hereof with any person to whom this Order applies.

(a) 52 & 53 Vict. c. 63. (b) 2 & 3 Geo. 6. c. 89.

2.—(i) The transfer by or on behalf of any person within the description contained in Article 5 of this Order of any annuities, stocks, shares, bonds, debentures or debenture stock registered or inscribed in any register, branch register or other book kept in the United Kingdom which, on or after the date of this Order, come into the ownership of any such person as aforesaid, is hereby sanctioned.

(ii) The Board of Trade hereby consent to the allotment or transfer of any securities as defined in paragraph (i) of this Article to or for the benefit of any individual who is an enemy subject resident in Japan or any body of persons constituted or incorporated in, or under the laws of Japan.

3. As regards any property situate in the United Kingdom belonging to or held or managed at the date of this Order on behalf of any person to whom this Order applies and as regards any property arising presently or at any future time out of such property this Licence shall not, except in the case of anything done under an authority, given generally or specially by, or by any person authorised in that behalf by, a Secretary of State, the Treasury or the Board of Trade, extend to or authorise any trade in respect thereof.

4. This Licence shall not, except in the case of anything done under an authority, given generally or specially by, or by any person authorised in that behalf by, a Secretary of State, the Treasury or the Board of Trade, extend to or authorise any trade in respect of any contract entered into before the date of this Order.

5. This Order applies

(i) to any Government, public or other authority in Japan,
(ii) to any individual resident in Japan,
(iii) as respects any business carried on in Japan, to any individual or body of persons (whether corporate or unincorporate) carrying on that business.

6. For the purposes of this Order (i) "property" means real or personal property, and includes any estate or interest in real or personal property, any negotiable instrument, debt or other chose in action, and any other right or interest whether in possession or not, and (ii) "Japan" means all territory which was under Japanese sovereignty on the 7th December, 1941.

7. The Orders specified in the Schedule hereto are hereby revoked.

8.—(1) This Order may be cited as the Trading with the Enemy (Authorisation) (Japan) Order, 1950.

(2) The Interpretation Act, 1889(a) shall apply to the interpretation of this Order as it applies to the interpretation of an Act of Parliament.

Dated this 6th day of January, 1950.

H. S. Gregory,
A Secretary of the Board of Trade.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Order, but is intended to indicate its general purport.)

Trade with persons in Japan has hitherto been permitted to a limited extent only. This Order authorises trade with such persons without restriction except in so far as concerns Japanese property and property rights in the United Kingdom at the date of this Order and property (which includes income) arising now or in future from such property. It further permits the transfer or allotment of securities, as defined, to individuals and bodies of persons in Japan. It revokes certain earlier Orders which authorised trade to a limited degree.

CUSTODIAN

The Trading with the Enemy (Custodian) Order, 1950

1950 No. 494

Made - - - - 28*th March*, 1950
Coming into Operation 11*th April*, 1950

The Board of Trade in exercise of the powers conferred upon them by Section 7 of the Trading with the Enemy Act, 1939(a), and of all other powers enabling them in that behalf do hereby make the following Order:—

1. There shall vest in the Custodian the right to transfer all property belonging to or held or managed on behalf of an enemy and of the following description, that is to say—

(a) jewellery and imitation jewellery, being articles consisting wholly or partly of stones (precious, semi-precious or imitation) or of pearls (real, cultured or imitation);

(b) precious and semi-precious stones;

(c) goldsmiths' and silversmiths' wares, being articles made wholly or partly of gold, silver or other precious metal (including gold plate but not including base metal which is gilt or silver plated); and

(d) articles made wholly or partly of mother-of-pearl, ivory, amber, jet, coral, natural shells or tortoise-shell, jade, onyx, lapis lazuli or other semi-precious stones.

Provided nevertheless that this Order shall not have the effect of vesting in the Custodian any property in respect of which any licence, consent or authority has been given under the Trading with the Enemy Act, 1939, or any Order made thereunder.

2. Any person having possession, control or management of property the subject of this Order shall, on being so required by the Custodian, deliver the same to him.

3. The Custodian shall sell the said property or any part thereof as and when requested so to do by the Board of Trade with power for that purpose to employ such agents as he shall think fit and to obtain the advice or assistance of experts whenever it shall appear to him to be advisable.

(a) 2 & 3 Geo. 6. c. 89.
