LOCAL TAXATION LICENCES

1952 No. 2205

The Transferred Excise Duties (Application of Enactments) Order, 1952

Made - - - - 18*th December*, 1952
Coming into Operation 1*st January*, 1953

The Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, in exercise of the power conferred on them by section three hundred and thirteen of the Customs and Excise Act, 1952(a), hereby make the following order:—

1. In the case of any local authority to whom the power to levy any excise duty has been transferred under section six of the Finance Act, 1908(b), or section fifteen of the Finance Act, 1949(c), the provisions of the Customs and Excise Act, 1952, set out in the Schedule to this Order shall have effect in relation to that authority and their officers with respect to the transferred duties and the licences on which those duties are imposed as they have effect in relation to the Commissioners and officers of Customs and Excise with respect to other excise duties and licences, subject, however, to the modifications, if any, specified in that Schedule.

2. The following provisions of the Order in Council made on the nineteenth day of October, nineteen hundred and eight fixing the date of transfer of certain local taxation licences to county councils and county boroughs under section six of the Finance Act, 1908, and making provisions therefor(d) are hereby revoked, that is to say, Article V from the words "and shall" onwards and Article VII.

3. This Order may be cited as the Transferred Excise Duties (Application of Enactments) Order, 1952, and shall come into operation on the first day of January, nineteen hundred and fifty-three.

Dated this 18th day of December, 1952.

Herbert Butcher,
Hendrie D. Oakshott,
Two of the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note does not form part of the Order, but is intended to indicate its general purport.)

This Order applies to local authorities such provisions of the Customs and Excise Act, 1952, as are necessary for the administration of the excise duties on licences (dog, gun, hawkers and pawnbrokers licences, etc.) that have been transferred to local authorities.

The Order also repeals certain provisions requiring the Postmaster General to certify from time to time the amounts of the duties collected and paid to each local authority and requiring the Minister of Housing and Local Government to obtain from each local authority returns of repayments and penalties and to certify these amounts.
