The Minister of Education, in exercise of the powers conferred upon him by section 100 of the Education Act 1944(a), hereby makes the following regulations :—

1. These regulations may be cited as the Training of Teachers (Grant) Amending Regulations 1963, and shall come into operation on 1st September 1963.

2. The Training of Teachers (Grant) Regulations 1959(b), as amended by the Training of Teachers (Grant) Amending Regulations 1960(c), the Training of Teachers (Grant) Amending Regulations No. 2 1961(d) and the Training of Teachers (Grant) Amending Regulations 1962(e), are hereby further amended by the substitution of the following regulation for regulations 5 and 6 :—

"5(1) If the Minister is satisfied that for the purposes of increasing or improving the facilities available for the training of teachers, expenditure should be incurred on the provision of a new, or the extension, improvement or replacement of an existing, training college, or on the provision of furniture or equipment required in connection with the above purposes, and is further satisfied that such expenditure would be in the interest of the efficient organisation of such facilities in England and Wales, he may pay grant towards such expenditure to the governing body of the college in accordance with this regulation.

(2) The amount of grant shall not exceed 75 per cent. of such expenditure as aforesaid, unless the remainder of such expenditure would otherwise have been met by a university, either out of moneys supplied by the Treasury or by an appropriation of other moneys, the result of which would be to increase the grant payable by the Treasury to the university.

(3) Grant shall not be payable under this regulation unless the Minister shall have given his final approval to the proposed provision, improvement, extension or replacement before 31st March 1967."
