Professor Gregg Wilson, M.A., Ph.D., D.Sc.,
The Rev. W. A. Watson, M.A., B.D., } on the nomination of the Senate of Queen's University, Belfast.

and I appoint the Right Honourable H. M. Pollock, D.L., M.P., to be Chairman of the Committee, and J. Yates, Esq., M.A., a Principal Clerk in the Ministry of Education, and D. Frizzell, Esq., Accountant to the Ministry, to be Secretary and Treasurer respectively to the Committee.

And I, the said Minister of Education, do by this Minute assign to the Committee for the Training of Teachers for Northern Ireland the powers and duties set forth in the Schedule aforesaid, and do declare that the exercise or performance of such powers or duties by the said Committee shall remain subject to the direction and control of me the said Minister of Education.

Given under my hand this nineteenth day of May, 1922.

Londonderry,

Minister of Education for Northern Ireland, Belfast.

Schedule to the Foregoing Minute.

1. The membership of the Committee first appointed shall be as specified in the foregoing Minute and the members shall hold office at the pleasure of the Minister of Education. Vacancies in the membership or Chairmanship of the Committee, or in the office of Secretary or Treasurer of the Committee, shall be filled by the Minister. The Minister may at any time appoint such additional members either permanently, or temporarily for special purposes, as he may consider necessary.

2. In the absence of the Chairman of the Committee the other members present shall elect a Chairman to preside at the meeting. Three members of the Committee shall be a quorum, and in case of equality of votes the Chairman of the meeting shall have a second or casting vote. The Committee may delegate any of its powers or duties to a sub-committee or sub-committees consisting in each case of not less than three of its own members. The approved Minutes of the proceedings of the Committee shall be submitted to the Ministry of Education (in this Schedule referred to as " the Ministry ") after each meeting.

3. It shall be the duty of the Comm'ttee to consider the existing provision for the admission of candidates to the teaching profession, and to frame, for the approval of the Ministry, regulations governing the preliminary education, training and certification of teachers for the various grades of schools in Northern Ireland. With a view to providing courses of general or special education or practical training in teaching, the Committee shall have power to make arrangements with Queen's University, Belfast, the Municipal College of Technology, Belfast, and such other institutions or schools in Northern Ireland or elsewhere as may be approved by the Ministry, and on such terms and conditions as regards the financial matters as may be approved by the Ministry with the consent (where necessary) of the Ministry of Finance for Northern Ireland.

4. It shall be the duty of the Committee to select candidates for admission to training and to submit their names to the Ministry for approval. The Committee shall have power, either directly or by means of agreements with other persons or bodies, to arrange for or to supervise hostel or other accommodation for students accepted by the Committee for the purpose of being trained as teachers, and to prescribe the terms and conditions under which students shall be permitted to avail themselves of such accommodation.

5. The Committee shall have power, either directly or in consultation with the authorities of the institutions at which courses of instruction are provided, and with such assistance from officers of the Ministry as may be required, to make arrangements for testing at appropriate stages the proficiency and progress of the students in all subjects, and for recommending to the Ministry the granting of certificates of competency to such students as, in the opinion of the Committee, have successfully completed their course of training.

6. It shall be the duty of the Committee to report to the Ministry from time to time as to the general efficiency of the courses of training and to make any recommendations that may seem desirable with a view to securing such improvements in those courses as may be necessary. The Committee shall also report as to the conduct and progress of the students; shall recommend to the Ministry such disciplinary or other action as may be necessary in individual cases, should the student fail to comply with all reasonable requirements of the Committee; and shall prescribe, as a condition of training, that students must, in all cases, observe the regulations and be subject to the discipline of the institutions at which they are receiving instruction under arrangements made by the Committee.

7. Training grants shall be made by the Ministry from time to time, as may be necessary, to the Committee on the basis of a payment at an annual rate per student in training. the rate being fixed by the Ministry with the approval of the Ministry of Finance, and the Committee shall prepare for the approval of the Ministry, a scheme for the distribution of such grants by way of allowances to students, fees to training institutions, upkeep of hostels, and otherwise as may be considered necessary. The accounts of the Committee shall be made up for the period of twelve months ending on 31st August in each year, and the balances shown in those accounts shall be carried forward to the next period of twelve months.

8. Capital expenditure in providing practising schools, demonstration schools, hostels or other accommodation for students, and equipment in connection therewith shall not be incurred without the approval of the Ministries of Education and Finance.

9. The Committee shall charge such fees to students as may be approved by the Ministry.

10. The Committee shall keep accurate accounts of all income and expenditure in such form as may be prescribed by the Ministry and the same shall be submitted to the Ministry not later than the 30th November in each year, and shall be subject to such audit as may be prescribed by the Ministry.

11. The Ministry may, on the recommendation of the Committee, appoint such part-time or whole-time officers (including teachers) or servants as the Ministry may consider necessary, and all such officers and servants shall during the currency of their engagement, which may be terminated at any time by the Ministry, act under the direction and supervision of the Committee. The salaries, wages and allowances of such officers and servants shall be paid by the Committee out of the funds available under Section 7 of this Schedule, but all expenses incidental to the preliminary work of the Committee shall be met, not out of such grants, but in such manner as may be approved by the Ministry of Finance.

12. The Minister may commit the management of any land or other property acquired or held by him for the purpose of the training or accommodation of students to the Committee with such reservations, if any, as he may consider necessary.

13. The Committee shall have power to discharge such other duties not herein specified as may appear to the Minister necessary or incidental to the proper discharge of the functions entrusted to it.

14. If any question arises as to the meaning, intention or effect of any provision of this Schedule, that question shall be determined by the Minister, whose decision shall be final.

Teachers' Salaries.

GRANT RULES MADE BY THE LORD LIEUTENANT UNDER THE INTERMEDIATE EDUCATION (IRELAND) ACT, 1914.

1922. No. 53.

By the Lord Lieutenant-General and General Governor of Ireland, FITZALAN OF DERWENT.

Whereas by the Intermediate Education (Ireland) Act, 1914, it is amongst other things enacted that the Lord Lieutenant may make rules for carrying the Act into effect and in particular for the purpose of prescribing, with the approval of the Ministry of Finance for Northern Ireland, the manner in which the annual sum in the Act referred to as the Teachers' Salaries Grant is to be applied.

And whereas it appears to the Lord Lieutenant to be expedient that the said grant should be applied within Northern Ireland in accordance with the Rules hereinafter set out.

Now, therefore, We, Edmund Bernard Talbot, Viscount FitzAlan of Derwent, Lord-Lieutenant General and General Governor of Ireland, by virtue of the powers vested in Us under the Intermediate Education (Ireland) Act, 1914, and of every other power Us in that behalf enabling, do hereby, with the approval of the Ministry of Finance for Northern Ireland make the following rules for the purposes aforesaid :—

1.—(1) In these Rules unless the context otherwise requires :—
The expression " the Act " means the Intermediate Education (Ireland) Act, 1914.
